THE MARKETS

Fluctuation in market prices, save Pork, which is 3s per cwt. and still looking down—nothing in.

Corn, Grain, and Flour, as sold in Limerick

	Amount.	Average.
Wheat,	£258 10 0	£1 17 8
Rye,	307 15 0	1 2 2½
Oats,	569 10 0	11 8

at the Corn Exchange, April 16.

Extreme dullness which we have noticed for the last four or five weeks in our Corn Market, continues, and prices have progressively got lower, notwithstanding which, sales are difficult to be had. To-day inferior Oats are 6d to 8d lower than yesterday's. Buyers might have bought largely at 13s to 14s, but they still hold off. Feeding Oats, 15s per cwt. is absolutely unobtainable, as in
