counts recently made public concerning visions in the Civil Government of the have been much exaggerated. As the of our respected fellow-citizen, General present Governor, appears peculiarly question, it is become necessary to add, of that gallant officer, that he has long actively active in arranging effectual mea-the complete abolition of the Slave Trade, he was strenuously opposed, not only by merchants and traders immediately interested, but also by leading civil authorities. From the caused by this opposition, and a determi-his part to abolish this infamous traffic, measures, appearing at first view somewhat irregular, have certainly been adopted; a full statement of all particulars shall which is very shortly expected, the public suffer any stigma to rest on the character of an excellent functionary, on partial or imperficiency.

th the Army of Occupation is not ex-plans for its departure have already com-Part of the horses belonging to the artillery, will be sold, and probably to the Government, who are thought likely with the horses of the Russian train, and to sell very itself.
