

...in good health. That vessel
...in our river, after having accom-
...at home again since May, in the
...ing passengers were employed on their
...were getting 10 dollars a month,
...washing.

...of the horizon, on a fine evening,
...k, presents, soon after sunset, most
...u. The Moon rapidly approaches
...majestically splendid in the South.—
...Venus is seen fast descending into the
...Saturn slowly rises in the East; and,
...circle, the eye, carried round to the
...that beautiful star Capella, shedding a
...which increases in brilliancy as the Sun
...er hemisphere. Of the other objects
...tion of the observer in the "o'erhang-
...e most conspicuous is the fine star
...llows the setting Sun, each evening
...the month of October, when it will
...light, and disappear in the flood of

...the Fever Hospital has received from
...dozen Flannel Waistcoats, and from
...zen Buffaty Night Caps, for the most
...omen on leaving the Hospital, and from
...of Thomond Gate, 12s. a fine on a
...of engagement in dealing.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

...annual show of Fruit and Flowers, of the
...y of Ireland, took place at the Rotunda
...he Lord Lieutenant was present as one
...ere was a most delightful display, such as
...d gratify the senses of those who admire
...d who feel for the interests of a Society
...eneficial to this country: it was such as
...on to still further exertions.

...iums, consisting of silver cups and other
...e adjudged to the respective Gardeners for

...ited for premiums consisted of Pines,
...rapes, Nectarines, Melons, Plumbs, Red
...Currants, Figs, &c. &c.

...tics were, the Cotton tree, the Cayenne
...m tree, the Coffee tree, a beautiful blue
...inese rose tree of large dimensions, the
...tiful Maranthus's of the cockscomb kind,
...Flake Carnations, Picotees, Pinks, Rus-
...ns, Hydrangeas, &c. &c.

...are so very light in the neighbourhood of
...demand so great owing to the late aridity
...that article has risen to 11s. per cwt.—
...e merchant vessels which leave Dublin in
...ool, take advantage of this scarcity, and
...much as possible into their ships, for which
...ne return.

...n Glasgow at from £4 15s. to £5 5s. per

...ants agree as to the probable high price
...ear in the ensuing winter, it is rather ex-
...e price of Cattle should continue so high:
...ur in this neighbourhood advance in rates.
...at barley straw, which in general forms a
...inter provision for cattle, is likewise con-
...t in quantity.

...atoes which were imported here some time
...sues to be most prolific in our soil. They
...d this week by several Gentlemen by whom
...; and though not yet sufficiently matured
...arance in the ground exceeds any other des-
...e, and the quantity under each plant vastly

...to be very plenty this season; there is a
...or hogsheads and other vessels, for that

...Return of the quantity of Linen Cloth,
...d Sold in this Market, for the Week ended
...ugust, 1818.

th	38	Pieces	2005	Yards
	14	Ditto	1152	Ditto
	7	Ditto	575	Ditto

...loads of excellent new Wheat at market
...ent off at 2s. 6d. per stone—New Oats,
...Flour and Oatmeal at last quotations—
...e per cwt. since last market day: prices

MARRIED—At Banff, Captain John Charles Griffiths, 94th regt. to Elizabeth, daughter of the late Lieut.-Colonel Robert Blane—At North Berwick Lodge, Major Madox, of the Enniskillen Dragoons, to Miss Williams—In the East Indies, Major James Brodie, 11th Madras Native Infantry, to Eliza, eldest daughter of Thomas Thompson, Esq.—Mr. J. Burghall, to Charlotte, daughter of Lieutenant-Colonel J. Colebrooke, C. B. Madras Light Cavalry—At Banquhar, Henry Hardy, Esq. M. D. of Manchester, to the daughter of the late Robert Whigham, Esq.—William Reddull, Esq. of Liverpool, to Anne Borringdon, daughter of the late William Lowndes, of Sanbach, Esq.—Lieut. William Collis, 5th regt. foot, to Ursula, daughter of John White, Esq. of Castlehill, Co. Wexford—At Seapatrik Church, Captain Read, late of the 17th Light Dragoons, to Charlotte, daughter of the late James Mackey, Esq.—William Hamilton Roe, of Dublin, Esq. to Miss Colclough, of Ballyure, County Carlow—In Cork, Mr. William Kennealy, to Catherine, daughter of Mr. Daniel Vaughan, of Mallow—In Waterford, the Rev. Richard H. Ryland, to Isabella, second daughter of the Rev. Archdeacon Fleury—In Dublin, John Curry, Esq. of Rogerson's-quay, to Isabella, daughter of Arthur Keen, Esq. of Charlemont-street—At Aghnacloy Church, James W. Ferguson, of Moygashel, to Mary, daughter of Thomas Moore, Esq. of Bawn, Co. Tyrone—In Glasgow, Robert Ferguson, Esq. to Barbara, daughter of John Hall, Esq.—William Cockayne Frith, D. C. L. late Chaplain to the Forces in the Ionian Isles, to Mary, daughter of Richard Cox, Esq. of Oxford, banker—At Canterbury, William H. Baldwin, Esq. of Edge-hill, near Liverpool, to Mary Ann, daughter of the Rev. Julius Hutchinson—In London, Henry Browne, Esq. of Dublin, to Miss Bailey—In Dublin, Mr. W. Abbott, to Sarah, daughter of the late Rev. Thomas Crawford, of Elphin, County Roscommon—At Carrigaline Church, W. Harrington, Esq. of Crosshaven, to Eliza Hayes, daughter of the late Samuel Austen, Esq.—John Torop Nicholas, Esq. a Companion of the Most Hon. Military Order of the Bath, and Commander of the Royal and Military Order of St. Ferdinand and of Merit, of the Two Sicilies, and a Post Captain in the Royal Navy, to Frances Anne, eldest daughter of Nicholas Were, Esq. of Landcox, Somersetshire.

