

Shannon, with only her top-Friday night was cast on the long of Glen, where she lay all Saturwas got off by six Revenue Officers who brought her to Arthur's-quay, yesterday last. — Her bottom was much the probability is that she would even-down, if she had been laden with timber. A survey was yesterday four experienced late masters of vesunderstand she will not be able to pro-pool for at least a month.

Martin, 132 Tons. J. Kendall, mas-America, bound for Dublin, with a, from stress of weather, was forced Shannon, some days since, and rode les, at Scattery, came up to Lab-e, on Sunday last, in the dreadful gang her foremast, and lost her anchor She now lies at the Pool.

mony, of Whitby, 300 tons, John aster, bound from St. John's, New Liverpool, with timber, was wrecked Rossbeigh, Co. Kerry, accompanied crossing circumstance of the loss of 11 and also of two pilots, out of four, the vessel on her first appearance off Kells, near Iveragh. The vessel was ore during a tremendous storm, when and crew formed the imprudent res-tempting to gain the shore with the e had scarcely parted the wreck when d, and out of sixteen persons, including s, three only reached the shore alive.
n and his brother-in-law, (a man of nce, who had gone from Greenland to vick, in order to accompany them home), crew, and two pilots, all perished. — melancholy to reflect that had they rey hours longer in the wreck, they might ked on shore at the ebbing of the tide.
pilots took hold of a couple of oars which a to shore, and to mate of the vessel, pilot, caught each a hold of one of the small boat, as she upset, in which state ed for a long time, with the violence of were at length thrown on shore in a naustion and insensibility.

of the crew who were drowned:—John master; Thomas Wilson, mariner, sea; Thomas Dyer, mariner, drowned gh; Richard Ramsdau, ditto, ditto:
rk, ditto: Charles Johnson, ditto:
oman, ditto: Alexander Ross, ditto: homson, ditto: Ben. Gibson, ditto:
kson, ditto: Charles Jones, ditto—likely to do well.—John Ramshan, ing of the American Brig Yamacraw, to the 10th February.

abitants are particularly cautioned an, who is a stranger in this city, and een for some time back in the habit of a religious character, and imposing on posed, by collecting money under the supply of Wheat at Market this day, and from 1s. 10d to 2s. 1½d per st—s 1s. 1½d.—Malting Barley 1s 7d. pe

The Treasurer of the Fever Hospital has received from the Earl of Lonsdale, by Royal Warrant, Esq. a donation of Ten Guineas for the said charity.

COMMITTED—To the County jail, by the Mayor, Maurice Clifton, of Fanning-town, for having assaulted the Rev.
Thomas Westropp, while officiating at the burial of the late Mr. John Herbert.

BIRTH—On Monday, in Galway, the Lady of Surgeon
Price, 12th Regiment, quartered in this Garrison, of a son—At Newpark, Co. Tipperary, the Lady of Lieut.-Colonel Kingsmill Penelather, of a daughter—At Nottingham, the Lady of Lieutenant-Colonel Chichester Crookshank, 33d Regiment, of a son—At his seat, Mellon, in this County, the Lady of Mountford Westropp, Esq. of a daughter—In Leeson-street, Dublin, the Lady of Thomas C. Wakefield, jun. Esq. of Marino, Co. Down, of a daughter—In North Great George-street, Dublin, the Lady of Edward Litton, Esq. of a son—In Cecil-street, the Lady of James Phelps,
Esq. of a daughter.

MARRIED—Joshua Franklin, Esq. of College-Green, Dublin, to Mrs. Mills, relict of the late Rev. Richard Mills, of the Co. Armagh—At Rathangan, Co. Kildare, William Gurstin, Esq. of Dublin, to Anne, daughter of Wm. Walker, Esq. late of Hyde-Park, Co. Dublin—Lieutenant Thomas Blood, 6th Regiment, to Maria, daughter of the late John Cooke, Esq. of Kilkenny—In Cork, Arthur Sprad, Esq. of Dublin, to Susan, daughter of the late Mr. John Barter Bennett, of Cork—In Dublin, John Birch, Esq. to Mrs.
Archbold, relict of the late Major Archbold—Mr. James Walker, of Kevin-street, to Miss Harrison, of Wexfordstreet—In Dublin, Mr. William B. Ward, to Miss Marsh—At Alverstoke, Lieut. W. B. Marlow, Royal Engineers, to Miss Mulholland, of Gosport—At Ford Park-herd, Captain Konaldson, Edinburgh Militia, to Miss Frances Torrance—At Penang, John Anderson, Esq. High Sheriff of the Prince of Wales's Island, to Mary, daughter of James Carnegie, Esq.—In Galway, Francis Blake, Esq. of Cregg, to Miss Georgiana Burke, sister of Sir John I. Burke, Bart. of Glinsk—Mr. Thomas McMahon, Chancellor, to Mary Anne, daughter of the late Doctor Hassett, of the City—At Newmarket, Co. Cork, W. Cook Lusey, Esq. to Martha, daughter of Lysaght Pinner, Esq. of Meens.

