

Lord Kilwarden arrived at Mountshannon this ok, on a visit to Lord Clare.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant and suite ened Killarney on Wednesday evening—His excellency's presence in Killarney has caused an usual throng of visitors, — The expectation of a g hunt on the Lakes, adds, considerably, to the inary attractions of the place.

The Sheriffs and Common Speaker of Cork, to proceed to Killarney, with an invitation to Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, from the ayor and Corporation of that City, and a request it he may favour them with the appointment of day, on which he would honour them with his mpany at a civic feast at the Mansion House.

The English Attorney-General has given an inion in favour of the allowance for travelling pences to Coroners, for the journey from, as well to, the place where an inquest is held.

A circumstance has just come to our knowledge, hich appears strange, has not before now been sen notice of in some of the public prints: on the 5th of August, Mr. Poole of Cushineea, near ortarlington, a Magistrate of the King's County, s shot in his own meadow, while superintending s hay makers. It appears, that he was in emrassed circumstances, and one of his tenants ving volunteered to arrest him under a decree, so having made his caption, some scuffle ensued, d one of the Assistants in the order fired and ot him—he died in six hours after.

Last night, six armed fellows attacked the ouses of two farmers, on the lands of Killena-ariffe, in the East Liberties of this City, beyond ajor Gough's, and robbed them of money, household furniture, linen, &c. to a large amount.

This day, Roger Shue, Esq. of Ballymaerse, detected a fellow selling a stolen cow to o brachers, on the road near Borheen, and he ery property sent both thief (Pat. Madden) and e buyers to jail.

On Wednesday morning, a jobber, going to e Fair of Ennis, was robbed near Meelick, by x ruffians, of £100.

The house of Mr. Henry Stephens, of Blennerlle County Kerry was entered on Monday night, y some villains, who carried off various articles property, together with all the provisions, spirits, c. in the house.

Coote, the manufacturer of the spurious Tea, hose rescue we mentioned in our last, has been taken near Mill-street, County Kerry.

Mr. Chute's coach house, at Chute-hall County erry, together with his carriage and jaunting car, ere entirely burned on Wednesday night.

Yesterday morning, a boy of about nine years d, was so torn by a cow, at Ardnaerusha, Co. lare, that his bowels fell out. Surgeon Franklin of this City, was sent for, who replaced them, wed up the wounds, and there are some hopes of is recovery.

The Rev. Adam Averill has arrived in this ity, on a tour through Ireland, visiting the umerous Wesleyan Societies, and will preach in e Old Methodist Chapel, Court-house lane, at ight o'clock to-morrow morning, and at six in the evening.
