

...and a grand appearance. ... the most serious alarm was ... fire should communicate with the ... King's Store, under Mr. Roche's ... here, which contained several ... Whiskey, and at the same time with ... in front, and from thence to the ... in the rear of George's-street. — ... the prompt and praise-worthy ... many gentlemen present, and the ... abundant supply of water to the ... flames were prevented from extend- ... places, which, if it had reached, ... probability, have destroyed the ... of houses in front.

... lute flows were employed in the ... removing the bacon, and though ... rounded them they succeeded in ... great quantity. ... and other papers in the Counting- ... Bow, (the entrance to which was ... and then in flames,) were also ... deposited with Mr. Bernard, after ... difficulty, by an entrance having ... through the chimney flue, from the ... Office, by a few persons, it being ... to force the iron railings from ... there windows thereof.

... the alarm was given, Alderman ... ed with a party of the Military, ... positions, so as to secure such of ... could be got out of the concern. ... clock the fire ceased its ravages, ... its only standing.

... at the accident took place by the ... kiln, which is stated to have been ... and improved construction. ... appearance of the fire several ... es of reed straw, which is used in ... were removed from the adjoining

... its fell in, it was almost impossible ... building, the heat was so intense, ... burning of the bacon, the flames from ... the full height of the store walls, ... quite a pale blue colour, from the ... t petre used in its process. The ... ses in George's street emitted an ... caused by its influence, and several ... were broken throughout the range ... eat. It was a most fortunate cir- ... the night was calm, as in the event ... a north-west wind it would have ... possible to have saved the houses ... ward's up to Mr. Roche's Bank.

... to the bacon which the store con- ... derstand there was a quantity of ... wards of 200 barrels of rapeseed, ... ignitable quality, accounts for the ... a which the store was consumed; ... great pleasure in learning, that the ... property were partly insured— ... with the Globe Company for £1,500, ... with the Sun and Atlas for £1,000.

... Aldermen Vereker, Watson and ... ff Jackson, and a great number ... Municipal Councillors attended, and ... nce of General O'Loghlin and all ... the occasion, contributed to the

Thursday morning, while clearing away the rubbish, a stone fell from the top of the store wall, and struck one of the labourers, who received thereby some severe contusions—he is now in the Hospital under professional treatment, with every hope of recovery. This is the only instance of personal injury sustained on the occasion.

COMMITTED—To the City jail, by Alderman Marrett, M. Conscience, for robbing Stryker Fogarty, of Nenagh; he has been transmitted to County jail—To the County jail, by Thomas P. Vokes, Esq. Henry Dwyer, for refusing to give evidence on an assault.

BIRTHS—At Derrykinnane House, the Lady of Richard Neale, Esq. of a son and heir—At Greenhills, in this Co. the Lady of Peter Ryan, Esq. of a son—At Rocklands, Horeborough, the Lady of William Robert Wallis, Esq. of Williamgrove, Co. Roscommon, of a daughter—In Dublin, the Lady of John Ferguson, Esq. of a son—At Castlehill, the Lady of Major Gleasons, 68th Regt. of a son—At Generals, Co. Meath, the Lady of Captain Moekler, of a son—The Countess of Mayo, of a son.

MARRIAGES—In Tullamore Church, Joseph Worthington, of Dublin, Esq. to Jane, eldest daughter of James Bolster, Esq. of Silverbrook, King's County—In Dublin, Mr. John Warren, of the Bank of Ireland, to Miss Turpin, of Baggot-street—At Hampstead, Charles Miller, Esq. Paymaster of the Royal East Middlesex Regiment, to Jane, daughter of the late Thomas Pugh, Esq.—At Loughrea, Henry John M. Conley, of Ross Hill, County Galway, Esq. to Susanna, eldest daughter of John Loddell, Esq. of Riverview, near Gort—At Passage, Henry Plover Best, Esq. Captain of the Princess Mary, to Miss Abigail Bond—At Sligo, Charles Ormsby, Esq. to Alice, daughter of the late Arthur Irwin, of Willowbrook, Esq.—Wm. Madden, of James's-street, Dublin, Esq. to Alice, daughter of Joseph Perry, Esq. of Groveland, Co. Down—Mr. Wm. Binns, of Dame-street, Dublin, to Miss Conner, of St. Andrew-street.