In our last, we announced the marriage of Doctor Fitzpatrick, to Miss Myles of Gort; we are authorised to state, that the Gentleman alluded to, is not Mr. Fitzpatrick, late 4th Dragoons.

DIED—In Dublin, John Hitchcock, Esq. Attorney—In Great Charles-street, Mooney-square, Dublin, of measles, John Henry, Wm. Edward, Jane, and Maria, four children of John Mac Mahon, Esq.—In Molesworth-street, the son of Mr. Smith Professor of Music—Robert Birmingham, Esq. of the Ordnance Department—Mrs. Brown, relict of the late Thomas Brown, Esq. of Waterford—In Dublin, of typhus fever, Mrs. Sparrow, relict of the late Francis Sparrow, Esq. of the Society of Friends—At Leabeg, Co. Wicklow, the relict of the late Rev. Wm. Wilson, of Drumcondra—In Dublin, the wife of Richard Fitzgerald, Esq. Officer of Customs—The widow of the Rev. David Lewis, formerly Curate of Lower Shannon, Cork—At Almorah, East Indies, Surgeon James Bain—At Sandy, Lieut. Henry O. Butts, of the Madras European Regiment—At Bellary, the wife of the Rev. J. Hinds, Missionary there—In Newman-street, London, of the small pox, Miss Lydia Stuart, aged 17, after having been vaccinated when an infant by an eminent Surgeon, who emphatically declared he would forfeit his life if she ever caught the small pox. The death of this young Lady proves, however, beyond all doubt, that vaccination is not infallible—At Kilmarnock, George Rutherford, Esq. one of the partners of the Kilmarnock Bank—Suddenly, in London, Mr. King, of the house of King and Cuffe, Cheapside—At Wexford, Mary, eldest daughter of W. H. Floyer, Esq.—In London, Mr. Tokely, comedian—In Galway, the wife of Michael Lynch, Esq. of Pattrae—Yesterday, in Mary-street, suddenly and deservedly regretted, Mrs. Maddock, wife of Mr. Benjamin Maddock—Count Schultenburg Wolfbourg, Minister of State to the Court of Brunswick—
M. Wieland, Counsellor of State to the Court of Baden.— In the 29th year of his age, of a fever contracted in the discharge of his ministry, the Rev. John O'Brien, parish Priest of Doon.—The unaffected mourning of a numerous assembly of his parishioners, at his interment on Sunday, afford the most genuine proof of his worth, and their regret for the loss of their youthful, yet beloved pastor.

TELEVISION.

The nearer to the City, the more Application to Mr. M. BARRINGTON, 1 street, Dublin, or to Mr. D. BARRINGTON Limerick.

TIMBER.

TO BE SOLD.
Some very Gross WALNUT T Fit for either Cabinet or Gun-Application to be made at the Chroni Letter, Post-paid.)

COUNTY OF CLAR

TO BE LET,
From the 25th Day of Mar
FOR THREE LIVES.
THE HOUSE, OFFICES, AND GA
ELM-PARK,
With Thirty Acres of good L
The House is in perfect repa Application to JOHN MASSY, Esq.
ALSO TO BE LET,
49 Acres 2 Roods of CLO
And immediate possession
For Six Months, if not red As lately held by PMAHON and

TO BE SOLD.

A METAL PUMP
To convenience the Purchaser, can measure from 21 feet to ANY Gentleman having occasion to erect it is his advantage to buy this, as it w super than a Timber one, and last ten ti Application to be made to Mr. RO
Francis-street, Limerick, if by Letter, 10

WANTED,

A GROOM, who perfectly understands of Horses. None need apply but the character, as high Wages will be given.
Application to be made to RICHARD Baltimore, Youghal.

MR. JONES

TEACHER OF THE PIAN
In the Counties of Clare, Limerick, &
Will attend at any place convenient to a pr Music supplied, Instruments Tun Terms may be known by writing or by inquiring at the Limerick Chronicle

THEATRE-ROYAL, GEORGE'S-THE LAST NIGHT BUT
The Performance of

The Wonderful I

From Paris, Vienna, Milan, London, D
Patronized by the Royal K
Being the only Exhibition of the kin
They will Perform in the T
TWO NIGHTS ONLY, v To-morrow, Thursday the 21st—and BEING POSITIVELY THE LA
SIGNIOR GERMO

BEGS leave to inform the Nobility, G of Limerick and Vicinity, that he the honor of Exhibiting the same Perform varied) which gave such g. eral satisfact and Friday Evenings last, the above-ment positively no longer, as being on his way which his Company of PERFORMIN through their astonishing Perfor