

Sallyneguard, in this County. 20th, 45th and 82d regiments, at Chatham on Wednesday. A ship, in which Dr. O'Halloran, Botany Bay, has 50 men of the command of Captain Coates, on Lieut.-Colonel Hay, of was at his own solicitation--as he makes himself responsible for a debt.

Isle of Man packet, on her arrival, lost on the morning of the 10th, of the Royal Marine. Other passengers, unfortunately, the ebbs was one of the Pay-Captain Division of Royal Marines. On the Duke of Buccleugh, Commander-in-Chief of the arrived at the George Inn, park in his Majesty's frigate. Henry Duncan, C. B. for has been fitted for their recep-of Hastings and part of her on Wednesday, in the Waterloo, Marquis and Marchioness will in 1821.

Gloucester, Earl and Countess of Gloucester, Earl and Countess of Clare, Duchess of Dorset, are now at appointed Lord High Com-urch of Scotland.

Glengall was born November 1793, his distant cousin, Pierce, in title and estates. Jan. 6th, 1801, whilst a minor, August 15, 1793, daughter of St. John Jefferys, Castle, Co. Cork, by Arabella of John, Earl Clare, Lord High and, by whom he has left issue an born May 17, 1797, and three es Harriet, Charlotte and Emily Peer was the twelfth Baron of Queen Elizabeth, dated to learn, that our distinguished tryman, the Earl of Clancarty, er, and no uneasiness is now felt he had experienced.

at Miss O'Neill will shortly be altar by a Noble Lord, the son and that Miss Stephens will fol- with a respectable professional of Dublin.

the County and City of Water- the 13th of March. It has at Baron George and Justice dges.

Bellegrave, Esq. is to be the e County of Waterford; and Castletown, Esq. is to be High ty of Kilkenny.

a, Esq. of Jamestown, is ap- ff of the County Tyrone, for last, John Smith Barry, Esq. appointed High Sheriff of Che- John Wingfield Stratford, of icious person in that part of the County. A similar measure will be resorted to in the Half Barony of Arra, as Mr. Hastings and Mr. Going will attend at Ballina, on Sunday next to administer the oaths to such as may come forward. If outrages should continue after this measure, the Peace Preservation Act will then be put in immediate force.

The House of Cappa, County Clare, received some damage by the storm on Saturday se'night and several large trees were torn up by the roots.

On Thursday night, a number of persons came with saws to the fir grove on Deer-park, the property of the late Thomas Steel, Esq. County Clare, and cut down and carried off the entire; they also cut some ash trees on Mr. Canny's demesne, and upon Wood-park, Mr. D'Alton's. Captain D'Alton having got private information of this wanton felony, on Sunday morning, assisted by his corps, the Rossecastle Yeomanry, went in search of the timber, and was so fortunate as to get five car-loads, which was deposited in the Session-house of Six-mile-bridge, and the persons whom said timber was found with, and in their possession, are to be brought before Thomas Studdert, Esq. of Bunratty, who will punish the fellows as the law directs.

Dennis Brennan, who was committed some time since to the County Gaol, charged with murder, died of extreme debility on Monday. An inquest was held yesterday by the Mayor, and a verdict was returned accordingly.

The numerous friends of Doctor Campion will be glad to learn, that he is pronounced out of danger from a typhus fever, which he got in his professional pursuits.

A clergyman of the Church of England, thro' Major Woodward, has given £53 9s. 3d. to several charitable Institutions in Cork.

The late Dean of Enly (Doctor Moore) has left £50 to the poor of Ardbraccan Parish. The late Mrs. Margaret Stafford, of Carlow, has left the following sums—£100 to the poor housekeepers of Carlow—£100 to the sick poor of Carlow, and £40 to the Magdalen Asylum in that town—she has also bequeathed £100 to the poor housekeepers of Wexford.

R. S. Esq. on Monday, gave the Proprietors a Pound Note, to be equally divided between the Mendicity Society and the daughter of the Officer, whose distress was mentioned on Wednesday's Chronicle. Major R. also gave them 5s. for the distressed officer's daughter.

It is requested that such of the Annual Governors of the House of Industry and Hospital for Lunatics, who have forgot to pay their subscriptions for the year commencing 25th March, 1818, will send them to the Treasurer, preparatory to the annual statement being printed for circulation previous to the Assizes.—Number in the House this day, 326; of whom 51 are lunatics and idiots. The debts due of the House exceed £430.

The Treasurer has received £5 13s. 9d. from Thomas P. Maunsell, Esq. of Thorpe Malsor, Northamptonshire, in aid of the Institution.

THE MARKETS.