DIED—At Kew, in Surrey, aged 84 years, Mrs. Fopham, a native of Waterford, and relict of Joseph Popham, Esq. many years his Britannic Majesty's Consul at Tetuan, and father of Lieut.-General Popham and of Rear-Admiral Sir Home Popham, K.C.B.—In Great Queen-street, London, Mr. Graham, some years ago one of the Magistrates of the Bow-street Police-office—The Chevalier Ignatius Palgurt, his Most Faithful Majesty's Consul in Great Britain—In Great Charles-street, Mountjoy-square, Dublin, aged 13, John Henry Mac Mahon, eldest son of John Mac Mahon, Esq.—In Dublin, Edward Hopkins, Esq. late of Possesstown, Co. Meath—In Nenagh, at the advanced age of 94, Mrs. Abbott, relict of John Abbott, Esq. formerly of Ballyhasty, Co. Tipperary. She married at 18, was 36 years a wife, in which time she had three children in ten months, four within twenty, six within three years, and fifteen after by single births, many of whom she nursed—In Barrack-street, Cork, the wife of Mr. Michael Burke—At Cove, Catherine, daughter of Edward Godfrey, Esq. Pratique Master—At Cheltenham, Mrs. Morris, wife of George Morris, Esq. Lieut.-Colonel of the 3d, or Old Buffs. She was sister to the late John Blennerhassett, Esq. of Elm Grove, County Kerry, a Representative in Parliament for that County—In Castlebar, Mr. Orme Lumley—At his seat, Ballyvrouan, in the Co. Wicklow, aged 62, Charles William Quinn, Esq. for thirty-three years Physician-General to his Majesty's Forces in Ireland—At Bruora, King's County, Robert Kinahan, Esq.—At Ennaburg, Captain John Cove, R. N. the Senior Superannuated Commander on the list, and the oldest Naval Commissioned Officer in his Majesty's service.—At Leiston, John George Holton, Esq. Lieut. in the Royal Marines—At Armagh, Rose Anne, eldest child and only daughter of Dr. A. Conwell, of the Honourable East India Company's Service—At Monaca, near Mullingar, Mr. John Scanlan—On Sunday, in Bath, aged 89, the Rt. Hon. Lady Araminta Monk, relict of G. P. Monk, Esq. and sister of the Right Hon. and Rev. the Archbishop of Tuam, Lord Decies—At Brighton, Lieut. Francis Rosecorla, late of the 83d Regt.—At Cronin, James Orr, Esq. Attorney—At Cape Coast Castle, Henry Tallie, Esq. Surgeon to the King of Ashantie, a native of Ireland.

THE MARKETS.

Since the holydays our market continues to be scantily supplied with grain.—A few loads of Wheat appeared this morning, which sold from 1s. 2d. to 1s. 11d.—Oats 1s. 1d. Barley 1s. 6d. Beans 1s. 6d. Flour 1s. 10d.

BUILDING AND PROPER
To the extent of £10,000,
Particular Risks by special agr
The advantages of Insurance to Individuals is that it is necessary to dwell on them; and it that Persons concerned in Policies, with the Glo have experienced every satisfaction.
Books of Rates, and every information for AGENTS OFFICE, 109, GEORGE'S-STRE
LONDON, I

TO BE LET,
From the 25th of March next
For such Term as may be agreed
About 28 Acres of the Lands of RAT
(As before Advertis'd.)
Proposals to Mr. JAMES PEACOCKE, W

TO BE LET,
From the 25th of March
For 3 Lives or 31 Years.
THE LANDS OF GLAUNA
Situate between NEWMARKET and AL
Together, or in the following Divisions,

- West Division,
- Lower Ditto,
- To which will be added the West Division of Mountain,
- East Division,
- Middle Ditto,
- To which will be added the East Division of Mountain,

ALSO TO BE LET,
From the 1st of May next, for Twenty concurrent with the Life of each Lessee, part of BAGGOTSTOWN, in the following Divisions—The Representatives of SAM. BENNETT, Esq.
WILLIAM BREEN'S
PATRICK BLUETT'S
JAMES RALEIGH'S
PATRICK GLEESON'S
JOHN GLEESON'S
DAVID RALEIGH'S
DAVID DOOLY'S
JOHN DILLANE'S

Tenants will be declared for the above Land the value is offered.

Application to be made to EDWARD FREEMAN, Esq. Castletor, Mallow, or DANIEL LEARY, Esq. Shanagher, Cork.

g/ports
FIRE.

PUBLIC THANKS
MARK and CO. avail themselves of opportunity of thus publicly returning and grateful acknowledgements to the Jackson, the Lord Bishop, Bolton Waller, C. A. Marrett, Matthew Hemmings, James White, Thomas G. Fitz-Gibbon, William Browne, Charles Hargrove, A. F. O'Neill Jacob Mark of Cork, Edward Maunsell, and William Howly, Esqrs. Archdeacon Colonel and Major Warburton, Archdeacon twins John Wallace, Lloyd, and M'Key, Messrs. Owens and his two sons, John Jeph Kidd, for their very prompt and availing stopping the progress of the calamitous Fire out on Wednesday night at their Stores in which a large portion of their Property Buildings were saved.

To Major-General O'Loughlin, the Hon. and the Officers and Men of the Garrison, sincere thanks for their timely and active protection of the Property.

They have likewise to express how deeply indebted to Mr. Browne, of Thomond-Gate, for the attendance of their Property