

received a visit from his sister and the Rev. Dr. Hogan. I am positive that the latter did not use the expressions, "against any of the Protestant but he did not even speak a word disrespectful in certain that Dr. Hogan did not tell the was long enough with the D—I, nor occasion at all for the bible—Mr. Herbert to the bible nor speak of it, nor did Dr. It was spurious—I am also certain Dr. press himself contemptuously of the Protest- assert that Martin Luther and his Nun were tened attentively to the entire conversation, that Dr. Hogan did not use these expressions imputed to him, and which I am ready to oath".

the late Mr. Herbert acknowledged on last presence, and that of other persons, that Dr. speak disrespectfully of any Protestant Cler-

CATHERINE CUSSEN.

ated by the Gentlemen whose signatures ap- of the statement relative to the late Mr. the following—which has been given us by Maunsell:

City of Limerick, } Mrs. Sarah Herbert, }
 wit. } widow of the late Mr. } } John Herbert, came this } and voluntarily made oath on the Holy } that she read the statement of the Rev. } well, which appeared in the Limerick Chro- } instant, setting forth certain conversations } a Rev. William Maunsell had with her late } death-bed, in presence of deponent, and that } as a faithful, correct, and undeviating tran- } script further saith, that she also read a Certifi- } catherine Cussen, in the Evening Post of } dictating the said statement of said Rev. } well, and also imputing to deponent a conver- } the said Catherine, wherein deponent is } the Roman Catholic Clergyman did not } fully of any Protestant Clergyman, which } only swears is false, as the said expressions } as mentioned in Rev. William Maunsell's } deponent's presence.

me this 5th of February, 1819.
 JOSEPH GABBETT,
 Mayor of Limerick.

RBERT.
 g has been sent us for insertion:

concerned to notice a further instance of the of sheep-slaughtering by night, of late so destructive.—On the night of Thursday last, the property of Mr. Massy of Glenwilliam, and stolen from off his demesne; no further ruing of Friday than the place of execution, n under a convenient tree, upon which the hanged, and the wool of the sheep. We happy to hear that Mr. Massy had taken to detect the perpetrators, and caused a on Sunday night, the usual period the lower adopt for supper, and he, it appears, had in his conjectures, for two men of the name ing in the town of Croom, a distance of es from Glenwilliam, and who lived several ers with Mr. Massy, had been detected actuing on his mutton, and four other joints their chests. They have, we hear, cont, and are committed to the County Geol.
 his active measure adopted by Mr. Massy, most infamous practice. (See, you have gratitude.) We have it from unquestionable previous to March, 1800, the father and Keefes (of which the above Keefes composed on near Mallow, in the County Cork, to Massy as labourers, the entire family not ag, not even possessing one meal of pota-upon that occasion, advanced to them a stone of potatoes, and two stone of wool, until March, 1818, a period of twelve to him and his family the kindest and best ambers of his family having married, partithe Croom blades, it was their convenience upon last March removed from Mr. Massy, tted to take their stock and effects without Logic, Esq. Inspector-General of Excise, of a daughter—In Gloucester-Place, London, the Lady of Lieutenant-General

 Hopkins, of a son—Lady Jane Buchanan, of a daughter—In Bath, the Lady of Commissioner Paget, Royal Navy, of a daughter—At Desert, Co. Kilkenny, the son of the Right Hon. the Earl of Desert, the Lady of Colonel Campbell, 94th Regiment, of a son—At Guernsey, the Lady of Lieut-Colonel Handcock, 13th Regiment of Foot, of a son—the Lady of Maphrah Fogarty, Esq. of Buntingford, in the County Tipperary, of a daughter—In Wexford, the Lady of Robert Allen, Esq. of a son.

MARRIED—At St. Kew, Edward Kelby, Esq. Captain 51st Light Infantry, to Sarah, daughter of the late Henry Braddon, Esq. of Shesdon Lodge, Cornwall—H. M. Salmons, Esq. of Mansell-street, London, to Priscilla, daughter of the late Sampson Lewar, Esq.—At Cross Haven, John C.
 Harrett, Esq. to the daughter of J. Bullen, Esq. Kinsale—
 On Thursday, by the Rev. William D. Houre, at George's Church, Mr. Francis Brow, of the 49th Regt. to Margaret, eldest daughter of the late Mr. William Wilson, Methodist Preacher—At Coolbreach, near Calcutta, Lieut. Holmes, 4th Native Infantry, to Margaret, eldest daughter of the late James Robertson, Esq. Surgeon in the East India Company's service—In Cork, Mr. George Waters, Spirit Merchant, to Eliza, second daughter of Mr. James Lambkin, Tobacconist, Coal-quay.

