

Secretary of State entered upon the official situation on Monday, and sailed for England on Monday with him the unaffected good-will of every subject in Ireland.

Members of Cork have addressed the Earl of Peel on his departure.

At Castlecoote and Howth, Mr. M. P. and Hamilton, M. P. Ousey and White, waited on Mr. Peel, with the Co. Dublin address, and they left him on Saturday.

The Right Hon. Lord Chief Baron Macneil was en route near this morning, with his son-in-law, the Hon. Major of Clare and Lady Isabella arrived at Mount-Shannon, from London, on Saturday.

The celebrated aeronaut, who left Limerick several years ago, has arrived in America.

Mr. J. Hester, Esq. is elected Representative for the district, vice General Michell.

Mr. M. P. is elected Mayor of Limerick; O'Hara, Esq. Recorder; M. T. Dillon, Esqrs. Sheriffs; and Mr. Esq. Town Clerk for the ensuing year.

At a meeting of the Corporation on Monday, H. H. Hunt, Esq. was elected a Councilman, in the room of George O'Hara, Esq. recently elected Alderman.

The following Sessions Grand and Marine were sworn in before the Recorder and Mr. Watson, Wilkinson and Russell, with the following names:—

—John McAllister Taverner, Esq. Sheriff; David Stephenson, Charles O'Hara, Wm. Wilson, William O'Farrell, William Lloyd, John Ward, William Evans, John Sparrow, Thomas Devitt, Thomas M'Mahon, Thomas Clark, Bassett Dickson, Zachary Wheeler, Joseph Bromfield, James O'Brien, and Richard Fennessy.

—James Dooly, Francis Quinn, Patrick Costelloe, James Ryan, Stephen Bourke, John M'Arnell, Andrew M'Auliff, John Francis Creagh, and John Unthank.

The Bishop of Limerick will hold his Visitation for this Diocese at the Cathedral on Monday the 12th instant.

The Bishop of Tuam will hold his Visitation at Ardagh on Monday next.

The Bishop of Clonfert has been pleased to appoint the Rev. Edward Hartigan, Vicar of the Parish of the County Galway, to be Joint Vicar with Robert Blake, Esq. of Eyrecourt, for the County of Limerick.

The much pleasure in announcing the resignation of Surgeon Thwaites, and that in a few days he will be enabled to resume his professional duties.

Races will commence on the 19th inst. On Monday night, some audacious villains killed nine sheep at Mount-Shannon, in the County of the Earl of Clare, and took away the carcasses, and the entire of the fat. A warning notice was posted on the Rev.

Port News.—Arrived, Philippa, Blaney, Exeter, bark; Wellington, Evans, Cardiff, iron; Eliza, Selbourne, Cardiff, coal; Endeavour, Humphrys, Liverpool, sundries; Selling, Owens, London, sundries; Lloyds, Lontil, Newport, coal and glass; Neptune, Browning, Padstou, bark.

EXPORTS.—Friends, London, 280 firkins butter, E. Ryan & Sons; 300 firkins do. D. Hunt; 699 firkins do. T. Ryan; 231 firkins do. Thomas Studdert—Resolution, London, 400 firkins butter, 611 brls oats, William White—Hope, London, 1008 brls oats, Michael Egan—Aurora, London, 1430 brls oats, Michael Egan—Friends, London, 1554 brls oats, R. Nugent—Isabella, Liverpool, 697 brls oats, J. Ferguson—Union, Liverpool, 1423 brls oats, M. P. Rochford—Eleanor, Liverpool, 713 brls oats, Richard Nugent.

COMMITTED.—To the County Jail, by John Evans, Esq. James Brown, for an assault—By William Wilson, Esq. Patrick Doherty, for stealing potatoes—By J. C. Hiffernan, Esq. Thady Wall, for pig-stealing—By George Massy, Esq. Mary Ryan, for cow-stealing—To the City Jail, by Alderman Wilkinson, Ellen Hogan, for cow-stealing.

BIRTH.—Yesterday, at Plassy, the Lady of Robert Hedges Maunsell, Esq. of this City, Banker, of a son and heir—At Newport, Isle of Wight, the Lady of Lieut. Barford, of a son—In Dublin, Mrs. Thomas Orde Lees, of a son—At Chatham, the Lady of Captain Colly, Royal Marines, of a son—In Edinburgh, Lady Anne Wardlaw, of a daughter.

