

HOSPITAL.

ing of the Inhabitants of this at the Commercial Buildings, for, in the Chair, for the pur- ration the state of contagious situation of the funds of our ising such measures as might preserve to the Public the in- g from those invaluable Insti-oved by the Rev. Archdeacon y elegant and impressive Ad- William Howly, Esq.

able to lay before our Readers ervations of our highly valued ill. He strongly recommended as he conceived best enco- ontation; such as cleansing the cloaths, and bed-cloaths of the their apartments; the burning of el the furnishing them with fresh destroyed. These measures, wa to be effected by the Associa- dlicity.

r to the Hospitals, paid a just ions and sedulous attention of als, and he lamented, in a man- ly complimentary to Doctor which must for a time, (and he d be very short,) deprive the ple and zealous services.

ring ordered by all present, and ightly respected, Chief Mag- for the best results to the cause a this Meeting.

a subsequent column. Hospital has received from y, by their Chamberlain, the Govr. Fifty Pounds for that ett, Esq. Mayor, Twenty Gu- Governor for life: and from Wm. us: and also 25 from Chidley by Archdeacon Maunsell.

lders of the County Sligo High Sheriff in the Chair, that the state of the county additional police, and there- being the Peace Preserva- the County, was uneces- adjourned for a month.

Miltown Malbay, we learn at least, and is expected to at that place, or near it. are all on the alert.

two very fat sheep, the pro- opp, Esq. at Atrynin, were by some villains who took ad part of the flesh.

g to upwards of 100 Gu- or the apprehension of the y killed three sheep, the oster, Esq. at Ballyhickey, a gang of pick-pockets are ter in Cork was fined on yor, in the sum of £22 4s. 2d. g fit on Sunday at 3 o'clock. fained for their instructions of Coffee, have now ad- s of Tea.—See Advt.

ds will meet on Monday the Golden-Grove; Wednesday

Death—At his house in George's-street, on Thursday, the Lady of the Rev. William W. Maunsell, Archdeacon of Limerick, of a son—At Mount-Anna, Co. Wexford, the Lady of Ed. Cookman, Esq. of Bessmount, of a daughter—At Llanfrol, Monmouthshire, the seat of John Jones, jun. Esq. Lady Harriett Jones, daughter of the Earl of Fingall, of a son—The Lady of Christopher Coffy, of Kilmor-Lodge, Co. Meath, Esq. of a daughter—The Lady of Col. Fraser, of Castle-Fraser, of a son—In London, the Lady of Joseph Coff, Esq. of a son—Yesterday, at Ballymackough, Co. Tipperary, the Lady of William Ryan, Esq. of a daughter.

MARRIAGE—In Dublin, Godwin Swift, Esq. to Mary, daughter of John Swift, Esq. late Collector of Excise in the Triam District—In Cork, Lieut. John Sleight, R. N. to Hester, daughter of the late Robert Swayne, of Bantyre, Co. Cork, Esq.—Mr. Hugh Delap, of Tuam, to the relict of Captain Charles Ryan, 5th Demerary Militia regt.—In Bath, James Mann, Esq. to Henrietta Elizabeth O'Brien, daughter of Lady O'Brien—In London, Lieut.-Colonel Sir William Gamm, K. C. B. of the Coldstream Guards, to Sophia, daughter of Greaville Penn, Esq.—David Barclay, Esq. of London, brewer, to the daughter of Sir Holworth Williamson, Bt. of Durham—At Canterbury, Major Munro, of the Royal Artillery, to Mrs. Taylor, of St. Dunstan's—William Morton Pitt Crofton, Esq. of Jamaica, to Margaret, daughter of the late John Cullen, Esq. of Lisnoyle, County Leitrim—At Castle-Hyde Church, Co. Cork, on Tuesday, by the Rev. James Mockler, Mary C. Pyne, to John Smith, Esq. half-pay 32d regt.—Same day, Ann L. Pyne, to John George Pyne, Esq. of Castle-Connell, both daughters of the late John Pyne, of Lisgoold, Esq. and sisters of the late Captain R. Pyne, 84th regt.—At Chelsea, Henry Maitland, Esq. to Louisa, daughter of the Very Rev. Theophilus Binkely, Dean of Connor.

DIED—On Wednesday night, at his father's, the Crescent, John Brereton, Esq. eldest son of Arthur Brereton, Esq. This young Gentleman, prematurely cut off in the prime of youth, was highly esteemed; affectionate to his friends and acquaintance, his gentle manners gained him general esteem, and the recollections of his many amiable qualities will long be remembered by his deeply afflicted family. His remains were yesterday interred in the family vault at Tulla, Co. Clare—On Wednesday, at his house, Charlotte's-quay, of a daughter, ~~unnamed~~ and deservedly regretted, Mrs. Jones, wife of Mr. William Jones, Hardware Merchant—In Margaret-street, of fever, Mr. Charles Lee, white smith.

