On Saturday, in a scuffle between two factions, near Cratloe, a man named Barry had his skull dangerously fractured—he is under the care of Surgeon Franklin, and in a state of recovery.

Yesterday, died Mr. Connors, a painter, of this City; it being reported that he came to his death by a beating which he received at a whiskey shop on George's-quay, the Right Worshipful Mayor held an Inquest on the body, when the following verdict was returned:—"We present that Patrick O'Connor came to his death, this 29th day of September, inst. of a locked jaw, occasioned by a wound he had received on the ring finger of his right hand happening to him on the 21st day of Sept. inst. by means of his having thrust his hand against, and breaking a glass window."

Sunday last, Christopher A. Marrett and Wm.
 Apjohn, Esqrs. held an Inquest on the body of John Connell, at St. Francis's Abbey, in this County—Connell had been severely wounded about three months since, and received into the County Hospital and discharged from thence as convalescent a few weeks since—Verdict, "That he died on Saturday, of Typhus Fever."

The following has been sent to us by a respectable County Magistrate:—

"We feel it necessary to caution the public against dispatching goods of consequence by carmen at a late hour from Limerick to Tipperary, by the new line of road, it being in different places unbounded by any house, for a long space.—Different petty robberies have taken place; and on Wednesday night last, two carmen were stopped by some armed men, near Boher, and robbed of goods to the amount of £65, which they were conveying—but, on Mr. Phillip Kerby hearing the noise, he came out, armed, and in a very undaunted manner presented at the robbers, who relinquished the booty and ran off.—Two of the robbers had blun-derbusses."
