An inscrutable but all wise Providence has thus been pleased to remove from this state of trial, the tender mother of seven young children, as well as the beautiful and unceasing benefactor of the poor and necessitous. Her mental endowments and amiable manners made her eminently useful in the walks of social life, and greatly endeared her to a large circle of attached friends. The tear of heartfelt sorrow at her loss will long continue to be the fairest tribute to her well known worth and piety; resting in her last moments upon the merits and death of CHRIST, the pardoned sinner's sole and only rock of support in that trying hour, she found that peace of God which passeth all the powers of human utterance and understand- ing, and rejoiced "with joy unspeakable" in the assured prospect of a glorious immortality. She stated the ground of her confidence, by repenting with an animation and delight, derivable only from the power of the Holy Spirit, the following verses:

Jesus, thy blood and righteousness
My beauty are, my glorious dress;
Midst flaming worlds, in these array'd,
With joy shall I lift up my head.
Boid shall I stand in thy great day,
For who—ought to my charge shall lay?
Fully absolv'd, thro' thee, I am,
From sin and fear, from guilt and shame.
