

is coming home in ill health. It is stated, that all the second Captains of the artillery, will be included in a further retrenchment to be made in March.

A Squadron of the Life Guards, from London, and a Squadron of the 9th Lancers, have repeatedly, in the last week, performed their military evolutions before the Regent, in the Riding Ground, Brighton.

The remainder of the 7th Hussars marched into the barracks at Hume, on Saturday, and took possession of the barracks at Hume.

A General Court Martial was held in Edinburgh, on the 2d of October, on Edward Smith, of the 6th Dragoons, for desertion and mutiny. The Court found the prisoner guilty, and sentenced him to be transported as a felon for seven years.

Salchacott is appointed secretary to the King, naval commander in chief in the Channel.

A Court Martial was held at St. Helena, for tyranny and oppression, and honourably acquitted.

The Lottery will commence drawing on the 1st of February.

The Postmasters General have offered 50l. for the apprehension of Michael Nowlan, one of the clerks of the Dublin penny post office, who is charged with embezzling a money order of said office. He is a native of Ballynash, near Athy, Queen's County.

It is prevalently reported in Galway, that the late William Le Poer Trench, the present Colonel of that regiment, is to be appointed Secretary to the Board of Customs; in which case the office will become vacant. Captain Trench is now in Dublin, making, it is said, the necessary arrangements.

Examinations in open Court of persons appearing in County Clare Presentments, were held on Wednesday morning. The most interesting investigation took place upon every Presentment, and the spirit of the Act was completely carried into. James Molony, Esq. of Kiltannon, was examined, the duties of which he discharged with most commendable zeal, and much to the satisfaction of all parties.

The adjournment of the City Quarter Sessions will take place on Monday next, and the Recorder will sit precisely at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Lloyd Aphjohn, Esq. High Sheriff of this County, has appointed John Cuthbert, Esq. his Sub Sheriff for the ensuing year: a prudent appointment which, from the uniform conduct and integrity of that gentleman, must inspire universal satisfaction in this county.

Mr. M'Geough, of Drumsill, Esq. is to be appointed High Sheriff for Armagh.

We insert in our first page a list of subscribers received for suppressing Street Begging in this County.

At the request of several persons of distinction, M. Germain has been prevailed upon to exhibit his Wonderful Light, which is announced for Tuesday next, at the Benefit of Madam Germain. From the great number of Ladies and Gentlemen who intend being in the Theatre on the preceding day, an overflowing house is expected. We understand several strange Performances, performed by themselves, are reserved for that night.

of coming home in ill health. It is stated, that all the second Captains of the artillery, will be included in a further retrenchment to be made in March. A Squadron of the Life Guards, from London, and a Squadron of the 9th Lancers, have repeatedly, in the last week, performed their military evolutions before the Regent, in the Riding Ground, Brighton. The remainder of the 7th Hussars marched into the barracks at Hume, on Saturday, and took possession of the barracks at Hume. A General Court Martial was held in Edinburgh, on the 2d of October, on Edward Smith, of the 6th Dragoons, for desertion and mutiny. The Court found the prisoner guilty, and sentenced him to be transported as a felon for seven years. Salchacott is appointed secretary to the King, naval commander in chief in the Channel. A Court Martial was held at St. Helena, for tyranny and oppression, and honourably acquitted. The Lottery will commence drawing on the 1st of February. The Postmasters General have offered 50l. for the apprehension of Michael Nowlan, one of the clerks of the Dublin penny post office, who is charged with embezzling a money order of said office. He is a native of Ballynash, near Athy, Queen's County. It is prevalently reported in Galway, that the late William Le Poer Trench, the present Colonel of that regiment, is to be appointed Secretary to the Board of Customs; in which case the office will become vacant. Captain Trench is now in Dublin, making, it is said, the necessary arrangements. Examinations in open Court of persons appearing in County Clare Presentments, were held on Wednesday morning. The most interesting investigation took place upon every Presentment, and the spirit of the Act was completely carried into. James Molony, Esq. of Kiltannon, was examined, the duties of which he discharged with most commendable zeal, and much to the satisfaction of all parties. The adjournment of the City Quarter Sessions will take place on Monday next, and the Recorder will sit precisely at 10 o'clock. Mr. Lloyd Aphjohn, Esq. High Sheriff of this County, has appointed John Cuthbert, Esq. his Sub Sheriff for the ensuing year: a prudent appointment which, from the uniform conduct and integrity of that gentleman, must inspire universal satisfaction in this county. Mr. M'Geough, of Drumsill, Esq. is to be appointed High Sheriff for Armagh. We insert in our first page a list of subscribers received for suppressing Street Begging in this County. At the request of several persons of distinction, M. Germain has been prevailed upon to exhibit his Wonderful Light, which is announced for Tuesday next, at the Benefit of Madam Germain. From the great number of Ladies and Gentlemen who intend being in the Theatre on the preceding day, an overflowing house is expected. We understand several strange Performances, performed by themselves, are reserved for that night.

