TO THE COMMITTEE OF INDEPENDENT
 GENTLEMEN—Having been called on by your Ad- the 2d instant, to enter into a subscription for the pu- carrying on a Petition against the return of the Hon. Vereker, and not being disposed, under existing c- stances, to contribute to any fund for that object, I due to you, as well as to myself, to state my reasons- ularly as I have been hitherto so liberal a subscri- every thing which had in view the Independence of my City.
 You will therefore excuse me for stating, th- appeal to the Public is made in so lame and questio- shape, that I have strong doubts whether the hopes- of succeeding on the Petition, may not be a trick to- the friends of Independence into a subscription, whi- be appropriated to a very different purpose. We- aware, Gentlemen, that before Mr. Tuthill could- vailed upon to resign his well earned pretensions at- Election, to make way for your new favourite, yo- under the necessity of indemnifying him against the- Costs of Messrs. Boyse and Barrington, for which- held responsible, though it was your battle he was fi- and we likewise know that the sum compounded- these Gentlemen, for which you are now responsible, of Mr. Tuthill, has not as yet been paid them; and y- forgive me if I suggest the possibility that the subscrip- called for, under the pretence of carrying on the- may be intended to extricate yourselves from the- you then entered into, and no blame to you. If I- however, be mistaken, I shall most cheerfully re- contribution, upon your publishing Messrs. Boyse- rington's receipt in full for all demands against Mr- and the Independents; and also, (as was done with r- Mr. Boyle's Petition against the return for the C- Cork,) publishing the state of the case laid bef- Warren, and the different queries, together with his- upon them, for every one knows two opposite opini- be obtained from the most eminent Lawyer upon- question, according to the manner of putting it to- though it may be perfectly true, that Mr. Warren- given an opinion against the legality of Mr. V- return, it may be equally true, that he would have- contrary opinion upon another statement; and it- fore but fair to the Subscribers, to give them an opi- of forming their own judgment upon the documen- mentioned, before they are called upon to open the- and certainly indispensable to a successful applicati- the fate of the last Petition so fresh in their recollec- result of which was at least as pompously relied- that of the present one, and surely upon much me- sible grounds, and never having got any account of- I then subscribed, you will not, I hope, think it- able, if I am more cautious of squandering my mo- the present occasion, or of being cajoled into a sub- for one purpose, when it is in reality intended for a-
