London Corn-Exchange, July 3.
Although the arrivals of Foreign Wheat since Monday have been very considerable, yet that of fine quality met ready sale, at Wednesday's prices. Barley and Oats at 2s. per quarter dearer, and brisk at that advance. Beans and Peas are also 2s. per quarter dearer, owing to the continuance of dry weather, which is most injurious to the crops.

TO THE GENTLEMEN AND FREEHOLDERS OF THE COUNTY OF C...
ACCEPT my most grateful thanks for the distinguished situation of your Representative. My ambition has nothing further to do with the recollections of the friendship and assistance for so many years, unite me to you in an obligation.
I have the honour to be,
Your very faithful and obedient servant,
EDWARD DROMOLAND,
Dromoland, July 3, 1818.

TO THE GENTLEMEN AND FREEHOLDERS OF THE COUNTY OF C...
WITH the deepest sense of obligation I acknowledge the favour which you have bestowed upon me, although I cannot give expression to the feelings which this day has excited—but from you.
You have chosen me to be your Representative in Parliament, and you have done so with stamps additional value, and higher distinction.
I can make no adequate return for the favour which I can offer none. The only return which I can serve you with fidelity and with true respect, is to resign the sacred charge which my election has imposed upon me, trust me you shall have it with a humble hope, not discredited by your Servant.
WILLIAM VESELY
