ERRATA.—The advertisement for setting the lands of Kilbreedy, which appeared in our last, should read "to be set to the first of May next," instead of "from the first of May next."

A small quantity of Wheat at market to-day, which sold at 1s. 8hd. per stone—Flour, Oats, and Oatmeal, at last quotation.—Butter, 126—120—110—100.

London Corn-Exchange, July 17.

We had very considerable arrivals of Wheat this week, both English and Foreign, for which there has been scarcely any demand, which occasioned exceedingly heavy sale this morning, at a decline of from 2s. to 4s. per quarter.—Barley is also full 2s. per quarter cheaper, and difficult to be got off at that reduction. The supply of Oats is very large, which were tendered full 3s. per quarter lower than
