

...had not read it, or he never termed "want of candour." use to destroy the charm unanating system. Is it not d to spread it, by persuing of the Established Church of the Sacraments from thily. Their Advertisement that it is really unaccountable did sign it—they tell the pub-place in Methodism in Ire-conference; now, was it ever were administered among the lands of lay-men, till after the case through the Kingdom it, and is this no change? dy of men setting up a school ch they formerly belonged to from that Church. These very advertisement (with the excepas not known in the Society ere the first to sign strong e, and which are still in print, primitive Methodism, a branch the Preachers, and pledging side for such Preachers; but change their minds, some by influence. late decision of the Master still the legitimate Sons what had that decision to with the principles of le Sacraments on the subject assembled in conference. o administer Sacraments, to sh design ever entered our an own thoughts, and if any we would have looked upon rules, and consequently a again he adds in unity if you Methodism. als, where he expelled two for only recommending the cult, in those sentiments he ur of his Death, as appears a short time before his depar-To the decision of the law res-how with deference, we by the letter of the Deed, have taken place, were it by whom the Honors were confidence in their Preachers, deeds of their own framing, one gives the Conference any the people never would have mation of the long projected back till all the Houses were nd of their boasting, but we whether triumphs gained by , they tauntantly say we have rendering upwards of twenty ey are indebted, not to the the truly primitive Methodists lose to relinquish their rights, ng better employment than range the three kingdoms. those unnatural law proce-ve have thus unjustly been de-ie have enabled us to erect ip and 14 neat Houses have ading the opposition given by d by a notice on the Clonmel out the public from Subscribare now building there, by building it were not in Mr. sinuating that the building . This attack was quite un-ess a neat House there, built o persecute. The limits of an any further remarks at pre-bination but if provocation again taken up.

J. SEWARD.

Myran, near Cork, as stated in our last.
 Mr. Myles, of Boherbuy, Woollen Manufacturer, on Thursday night stopped a woman who said she came from near Kildimo, and her name to be Peg Cooney, (alias Peg Brien) offering for sale 5lb of wool, evidently plucked from live sheep; while weighing the wool, she ran off, leaving the pelt behind. The nefarious practice of killing sheep for sake of their wool would speedily stop, if purchasers would act as the Messrs. Myles of Limerick do.

Thursday, a boy, taking 12lbs. of Snuff from a Shop in George's street, to one of the quays, was followed by a person who happened to be bye when the lad received his orders.—He artfully escorted him on his way, and, representing himself as connected with, or acting for the purchaser, the boy was induced to give him the Snuff, with which he absconded.

An Inquest was held yesterday on the body of John Tuomy, a child, between 3 and 4 years of age son of the Widow Tuomy, whose house at Ballyseeh, was broken into and robbed on the night of the 22d inst. by 3 men, (as mentioned in a former Chronicle) who wounded this child in such a manner as caused his death. Verdict accordingly.

Thursday night, a man of the name of Maenamara residing in East Watergate, in this City, confined to his bed by typhoid fever, got up during the night, and although followed by his friends through the streets, he evaded them, and it is supposed has thrown himself into the river, not as yet being found.

Thursday the Quarter Sessions for the division of Limerick ended, before the Worshipful Thomas Lloyd, Barrister—James O'Donel was convicted of a riot and assault at the fair of Fedamore, and sentenced to be flogged there and confined for six months.

Another House was maliciously burned on the lands of Bird Hill, County Tipperary, near Balyhane turnpike gate on Wednesday night.

Wednesday a Velocipede or Pedestrian Accelerator, made by Mr Charles Boles, of Fethard, was rode into Clonmel from the former town, in 15 minutes.

St. Munchin's Church having gone through the necessary repairs, will be open to-morrow for Divine Service.

The Treasurer to the Mendicity Society has received from Miss Monsell Tervoe £1, by the Rev.
 Archdeacon Maunsell—also £1 from Hugh Norcott, Esq. by Messrs. Bruce and Co.

The sale of Gin at the King's Stores, Bank-Place, is adjourned to Tuesday next, at 12 o'clock.

The inhabitants in the neighbourhood of Kil-rash, have a wish that a respectable female boarding and day School should be established in that town—no doubt if such was undertaken, ample encouragement would be given.

PORT-NEWS.—Arrived. Elizabeth, Stride, Southampton, wood hoops; Hopewell, Soughton, Bangor, slate; Vigo, Lewis, Cardiff, coal; Union
M-Alpin, Liverpool, sundries; Diana, Gorman, Pool, pipe clay; Lively, Williams, Newport, sundries; Commerce, Barron, Bristol, ditto; Hope, Humphreys, Ayr, coal; Harmony, M-Intosh, Liverpool, ditto; Union, Jones, Cardiff; Lady M-Kenzie, Arthur, Greenock, coal opportunity of a friend of mine, Edward Tenny-ceeding to London, who has been so obliging charge of handing you the Petition—Gladly avail of the opportunity it affords me of expressing my esteem and regard—I beg you will believe me, truly.

Dear Sir,
 Your very obedient humble Servant
 WILLIAM FITZGIBBON

To the Hon Col, Fitzgibbon,
 &c. &c. London

Sarile Row, April 2

DEAR SIR—On my return to town last night pleasure of receiving your very obliging letter, to that the Roman Catholic inhabitants of the County of Limerick had done me the honor of entrustcare their petition to the House of Commons, will have great pleasure in presenting whenever I received it from Mr. Tierney, and I beg to express flattered I feel by this mark of your confidence.

I have the honor to be,
 Dear Sir,
 Your obedient faithful Servant
 R. FITZGIBBON

To William Roche, Esq. &c.

Limerick, April 1

DEAR SIR—An Aggregate Meeting of the this County and City was held on the 12th Feb. pose of petitioning Parliament to relieve them unkind and unmerited disqualifications under have so long laboured, and the energies of the C been so long cramped. Having had the honor at it I am directed to solicit a continuance of th port when we uniformly experienced from you.— has so early embraced the liberal and I may ju-enlightened side of this question—to one who has personal opportunity of appreciating its justice tance. I need not trespass on your time in dethe advantages that must arise from liberat-people of Ireland and of the Empire, in a interest and in one uniform sentiment for weal; an object which distinctions and divisions rarely counteract.

With this impression and respect for your liber-on the subject, I may therefore confine myself you that I had this day an opportunity of transrespectable Colleague, Col. Fitzgibbon, our Pe-House of Commons requesting your kind co-opfurtherance of it.

I have the honor to remain, Sir, Your most obedient humble Servant
 WILLIAM FITZGIBBON

To the Hon. W. W. Quin, &c. &c. London.

Charlton, April 1

SIR—I have, by this day's post, had the ho-your letter of the 10th inst requesting, in th Aggregate Meeting of the Catholics of the Co of Limerick, a continuance of the support given to their Cause.

The Catholics of Ireland have always had in and zealous friend, and on the present occasio named in England, solely for the purpose of s Grattan's motion.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
 Your obedient humble Servant
 W. FITZGIBBON

To William Roche, Esq. &c.

The late Rev. William Maxwell bequeathed the following:—

- To the Clergymen and Churchwardens of A Temple, Co. Westmeath, and of Donagh Tyballion, Co. Monaghan to purchase a B for the instructing the Poor of the Parish
- To the same for affording maintenance t Children of same.....
- For the educating the Protestant children o Temple Parish.....
- Bath City Dispensary.....
- Bath City Penitentiary.....
- Bath Bible Society.....