

Mr. J. Browne are re-
Mr. J. Bent for Sligo.
at he promised his supthe Co. Mayo election.
addressed the independen-he states, that should retirement, he will offer s at the late Election for obliged to be stationed at quence of the infamous

RY-ELECTION.
terday evening :
Mr. Prittie, 3344
Mr. Barton, 586

ELECTION—JULY 11.
OLL.
..... 2302
..... 1430
..... 1392

ORD ELECTION.
OLL.
clough, 2484
entia, 2463

well fought and the paranior agents, are all most r success. Several duels, fought, but wisely pro-
ver! against which time, animosity may cease, and forget all quarrels—at as gentlemen may warmly eir feelings to be irritated pitch. Hostile messages opford to Mr Colcough, Carew, owing to gentle-by each other, contrary to

GH ELECTION.
m Armagh, July 11.

ted with the termination
Mr. Caulfield declined
; but a few of the dis-lled for Mr. Richardson, day, until a sufficient mapeared on the face of the f the reach of doubt or osed his books, and an-llows :—

..... 1866
..... 1742
..... 1281

few of the mobility, eviof the jolly God, evinced few stones were thrown,
of the High Sheriff, and a
had the immediate effect lity. One young man was bayonet of one of the dered in any danger."

her of our Elections has on appears much divided
a. In the County the poll-nies; the booths for the shut. The following is the ces :—

AY GROSS POLL.
..... 2224
..... 1294
..... 1014

WAY ELECTION.
endergast, 254

One hundred and thirty men of the 66th regt. have died at St. Helena of the dysentery within the last six months.

On Sunday, the Hon. Sir W. C. Smith, Bart.
arrived here from Ennis.

Part of our last impression was printed before the Grand Juries were sworn; we therefore republish them.

CITY GRAND JURY.

George Gough, jun. Esq. Foreman, Sir Richard Harte, Knt. Alderman, Brooke Brazier, Esq. Henry D'Esterre, Esq.
Alderman, Joseph Cripps, Esq. Alderman, Ralph Westropp, Esq. Alderman, Thomas Maunsell Rose, Esq. Christopher Arbathnot Marrett, Esq. Andrew Watson, Esq. Alderman, Henry Rose, Esq. Thomas F. Wilkinson, Esq. Alderman, Thomas Ormsby, Esq. John Cripps, Esq. Vere Hunt, Esq.
James Willington, Esq. Philip Russell, Esq. Alderman, Joseph Sargent, Esq. Wm. Marcus Jackson, Esq. William
Taylor, Esq. John M'Allister Taverner, Esq. and Thomas Rose, Esq.

COUNTY GRAND JURY.

Lord Viscount Glentworth, Foreman, Hon. William Massy, Sir Vere Hunt, Bart. William O'Connell, William Thomas Mansell, John Croker, Staudish O'Grady, John Bolton Massy, De Courcy O'Grady, George Tuthill, Thos.
Spring Rice, Eyre Evans, William Ryves, Hiffernan Conisidine, Gerald Blennerhassett, George Evans Bruce, William Gabbett, Benjamin Friend, Michael Scantlan, James Massy, Ion Studdert, Joseph Gabbins, Kiltash, and John C. Hiffernan, Esqrs.

In the City Court, the following convictions have taken place :—

- Michael Cooney, for an assault on James Lane, with intent to murder him.
- John Ormond, for receiving stolen goods.
- William Huddle, for stealing cows.
- John Callaghan, for felony.
- John Brown, for receiving stolen sheep.
- William Nix and Patrick Kelly, acquitted of burglary in the house of Richard Allen, but convicted of receiving articles, the property of said Allen.

No conviction of any consequence has yet taken place in the County.

Viscount Castlereagh embarked at Donaghadee on his way to London, on Monday last.

John M. Galwey, Esq. is appointed Magistrate for the Counties of Cork and Waterford.

Yesterday an inquest was held in Adare, by John Cox, Esq. Coroner, on the body of Patrick Foley, of Rathkeale, shoemaker, who was drowned while bathing in the river Maigue, the previous day. Verdict, "Accidental Death."

