

The Sheriff of the County Clare, has Thomas Studdert, son, Esq. of Bunratty Morony, Esq. Bindon Scott, Esq. and W. J. Welsh, Esq. Replevengers for the Court House of Ennis, on Monday of March instant.

A deliberate murder was committed on the Cranagh Mills, Co. Tipperary, on Friday the middle of the day. A man of the name of McManus, was lately married in that Co. formerly had an amour with a woman of the name of Canney, he was met on the road by a man who fired a musket and shot him thro' the head. An inquest was held on Saturday, and a verdict of wilful murder returned against the man, who has absconded.

A man named Charles Mulloy, late a private in the 2d Garrison Battalion, shot a fit of insanity on Saturday last at 15, St. James's Street, Dublin.

Two men were apprehended by Captain O'Connell's Police, at Cashel, on Monday, negotiating notes of Messrs. Rialls, Clonmel.

On Monday night, six fat sheep the property of Mr. Josiah Crampton, were killed on the road of Muleair near this city; their bodies were found open and the fat only taken away.

Mr. Crampton visited Castlebar Fever Hospital on Monday, and intends to recommend the Government Lieutenant for a grant of money for the present support.

The instalment of the Assessed Taxes in the district, will be required to be paid from the 8th May.—See notice in advertising.

Mr. Canny, Esq. has lately planted on the town of Moyne, County Clare, 6500 timber trees.

An important report of the Cork linen association, promoting the cultivation of Flax, and the improvement of the Linnery Trade in the South of Ireland, appears in our fourth page.

LIMERICK INFIRMARY.—Visiting in this Province of Government, to ascertain and report on the state of the Hospital, I have had the opportunity afforded me, by the kindness of the Physicians and Surgeons, of seeing this Hospital, and feel myself called on to notice the uncommon neatness and regularity which prevail in every part of the establishment, and which must render it efficient to the community.

F. BARKER, M. D.