—In Capel-street, Dublin, aged 67, Mr. Hugh Fitzpatrick, Bookseller—Monday last, at Cahir, Co. Clare, the seat of D. A. Eustace, Esq. Thomas M'Mahon, Esq. of the 82d regt. eldest son of the late Colonel M'Mahon, of Clonina—In Waterford, William Edwards, Esq. M. D.—In Clonmel, Ellen, daughter of Mr. Matthew Roe—Mr. John Gibson, Chief Constable in Captain Wilson's Police—In Dublin, Mr. William Daniel, of Church-street, Ironmonger—and Mrs. Hordon—On the 24th of May last, at Sierra Leone, of fever, Mr. William O'Kearney. This young Gentleman left Ennis about twelve months since, with every flattering prospect, to join his brother, engaged in the most confidential offices by his Excellency Governor M'Carthy. He was nephew to Lieutenant-Colonel Sir Ralph Onseley, and Sir Gore Ousely—Near Byecourt, in the County Cork, Mr. John Murphy, aged 60—W. B. Townsend, Esq. of Little Chelsea.—In Cork, the Rev. W. Leader, Rector of St. Mary's, Shandon—Mrs. Hunter, relict of the Rev. C. Hunter, of Northamptonshire—In Dublin, the wife of Mr. Thomas Saunders, printer—At Edinburgh, Mr. John Cramer, Master of the Band of the 2d regt.—At Southampton, the Rev. Michael Dugg, B. D. Rector of the Parish of St. John, in the Island of Jersey—In London, Dr. Clarke, Royal Navy.

THE MARKETS.

Rather a good supply of corn at market to-day, which sold freely.—Wheat, from 2s. to 2s. 2d.—Oats, 1s. 2 1/2d.—Barley, 1s. 8d.—Rape, 4s. to 4s. 6d.—Pork, 4ds. per cwt.—Whiskey, 12s. per gallon, at Distillery—Beef, 4d.—Mutton 6d. to 6 1/2d.—Potatoes 2 1/2d. to 2 1/4d.—Tallow 11s. to 11 1/2d.—Flour and Oatmeal no alteration. Butter has experienced a decline, prices to day 11s. 11 1/2s. 10 1/2s. 9 1/2s.

Dublin Corn Exchange, October 28.

We had but a small supply of Corn at Market to-day, the Farmers being employed in digging in the Potatoes; the quality was of an inferior description, and the prices generally higher than last week. Wheat brought from 37s. to 48. per Barrel; Oats from 15s. to 20s.; Barley, from 26s. to 28s.; Rape from 22s. to 25s.; and Oatmeal from 16s. to 17s.

ARRIVAL OF NEW FRUIT Fresh Teas, and Old At No. 15, Patrick-street.

P. MURPHY

Has arrived to him per the Mary, direct last East India Company's Ship 33 CHESTS SUPERIOR BLACK

And Hourly expects the arrival of a few quality, in Boxes of 30lbs. wt. for Family use

He has also Imported, per the William, from

10 Hnds. } OLD PORT W 5 Pipes }

These Wines are now in the King's Store to be Sold very reasonable.

His supply of NEW FRUIT this day.

JOSEPH FISHER & S OFFER FOR SALE,

At their Stores, in Upper William-street, 30 Barrels Montreal and Boston

2000 Quebec Staves,

20 Streets Lead, assorted,

1000 Russia Mats,

30 Tons Kilkenny Coal,

10 Tierces Carolina Rice,

And they expect the arrival shortly TOBACCO, and 20 Barrels SCOTCH HE Limerick, 10th Mo

Globe Insurance Co REAL FUNDED CAPITAL

Upwards of one Million British BUILDINGS and PROPERTY of vari B INSURED from FIRE. Common, otherwise, and particular Risks by special Casualties by Lightning made good.

LIVES Insured on moderate Terms; Gout, at a very small addition. No increase Militia, Yeomanry or Volunteers; nor for Army or Navy, unless on actual service.

The numberless advantages of INSURANCE are obvious, in the way of additional Security Provisions for Families, &c.—and in cases cease with life, whether arising from Employment, Personal Exertions, Detention or any other Casualty, it becomes necessary Insurance.

Books of Rates, &c. furnished without

D. F. G. MAHONY, Agent,

No. 109, George's-st

NOTICE.

JOHN GABBETT AND Have removed their OFFICE from

STREET to their Store on SIR HAR

Where all Receipts and Payments are in F THEY have on Sale FLOUR FLOUR OATMEAL, &c. &c. which mined to Sell in future, at the lowest for CASH only.

All those indebted to the above Firm discharge their Accounts immediately; or be handed over to their new Agent without

TO BE LET,

From the First of Novem