MARRIED.—At Edinburgh, Robert Filson, Esq. of the Madras Medical Establishment, to Maria Euphemia, only daughter of the late Lieut.-Colonel Flint, 25th regt.—At Glin, Mr. John Euright, to Mrs. Lyons, widow of the late Mr. Lyons, of Newtownsands, County Kerry—F. Charles Eaton, Esq. Attorney, to Rosa, eldest daughter of Edward Graham, of Ballymore, County Meath, Esq.—In London, the Most Noble the Marquis of Bute, to Lady Maria North, eldest daughter of the late George Earl Guilford—At St. Lawrence Church, Thanet, Mr. Slaughter, principal officer of his Majesty's Customs at Ramsgate, to Miss Waters—Andrew Nixon, Esq. of Graan, Co. Fermanagh, to Mary, daughter of Andrew Nixon, Esq. of Hollebrook—Lieutenant Judge, 82d regt. to Emilia, daughter of John Sinnett, Esq.—In Cork, John Seymour, of Bandon, Esq. to Elizabeth, relict of the late Kingston Walsh, Esq. of the same town.

DIED.—At Port Elliot, Cornwall, the Countess of St. Germain—At Ferney Green, Westmoreland, Robert Allan, Esq. Banker in Edinburgh—At Summer-hill, Dublin, the wife of John Fowler, Esq.—On the 23d ultimo, at Cashel, James Doherty, Esq. late of Keadra, County Tipperary—Maddisson Fisher, of Castlegrogan, Queen's Co. Esq.—On Thursday, at Tuam, Major Edwards, Barrack Master of that town—The Hon. Lucy Pelham, daughter of Lord Yarborough—In Cork, the wife of the late Dr. Daly—On the 24th ult. Charles Widenham, Esq. This estimable gentleman departed this life at his seat, Castle-Widenham, Co. Cork, in the 76th year of his age. Being by profession an Attorney, he devoted thirty years of the early part of his valuable life in the discharge of the important duties of it, and during that time, we may safely say that no man in any profession ever conducted himself with more integrity and purity than he did. His business as an Attorney during that time was very great, and his clients most respectable. His professional information was universally admitted, but the correctness and liberality, and purity of his practice, were still more conspicuous; having by his most diligent, honorable, and faithful professional industry during the above period, added considerably to the fortune handed down to him from a most respectable line of ancestry, retired many years before his death from all professional pursuits, and since to the day of his death allotted himself to the promoting all those social and endearing virtues that soften the evils of this life, and secure the blessings of a future one. Mr. Widenham was a Magistrate of the Counties of Limerick and Cork—In London, Lord Viscount Anson—At Newport, Herefordshire, the Hon. Andrew Foley, M. P. for Droitwich.—At Sherborne, the widow of the late Doctor M. Asher, of Bath—In Waterford, Counsellor Paul, late M. P. Irish House of Commons, and Recorder of that City—Mrs. Thomas Sheperd, of Waterford—Miss Chute, of New Ross.

RAPESEED.

JOHN REDDAN Will give a liberal Price for RAPESEED

FRIENDLY BROTHERS

THE LIMERICK KNIGHTS WILL MEET AT ST. VINCENT'S ON FRIDAY, the 7th INSTANT, at half-past 8. W. F. R. S. August 5, 1819.

BY PARTICULAR DESIRE THERE WILL BE A BALL AT CASTLE-CO. ON FRIDAY NEXT, Patronized by Sir JOHN ALLEN DE BONO Major PENNEFATHER.

ATLANTIC HOTEL BALL AND SUPPER ON FRIDAY, THE 7TH INSTANT

A well appointed GIGGLE will be at the ATLANTIC HOTEL, to meet the passengers every day she arrives at Kilrush, for the accommodation of Passengers going to Malbay.

GRAND BALL.

AT THE PARTICULAR REQUEST OF THE LADIES and GENTLEMEN at the KILBRIDE. There will be a GRAND BALL ON TUESDAY, the 11th INSTANT. ADMITTANCE, Ladies, ..... Gentlemen, ..... Tea, Coffee, and Negus, included.

The Steam Packet leaves Limerick on Tuesday at 10 o'clock, and returns on the following day morning.

A GOVERNESS WANTED To Educate four young Children in the English Language.

ALSO, A CHILDREN'S MISTRESS That has good Recommendations. Application to be made at the Chronicle Office.

TAKE NOTICE

THAT Lord LISMORE'S MOUNTAIN Hammersley's, in the Barony of Ballyvaughan, County Tipperary, are thickly populated with Persons found shooting on them will be prosecuted by Law directs.

AUCTION OF DEER

TO BE SOLD BY AUCTION FOR ACCOUNT OF THE COMMISSIONERS At the Bonding Yard in Malbay And Near of the Tortine Building ON THE 20TH INSTANT, AT 10 O'CLOCK. The CARGO of the ANNA, Containing about ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY-TWO COWS NORWAY DEER Limerick

ONE THOUSAND OAK TREES

OF SUPERIOR QUALITY FROM TEN TO SIXTY FEET IN LENGTH TO BE SOLD BY AUCTION ON THE DEMESNE OF MALBAY ON MONDAY, the 10th of AUGUST, until the entire are disposed of. Those Trees are all cut down