of coming home in ill health. It is stated, that all the second Captains of the artillery, will be included in a further retrenchment to be made in March. A Squadron of the Life Guards, from London, and a Squadron of the 9th Lancers, have repeatedly, in the last week, performed their military evolutions before the Regent, in the Riding Ground, Brighton. The remainder of the 7th Hussars marched into the barracks at Hume, on Saturday, and took possession of the barracks at Hume. A General Court Martial was held in Edinburgh, on the 2d of October, on Edward Smith, of the 6th Dragoons, for desertion and mutiny. The Court found the prisoner guilty, and sentenced him to be transported as a felon for seven years. Salchacott is appointed secretary to the King, naval commander in chief in the Channel. A Court Martial was held at St. Helena, for tyranny and oppression, and honourably acquitted. The Lottery will commence drawing on the 1st of February. The Postmasters General have offered 50l. for the apprehension of Michael Nowlan, one of the clerks of the Dublin penny post office, who is charged with embezzling a money order of said office. He is a native of Ballynash, near Athy, Queen's County. It is prevalently reported in Galway, that the late William Le Poer Trench, the present Colonel of that regiment, is to be appointed Secretary to the Board of Customs; in which case the office will become vacant. Captain Trench is now in Dublin, making, it is said, the necessary arrangements. Examinations in open Court of persons appearing in County Clare Presentments, were held on Wednesday morning. The most interesting investigation took place upon every Presentment, and the spirit of the Act was completely carried into. James Molony, Esq. of Kiltannon, was examined, the duties of which he discharged with most commendable zeal, and much to the satisfaction of all parties. The adjournment of the City Quarter Sessions will take place on Monday next, and the Recorder will sit precisely at 10 o'clock. Mr. Lloyd Aphjohn, Esq. High Sheriff of this County, has appointed John Cuthbert, Esq. his Sub Sheriff for the ensuing year: a prudent appointment which, from the uniform conduct and integrity of that gentleman, must inspire universal satisfaction in this county. Mr. M'Geough, of Drumsill, Esq. is to be appointed High Sheriff for Armagh. We insert in our first page a list of subscribers received for suppressing Street Begging in this County. At the request of several persons of distinction, M. Germain has been prevailed upon to exhibit his Wonderful Light, which is announced for Tuesday next, at the Benefit of Madam Germain. From the great number of Ladies and Gentlemen who intend being in the Theatre on the preceding day, an overflowing house is expected. We understand several strange Performances, performed by themselves, are reserved for that night.

Bear Garden; and the County, subsequently no doubt was dictated to the County, the independence within the same.

He Mr. B. trusted did not enflame the Freeholders of that the present occasion, He said, he would c any other man, to Meeting, by his man way to enrage good not stop to enquire, what portion of the County, was the di portion of it was ow Representative Peer agreed in every wo tion of the present m most prudent to ad had prepared, and v meeting. It was as

“ While we cont which it has pleased one little year, to vi leaving you thus bere of your illustrious cloud of sorrow, ca which we owe to the your Royal Highness cares, in preservin Wife.—A veil your the Divine Mercy— in the bosom of cony Royal Father set up ole of connubial affo get to-be-reckoned o example was not successor to his Th

The High Sheri glad to receive an a which was not of a could not in his of address, any part o ng to the feelings Address proposed respect, properly occasion, and he was pressed by w irrelevant to the o Boyle would feel a ment, as if it wer think of sending the unfortunate dif the Prince Regent were not fit subj meeting.

Mr. Boyle said not surely question as expression of c he addressed the t of mere flattery, b and maanliness, a power.

Lord Kingston called to offer an