DEAD—Last night, in William street, Mrs. Anne Webb, relict of the late Richard Webb, Esq. Burgess, of this City.
 Her death was occasioned by grief for the loss of her only child, Miss Anne Webb, whose demise we announced a few posts back—On Thursday, the 28th January, at Parlington, in the County of York, after a long and painful illness, which she bore with the most patient fortitude, the Lady of Richard Oliver Gascoigne, Esq. of Parlington, and of Castle Oliver, in this County. Her loss will be deeply felt in her family and throughout her neighbourhood, where her charities were most liberal and extensive. Her exemplary domestic virtues and goodness of heart will long preserve and endure her memory—At Kilbeg House, Kells, James Kelly, Esq.—At Clon, Co. Leitrim, the Rev. C. Boddican—
 In Capel-street, Dublin, Mr. Richard Lambert, many years an eminent Ironmonger, and Representative of the Smith's Corporation in the Commons—On the Grand Parade, Cork, Master Thomas Hill—In Dundrum, Mr. James Petrie, of Dublin, Miniature Painter—William Burke, of Ballyglass, Co. Tipperary, Esq.—On Tuesday, after a few days illness, at Rosiere, near Lyndhurst, the Right Hon. Earl of Errol, one of the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, Hereditary Lord High Constable, and Knight Mareschale of Scotland; Lord Commissioner to the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland; leaving three sons and six daughters. The eldest son now living, William, is about nineteen. His eldest brother, Lord Hay, was Aide-de-Camp to General Maitland; he was killed almost the first shot that was fired on the 17th June, the day preceding the great battle of Waterloo—Sir Henry Tempest, Bart. of Thorpe Lee House, near Staines—At Nice, Frances, daughter of Major Sandford, and niece of the Marquis of Antrim—At Charlemont Fort, Moy, of typhus fever, Captain Henry Hobbs, Royal Engineers—In Cross, aged 87, Arthur Alexander, Esq. He lately gave £100 to the Fever Hospital in that town, and has also bequeathed an additional sum for its support—At the Provost's house, Dublin, the only son of the Rev. Mr. Elrington—In Bengal, John Wauchope, Esq. Civil and Political Agent to Governor-General of India—At Teras de la Frontera, Andalusia, Lieut. George Majoribanks, R. N.—On Usher's island, Dublin, Edward Burroughs, Esq.—On Thursday, in Mungret-street, much lamented, Mr. Patrick Hanraban—In Cork, in her 80th year, Mrs. Esther Scott, relict of Edward Scott, Esq.—At Londonderry, Alderman Skepton—
 George Carey, of Casine—At Ruvilton, the Rev. Mr.
 Rankin—The Rev. Conyngham Porter—At Newtown, the Lady of Sir N. B. Skottowe—this morning in Francis-street, much regretted by his family and friends, Mr.
 Stephen M'Swiney.

Deaths in the Army not before reported—Colonel Earl Poulett, 1st Somerset Militia. Captains Carter, 5th Dragoons; Russell, 53d; Gray, 1st Ceylon; Strattau, Royal Artillery; Wynecken, h. p. German Legion. Lieutenants
 Richardson, 4th foot; Campbell, 19th; M'Donald, h. p.
 30th; Taylor and Mackey, 53d; Holmes, 59th; Crutwell, 83d; Maule, 84th; Morgan, 1st West India; Studdy,
 R. W. I. Rangers. Ensigns Baldwin, 17th foot; Isulk, 34th, and Ingieby, 53d. Quarter-Master Fortesqueu, 21st Dragoons. Staff Surgeon Van Malsea; Hospital
 Assistant Pickell, and Assistant Surgeon Hooper.

FAIRS IN THE ENSUING WEEK.

Co. Limerick—Monday, 8th, Rathkeale; Thursday,

D. F. G. MAHON

AGENT, LIMERICK

LIVES Insured to the extent of Occasional Grant and additional No increased Charge for Marine, Yeomanry, nor for Officers in the Army or unless on actual Service.

BUILDINGS AND PROP.

To the extent of 20,000

Particular Risks by special a

The advantages of Insurance to Individuals that it is unnecessary to dwell on them; and that Persons concerned in Policies with the C have experienced every satisfaction.

Books of Rates, and every information
 AGENT'S OFFICE, 109, GEORGE'S-ST
 Limerick, E

ORRELL COALS, &c.

SPAIGHT & EWAR

Have just received, per the Betsy, lying at A CARGO OF VERY SUPER
ORRELL COALS,
 Which will be Sold from on board, at r
 They have also for Sale, on the most mod
 Liverpool, Scotch, and Cannel Coa
 Plaster of Paris raw and prepared Fire Brick and Blocks,
 900 Brls. best Crown Brand Scotch Now landing from on board the William
 from Glasgow,
 And 50 Tons Liverpool Coke,
 Which will be found well worth the atten and Builders, being much cheaper than Irish

AUCTION OF NEWFOUNDLAND COD

BLUBBER, BRIG MINERVA, and MAT
 TO BE SOLD BY AUCTION, for a Licensed, on MONDAY, the 15th I of Clock, at the ATLANTIC HOTEL, M about 10 CASKS of NEWFOUNDLAND BLUBBER, saved from on board the M stranded at Seafield, bound from St. John's
 The above will be put up in small Lots Purchasers.
 And on same day will also be put up Auction the HULL of the BRIG MINERVA lies at Seafield, with her ANCHORS, CAB
MAST, BOLTS, SPRIT, &c. in One Lot;
RIGGIG, and SPARS, &c. now lying Hotel, such convenient Lots as shall be ag Cash.
BRYAN McMAHON,
THOMAS SEYMOUR

February 3.

TO BE LET,
 AND IMMEDIATE POSSESSION

A Small Compact House
 FIT FOR THE RECEPTION OF A SMA
 Situate in Denmark-Street,
 Application to Mr. PAT. GORR
 Limerick, O

SALMON FISHERY

TO BE LET,
 AND IMMEDIATE POSSESSION OF
The Salmon Fishery, or Great Lax
River Shannon,
 NEAR THE CITY OF LIMERICK
 And if required, a sum would be either adva for Repairs.
 Proposals, in writing, will be received for
 by ROBERT MAUNSELL, JOHN VER
HOWE, or D. F. G. MAHONY, Esqrs.
 Limerick,
TO BE LET.