A very large supply of Wheat this day at Market, but not quick demand, prices from 1s. 10d. to 2s. 1d. per stone—Oats 1s. 1d. per stone—

William Suawe, Esq. of Kilkenny, King's County. Herbert, Esq. of Pluiborough, Barrister at Law, Cuffe, daughter of the late Hon. and Rev. Hamilton and niece to the late Earl of Desart—Robert Thompson of Knockadoo, to Eliza, daughter of Henry Gardiner of Kingsborough, Co. Sligo—In London, Philip James, Esq. late of the 11th Light Dragoons, to Mary, daughter of the late Nathaniel Wexles, Esq. of Bar. At Newport, Doctor Ducler, Chief of the Medical the Isle of Wight, to Miss Delgaroo, daughter of John Delgaroo, Esq. and sister to the Lady of Sir Worsley Holmes, Bart. M. P.—At Westminster Hunter, Esq. of Strabane, to Henrietta, daughter of Haslam, of Frith-street, Soho-square—In Cork, Martin, Esq. eldest son of Robert Martin, Esq. of to Sarah, daughter of the late Edward Creed, Esq. At Paris, James Black, Esq. to the daughter of Captain Sir J. Collins, R. N.—The Rev. Charles S. Melton, to Anne, daughter of William Goodwin, bridge, Esq.—The Rev. Richard Lowndes, to Mary, of the late Rev. Robert Douglas, of Salwarp—In Mr. James Nihill, Apothecary, to Mary, daughter of Francis Allman, Esq.—On Thursday, in London, before, Thomas, Viscount Anson, to Louisa C. youngest daughter of the late Nathaniel Phillips, Siebeck-hall, Pembrokeshire—At Dungannon, on James Buchanan, Esq. of Finton, to Amelia, daughter of the late John Bleakley, Esq.—At Islington, Assistant General Stukney, to Miss Eyckholt, of A.

DIED—It is with feelings of deep regret we announce the death of our numerous friends and the public in general, the our esteemed and valued fellow-citizen, Hugh Bra who died this morning, at his house in George's-street forty-third year of his age, leaving a disconsolate w three young orphans to mourn the loss of a fond but a most indulgent parent—a loss duly to be appreciated by those who lived within the circle of his domestic tance. In his friendship he was sincere and disint his charity was without ostentation—he was a kind and his feelings were marked with punctuality an oo.—Long will it be ere the tear of sympathy shall flow—long will the virtues which adorned this good in the grateful recollection of his afflicted family an The calm and pious resignation with which the app symptoms of dissolution were viewed, and the pious tions flowing from the lips of the dying christian, e blessings to be derived from a firm hope and cou the merits of a Crucified Saviour—

“O Death, where is thy sting.”

“O Grave, where is thy victory.”

At Quinmanway, aged 67 years, Mrs. Hayes, wife of Hayes, Esq.; and Mrs. Alice Sullivan, relict of Richard, Esq. Attorney, of Bandon.—At York, Sarah the late Rev. George Walker.—At Trinidad, Mr. lagher.—At Gloucester, the Rev. Reiguard Wynn Kinnaber, Mrs. Bell, wife of Capt. Bell, late of the At Madras, in June last, Major-General James India Company's Service—At Bermuda, Lieut. the Leander—At Norwich, the Rev. Mark W wife of Edward Faikner, Esq. of Fairfield, Co. La By a fall from a stage coach at St. Alban's, Crew, Bart.—At Brompton, near London, of a dr 21, Joshua, second son of Edward Syngue Cooper, for the Co. Sligo—At Dorset, Robert Waugh, Esq. Surgeon of the 43d Regiment, and lately to the District at Chelmsford—At Brookville, County Rebecca, wife of Benjamin Guinness, Esq. The of this Lady presented a rare combination of tu comprized under the heads of christian charity, as fully described by St. Paul, in the 13th chap. of to the Corinthian Church—This remark will be ficiated by those who had the happiness of witnessi a peculiar degree her conduct united the most p activity and zeal, with that meek and quiet spiri the chiefest ornament of the female character, an grace which enabled her thus to walk, led her to the Glory to God, “and to acknowledge, that b all, she was an unprofitable servant.” After a patient suffering under a protracted illness, she d ing alone in the merits and atonement of her Sav relict of the late James Coulter, Esq. of Aboghli Antrim, and mother of James Coulter, Esq. of near Newry—At Knockbride Glebe, aged 45, Josiah Erskin, of that Parish—Catherine, daug late Rev. Archdeacon Herbert—In Mullingar, M Kerrigan—At Gillabbey, Co. Cork, Master Wm. In Belvedere-place, Dublin, Hannah, youngest Nicholas Fleming, Esq.—In Waterford, Mr. K. K At Christendom, aged 82, William Wexles, Esq.