On Saturday, the Fox Smuggling Cutter was purchased by Francis Spaight, Esq. of this City, with all her sails, rigging, &c. for £365. The remainder of her cargo, with the stores, &c. were sold at same time. The nett produce of vessel and cargo is £10,000. The Geneva brought a much higher price at this sale than the first.

The Cork Jail Committee have presented the sum of Thirty Guineas to G. R. Pain, Esq. of this City, as a premium for an approved drawing of a Penitentiary and House of Correction, intended to built and attached to the Jail of that City.

A Gentleman belonging to this City writes from Marseilles that the weather in that country has been so extremely wet, that the farmer's have given up the idea of being able to save the harvest this year.

mitted to their care. This week they have the works at Court Bridge, which when complete will give to Adare and the surrounding neighbintercourse with the sea and the maritime Kingdom.—And they are at present surveying locks on the Limerick Navigation, so as to repair may be commenced, which from the last winter is so very requisite.

The Quarterly Examinations for Trinity held on Monday and Tuesday, the 19th and 20th 1818, for the Classes of Senior Sophisters and men; and on Thursday and Friday, the 22d and 23d Classes of Junior Sophisters and Junior Public Examination for entrance in October for Monday, the 12th, instead of the first month, which has been hitherto the day for will not be any Public Examination for Enor September. In the last List of Premiums Stius, and Mr. Burke, 2dus. read Mr. Bushe Bushe, 2dus.

BIRTH—In Dublin, the Lady of Captain Lawers, of a son—At Skibbereen, the L
Gay, Esq. of a son—At Barbreck, Argyllsh Captain Campbell, of a son—At Edinburgh, Palinella, of a son—The Lady of the Re of Caledon, of a son—At Lewes, the Lad Parker, of the Royal Horse Artillery, of a Connell, the Lady of J. W. Graves, Esq.
Linders, of a daughter.

MARRIED—In London, Captain George
Light Dragoons, to Emma, daughter of t Henchman, Esq. of New Burlington-stree se'night, at Frutfield, near Glasgow, by Begg, James Cleland, Esq. of this City youngest daughter of Wm. Mack, Esq. A diately after the ceremony they set out fo Callan, Lieut. Ardagh, Dublin County reg daughter of the late Doctor Jackson—In Pontet, Esq. to Ann Maria, daughter o
Esq.—At Edinburgh, Berkeley Buckingha
Esq. of Maine, Co. Louth, to Anne, daught Colonel Tyler—In London, Hugh Lewis of the 58th regt. to Jane, only daughter of Esq. of Tundridge Court, Surrey.

DIED—On Saturday last, at her house i sincerely and deservedly lamented by her and connexions, Mrs. Fitz-Gerald, relict Fitz-Gerald, Esq. of Ballinvara, in this Co and hope being in CHRIST JESUS the LORD the world to save sinners, death being dep and the grave of a victory, she calmly fell in the eightieth year of her age—In Du Motley, daughter of the late Thomas Byrne Hill, Co. Wicklow—In Clonmel, Surge regt.—At Tramore, Pat. Colclough, Esq.
At Cobham Park, Surrey, Harvey Christ
many years one of the Representatives the City of London—At Paris, the infant William Russell, son of the Duke of Be the relict of the late William Cordner, Es Dublin, Alderman Kirkpatrick—At his Court Green, Francis Thomas Fitzmauric Upon the loss of his wife, April, 1799, h to privacy and seclusion. Duly attentive and the calls of friendship, he has bequeath sum to public charities. Mrs. Hinde, hi nominated sole Executrix—At Stanwell, daughter of Sir John Gibbons—At Over the infant son of Captain James C. Crav Ralph John Blois, Esq. son of the late Si of Cookfield-hall, Suffolk—In Randalst Ashmore, of the Antrim Staff—At New Galway, the relict of the late Francis B house at Sunning Hill, Berks, Lady L Gen. Sir David Lindsay, Bart—In Yo Hastings.

Return of Corn, Grains, and Flour, a last week :—

Barrels.	Amount.
204 Oats,	151 11 8
593 Cwt, Flour,	653 0 0