DIED—In Clonmel, Colonel M'Mahon, of Clonim, Co. Clare, and Newcourt, Co. Wicklow, late of the 27th, and Barrack-Master of that town—In Casbel, Mrs. Lockwood, relict of Ben. Lockwood, Esq. and sister to Sir John Craven Carden, Bart.—At Riverview, near Skilbberreen, aged 84, Cornelius O'Driscoll, Esq.—At Macroom, the son of Mr. Thomas Slade—In Waterford, William Hobbs, Esq. of the Adelphi Terrace—Arthur Birnie, Esq. Proprietor of the Waterford Chronicle—In Cork, the wife of Mr. Morgan O'Connell—At Ballglass, Co. Sligo, the relict of the late Andrew Todd, Esq.—At Rathfolan Castle, near Newmarket, Mr. M. Magrath—Mr. Wm. Moore, late of Ludgate-street, London—In London, in his 76th year, Francis Newbery, Esq. of St. Paul's Church-yard—At Hampstead, Marianne Araminta, youngest daughter of Admiral Sir J. P. Beresford, in camp, at Ashta, East Indies, Lieut. B. Meredith, of the 3d or Palamcottah Light Infantry—At Berhampore, Lieuts. G. W. Noble and H. Byrn, 2d Native Infantry—Killed, at Nagpore, Lieut. T. Bell, Royal Scots—Lieut. Reynolds, 89th regt.—The wife of Captain J. Ewing, 24th Native Infantry—In Dublin, Surgeon James Gabbett Bouchier, of Richmond Surgical Hospital—At Wicklow, Marjane, only daughter of Thomas Smith, Esq. M. D.—In Dublin, Mr. John Rigby—and the infant son of T. Orde Lees, Esq.—At Gracehill, Mrs. Jane Benade, wife of the Rev. Samuel Benade, Bishop of the United Brethren's Church—At the Largs, Scotland, Captain Robert Jameson, late a ship master in Belfast—In America, Sir John Oldmixon—In London, the infant son of the Hon. Thomas Erskine—The wife of Mr. James Steel, of Banbridge—In Waterford, Mr. Denis Flynn, deputy jailer—At Armagh, Rebecca, daughter of the late Mr. George Barns, merchant—At Rathcormick, the relict of Daniel O'Flynn, Esq.—At Sierra Leone, Captain N. O. Leman, late of the Royal African Corps—In Bury, Sir Patrick Blake, Bart.—Mr. James Pierce, one of the Barrack-Masters of Ipswich.—At Brighton, the Right Hon. Lady Charlotte Eyre, second daughter of the Earl of Newburgh.

ENGLISH HOPS.

JUST ARRIVED TO
HARVEY, FISHER, and HARVEY,
10 POCKETS OF HOPS.

CHEAP WOOLLEN, MANCHESTER AND HAT WARE-HOUSE.
CHARLOTTE'S-QUAY.

JOHN HANLY,
BEGS to acquaint his Friends and the Public that he has just arrived to him a most superior Assortment of WOOLLEN DRAPERY, which being Purchased at the late very heavy advance on Woollens, he is now selling at the same reduced prices as formerly. He has himself of this opportunity to return his grateful acknowledgments, for the very liberal support his Friends have received, particularly since his adoption of the system of marking the lowest price on each article. He has fully appreciated the fairness of this principle, and places the most unexperienced Purchaser on a level with the best judge; and he pledges himself to persevere in the system which has secured for his Establishment a preference.
An Apprentice wanted. 35 August

J. KAVANAGH, UPHOLSTERER.
Shannon-street, (from Dublin.)

BEGS to return his sincerest thanks to his Friends and the Public, for the decided preference given to his commencement in business; he solicits the patronage of those who may want any thing in the above line, as he is determined to do it greatly to their interest to deal with him, as he works in the most neat, excellent, and fashionable manner, and sells on the most reasonable terms.
Mattresses and Palliasses, Grecian and English Drapery Curtains, in the most fashionable and approved, Patent Blinds, Folding Screens, and in the above line, equal to any ever manufactured in the Kingdom.
N. B.—A great variety of Fringes and Borders.
Limerick, August 1818

WATERFORD AND LIMERICK.

THE Public are respectfully informed that on the 10th of August a COACH will commence running between WATERFORD and LIMERICK, leaving Waterford on the Mornings of Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, at 10 o'Clock, passing through Carrick, Clonmel, Tipperary, and arriving at the Mail Coach Office in Limerick by seven o'Clock in the Evening. The Coach will leave Limerick for Waterford at seven o'Clock on Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, and for the latter City at seven o'Clock in the Evening.
The MAIL COACH for CLONMEL, will leave Waterford at a quarter before three o'Clock in the Morning, and from Clonmel every Morning at a quarter before seven o'Clock.
N. B.—The Packets for Millford sail every Tuesday, and the Bristol Packet every Thursday.

NOTICE.

NICHOLAS BREEN, Brother of JOHN BREEN, who went some time since to Newfoundland, has been appointed by the Hon. JOHN BREEN, Brother-in-law of said JOHN BREEN, of something to their advantage, by the Hon. STEPHEN PHELAN, Bookseller and Stationer, in Waterford—bringing with them full vouchers for their identity, certified by the Hon. JOHN BREEN, with references (if possible) to persons in Waterford acquainted with the handwriting of the said JOHN BREEN.
3/10 10/10 1818

AT a MEETING held at Bird-Hill, on the 10th of August, 1818, pursuant to the Order of Sir ROBERT WALLER, Bart. the following Resolutions were adopted: