

the following Regiments, will embark during the month of May, to join their Regiments in the Bengal Presidency; 30th and 53d for Dragoons, 14th, 17th, 24th, and 30th, the Duke of Wellington and Prince of Orange's 48th, and 59th Regiments, under the command of the 12th foot, have been ordered to join their Regiments as guards, on board convict ships.

Prisoners of War, who were confined in the hospitals at Deal, are entirely recovered, and have marched to join their Regiments in the West Indies.

H. Colvert, Bart. having nearly completed his duties as Adjutant General, will retire on a pension of £1000 per annum; and that the 85th will replace General Torrens, in which case Lieut. Col. Warburton, of the 10th Light Infantry, will be promoted to the rank of Major.

The horse artillery embarked at Deal on Wednesday, for Ireland.

Of the 55th are convicted at Jersey and sent to France, two of whom are sentenced to transportation for life, two to 14 years, two to receive 1000 lashes, and two to receive 250.

The 52d regt. gave a grand ball on Monday evening, the beauty and fashion of Chester on display.

On Saturday, when sentence was passed on ten for cow and horse-stealing, and 20 confined.

Arrived in Cork, on Monday, and the Grand Jury, as follows:—

Colthurst, Bart. M. P. Foreman; Sir Thomas Gibbings, John Geo. Newsom, Hickman, Wm. Busted, Thos. Harris, Lane, Thos. W. Newsom, Geo. Atkins, Jas. Cuthbert, Thos. Newenham, Wm. Henry Leslie, William Massey Baker, Callaghan, Thomas Fuller, John Roberts, Esqrs.

Hon. Justice Johnstone, and Mr. Jebb arrived in Galway, and the Grand Jury as follows:—

Blake, jun. Foreman; Walter Joyce, John Blake, Furbough; James Bolkin, John O'Connell; Dominick Daly, Manus Blake, M. Lynch, Edward Blake, James Lynch, Robert Perse, jun. John Moore, James P. O'Flaherty, Mark Browne, John, Barna; Rick. Burke, Henry S. and Pat. Commons, Esqrs.

W. Mansergh St. George, Headford, John, M. P. Dunsandle; Hon. Wm. Lecky; Arthur A. Nugent, of Pallas; Mount Bellew; Arthur F. St. George, John, Mohine; Robert Perse, Roxbro; Robert Perse; Malachi Daly, Baford; Robert Perse; John Taylor, Castletaylor; James Perse; James Lambert, Cregelare; James Perse, Windfield; Christopher Perse; Robert Perse, Rahane; Walter Perse; John D'Arcy, Kiltolla; Robt. Martin Perse; Michael Browne, Moyne.

The sums applied for in the County of Kerry, some inaccuracy having been made of presentment; and some were applied for in the his charge to the Town Grand Jury, that the Gaol should be enlarged, was disgusted at the idea that the persons confined in the Gaol were committed to the Gaol for various crimes—it appeared that they were crammed into 5 cells of St. James's Gaol.

William Brien, for the murdering, steward of Mr. Grobb, at

W. & T. Gabbett - Diana, Poole, 1417 hls. beef, 405 hls. pork, 15 hals. bacon, 1 hals. butter, 17 hls. beef, 221 hls. butter, Harvey & Sons; John, Fisher & Son; - Valiant, Newport, 1086 barrels Lusk lard, Mark & Co. - Snowdrop, Fortin's Bay, 336 hls. lard, 32 tierces beef, 100 bags bread, 20 hls. lard, E. Ryan & Sons.

COMMITTED.—To the County Gaol, By R. Smithwick, Esq. Daniel Aborn and D. Why Cleary, for having stolen mutton in their possession—By Henry Bevan, Esq. Wm. Carey, for keeping forcible possession—By I. Evans, Esq. John Donegan, for stealing shirts.

BIRTH—The Lady of Nattal Greene, Esq. of Kilmantown Castle, Co. Tipperary, of a daughter—In Hardwick-street, Dublin, the Lady of Counsellor Cole, of a daughter. In Guernsey, the Lady of R. Woolecombe, Esq. Royal Artillery, of a son—At the Deanery Battle, Mrs. Birch, of a son.

MARRIED—In London, Sir Jacob Astley, Bart. of Melton Castle, Norfolk, to Georgina Caroline, youngest daughter of Sir Henry Dashwood, Bart. of Kirtlington-Park, Oxfordshire—At St. Pancras Church, London, William Robinson, Esq. of Hamsterley-Lodge, Durham, to Johanna, daughter of the late Admiral Sir H. Christian, K. B.—At Arncliffe, John Borthwick, Esq. of Crookston, to Miss Douglas, daughter of the Right Hon. Lord Chief Baron of Scotland—In Dublin, the Rev. Henry Burke, son of Michael Burke, of Ballydugan, Esq. to Julia Frances, only daughter of the late Valentine Blake, Esq. of Lelinch, Co. Mayo—At Kilmacshannon, the Rev. Samuel Riell, Curate of Carrick-on-Suir, to Dora, second daughter of the late Mr. John Power, of that town—In Dublin, Stephen Henry Warren Haggis, Esq. of Lisfield, Co. Cork, to Louisa, daughter of the late Maximilian Travere, Esq.—At Chichester, John Newman, Esq. to Eliza, daughter of the Rev. B. Maddison—In Paris, Monsieur leComte Auguste de Valmer, of the Royal Guard Lancers, to Miss M. Power, daughter of the late Richard Power, Esq. of Clushmore, County Waterford.

DIED—On Monday morning, in Ennis, of fever Thomas Lysaght, Esq. Attorney at Law, Register and Solicitor to the Dublin Society; a Gentleman universally esteemed, and with his highly respectable family he has left an amiable wife, the daughter of the late Lieut.-General Vallancey, and five children, to deplore his much lamented death—In the Four Courts Marshalsea, Dublin, Edmund Ormsby, Esq.—At Finestown, in this Co. on Sunday, much regretted, Edmund Hogan, Esq.—In Kildare-street, Dublin, James Curately, Esq. of Grangebegin, Co. Kildare—In Galway, Mr. Charles Cahill—At Finvara-House, County Clare, of typhus fever, James Lynch Skeerett, Esq.—At Lismore, of fever, Mr. Samuel Kenah—At Eyre-court, Doctor George Bernard—In New-row, Dublin, Edward Hearne, Esq.—In Temple-street, Dublin, Mrs. Hanion—We are truly sorry to announce the melancholy intelligence of the death of two of Mr. Trant's children, of Mountjoy-square, Dublin, carried off, after a few days illness, by the croup. His two surviving daughters have been attacked by the same complaint, but it is hoped are out of danger—At Eaton, the son of the late Major Snook, 18th Regiment—In Jamaica, Edward Colin Harrison, Esq. by whose death a large property devolves to his father, Thomas Harrison, of Athlone, Esq.—At Knock of Kincairn, Strathispey, Captain John Stuart, 53d Regiment—At Knockingon, Co. Dublin, Mr. Thomas King, an extensive and most respectable Agriculturist—At her house, Mulloo-street, on Monday, aged 74 years, Mrs. Ryves, widow of the late Francis Ryves, Esq. of Ryves Castle in this County, daughter of the late William Paul Warren, Esq. of Grange Begg, County Kildare, and granddaughter of the Hon. Robert Allen. Her remains will be interred to-morrow, at the family vault, Ryves Castle—At his house, Summer-hall, Dublin, on Sunday last, James Cantillon Hiffernan, Esq. Lieutenant Royal Limerick Co. Regiment, a Gentleman of the mildest and most inoffensive manners. His remains will arrive in this City to-morrow, for interment in the family vault at Ballinakill, in this Co.—At Thomond Gate, Mr. William Halpin—In Dublin, Mr. M. A. Eades, of the Stamp Office, late of the 30th Regiment—In Dublin, Mr. Patrick Jones, of Bishop-street. In Dorset-street, Dublin, Mrs. Jane Rochfort, relict of the late Rowland Rochfort, Esq.—Hon. John Cosmo Innes, of the Isle of Man—Mrs. Mackey, wife of Doctor Mackey, of Southampton—Miss Lushington, daughter of Edward H. Lushington, Esq.

ELIGIBLE BUILDING GROUND.

At so low a Price as One Guinea, Crown to the Groom. To be paid before Seeing. BLACK LEGS is, perhaps, one of the best year old Colts in Ireland; full six months old; compact as a Pony; beautiful Brandy-brown strong bone and supple. He is got out of an Andalus Mare, and likely to be serviceable Hunter so much wanting in the Further Pedigree, for strength and action, is a HUNTER. TO BE SOLD, AS good a HUNTER as any in Ireland. A CREED, and now nine years old, beautiful, and without blemish. This Horse possesses all the qualifications requisite for a Hunter, being stout. He has been regularly hunted, for several Seasons, with Colonel ODELL'S Hounds, who judged the fastest in this Country, during which never was thrown out, or received a single scratch. His action is of the first rate, having carried his full weight in sporting style, measured with a foot eight inches, for a trifling wager, in several Gentlemen; is equally a good wall runner, and although not a large Horse, is full of bone. PRICE 150 GUINEAS. For which time will be given, if required. To be seen at the GROVE, until the 1st of April, after which, if not disposed of, will be sent to the stud.

TIMBER AND STAVES TO BE SOLD, BY AUCTION. (For the Benefit of the Concerned Parties) ON WEDNESDAY, the 14th Day of MARCH, at LORD HEADLY'S LODGE, ROSSBARR, in the County of Kerry, about Five Thousand YELLOW PINE TIMBER, From St. James's Park, Brunswick, N. A. and Five Thousand BEECH STAVES, & Seventy Bundles of and some LARGE PLANK, being part of the Snow-Harmony, of Whitby, lately wrecked on the Coast of Kerry, and sold by Public Auction, Terms Cash or approved Bills on Counters, payable in 14 days sight.—Also at the same time, will be sold, SAILS, SPARS AND CORDAGE, Saved from said Wreck. W. M. TWISS Auctioneer.

CASTLE-BARRACK THE PLANS and SPECIFICATION of the proposed Addition to the CASTLE-BARRACK, may be seen at NEWENHAM'S House, Richmond-place, Dublin, on WEDNESDAY, the 14th of APRIL, after which Day no Proposals will be received.

REWARD. STOLEN of the Lands of FORT on Sunday last, two cows one a grey Kerry cow with a white spot along her back and the top of one of her horns higher than the other, four years old never before milked, and a good sized cow black with a white spot on her back, and short thick horns, five years old beginning to spring. Any person giving information to the Police, or to the undersigned, that they may be found will get a reward of £100, from Mrs. DEANE, BROSKIE, or from the undersigned at FORT, near CHARLEVILLE. Broskie, M.

COUNTY OF LIMERICK TO BE LET, To the 1st Day of December 1819. With immediate possession of THAT EXCELLENT GRAZING PASTURE, The CORCASSES of CRICKLEBUSH, SITUATE NEAR BRUEN, The Estate of the EARL of SANTELMON. CONTAINING A. R. Application to Mr. BRASSINGTON.