

...ed as the same stolen some time since of Mr. Read, gun maker, in Bridge-was a valuable towing piece and in stock and barrel, to the size of a pistol. nder certainly belongs to a gang of robay not be afraid to give a description of ilarly as it is presumed the above is but name—He is about 22 years of age, well made, full face, grey eyes, brown 8 inches high.

...riting the above we have learned that ering the jail, he was recognised as ord, a former inmate, having been comeatedly for pig-stealing. It has also tained, that the person who fired the shot er of the prisoner's, and that a man of of Purtell, of notorious character, was mpany with him.

...ay, Mr. Williams, the High Constable, enny, attended at the Jail and identified eary, committed last week by Alderman charged with the robbery of the Chapel ary's in that City, on the 14th of last He was transmitted under a military vide his trial at the next Assizes, and o his removal confessed his guilt.

...or man who left his bed in fever a few e, and who was supposed to have been has been since discovered in the extreme County Clare.

...imerick Fever Hospitals Report for the , appears in our first page.

...cargoes of Beggars arrived in Dublin k, shipped from England, pursuant Act.

...bate on the Army Estimates shall appear t. The estimates voted, are for the men stated in a late Chronicle. en received, shall meet attention.

...rn Markets are thinly supplied.—Wheat 1s. 10d. to 2s. 1½d per stone.—Oats rley 1s. 1d.—Flour 24s. per cwt.—Oat-—Pork 28s. to 30s.—Beef 5d. to 6d.
 Matton 6½d. to 7½d.—Potatoes 2½d. per ollow 8s. 8d. to 9s. per stone.—New ened at 9½s. per cwt. for best quality—are, 9½s.—90s.—80s.—7½s.

...rice of Butter in Cork on Monday. ts, .. 90s.—88s.—78s.—60s.—50s.—40s.
 Provisions.—Beef is in good demand, reels continue scarce. Pork steady.— ce still exceedingly heavy, and only saupties enquired after.

...Duty on Sugar.—The Average of last Saturday's Gazette was so low as the general opinion in the market is, that t duty will be reduced 2s. per cwt.

...f Corn, Grain, and Flour, as sold in Limerick

	Amount.	Average.
Wheat,	£343 0 0	£1 17 10
Barley,	600 0 0	1 1 7
Oats,	378 1 8	10 10

...—Int, Glasgow, 1500 brls oats, M. Creagh—London, 270 bales cocoa, Mark & Co.; 148 50 brls pork, R. Nugent; 230 brls pork, Fisher bales bacon, Harvey & Sons; 30 bales bacon, W. brls pork, 2 brls tongues, B. Clancy; 2 cases old furniture, 1 bale bacon, S. Burton; 8 tierces pork, 3 casks fluid, Thomas Stoddert, Kilrush—rader, London, 1790 brls oats, 64 tierces pork, an; 2 boxes carpenter's tools, and old wearing ...them the poison of perjury.

 Having thus, Gentlemen, explained my motives for this address, I shall beg leave to state thro' the medium of your paper, to the Methodist Society in Ireland, as held under the government of the annual Conference of its Preachers, in White friar-street, Dublin, my objections to the administration of the Sacraments (so called) by those Preachers, and to that form of government to which they have pertinaciously adhered. I am Gentlemen with sentiments of esteem, your very obedient servant.

The Review of the Methodist Question alluded to in the above Letter shall be given in our next.

Baron Von Drahl's Accolators, on an improved plan by M. Charles, continue to attract crowds of Fashionables at the Assembly Rooms. They afford a great deal of amusement, and we demand that a wager of 25 guineas has been made that he will go from hence to Paris on one of those machines, in three hours and a half—the day has not been fixed.

COMMITTED.—To the County Gaol, By C. D. Oliver, Esq Daniel and James Duggan, for burglary and robbery—By A. Rose, Esq Michael Forde, for felony and having loaded fire arms, found in his possession—By Thomas O'Dell, Esq John Duggan, cow-stealing—By Thomas Westropp, Esq Mary Fenagan, alias M'Knight, for burglary and felony in arms.—To the City Gaol, By the Clerk of the Crown of the City of Waterford, James Fitzgerald, for felony committed in this City—By Alderman Watson, Mary Mahon, for felony—By Alderman Russell, James Mullally and Cornelius 'Tuhill, for pig-stealing.

BIRTH—In Upper Seymour-street, London, the Lady of Sir John Reade, Bart. of a daughter—The Lady of Captain Hutchinson, of the East India ship Buxton, of a daughter—In Cork, the Lady of Colonel Hawker, of a son—The Lady of Richard English, Esq. of Roseshill, Co. Waterford, of a daughter—On Saturday last, at Newport Glebe, the Lady of Major Parnfather of a daughter.

MARRIED—At Ballinacree, Lieut. William Perse, 54th Regiment, to Miss Edith Perse Esq. of Perse-Park, Co. Galway—In Dublin, John Fowler, Esq. of Summer-hill, to Miss Jane Corlett, of Cork—At Paris, the Comte de Sivatte, of the Garde Royale, to Miss Elizabeth Brakspear, of Henley—This morning at St. Munchin's, Mr. Hugh Sims, to Lucy, daughter of the late Mr. Francis Carr, of this City—William Brazier, Esq. of Rio, to Miss Smith—George Longman, Esq. Royal Staff Corps, to Eliza, daughter of the Rev. W. W. Wilcocks, of Norfolk.— On Saturday, by the Rev. Francis Stowell, at Doneraile Church, Henry N Smith, Esq of Ballintra, Co. Waterford, to Priscilla W. Creagh, of Castle Widenham, Co. Cork—Mr. Denis Haly, of Cork, to Miss Mary O'Brien.

DIED—In Marlborough-street, Cork, on Friday evening last, Mrs. Westropp, wife of Alderman Westropp, of that City. This worthy Lady died after a long and severe illness, which she bore with true piety and Christian resignation.
 Her kind and hospitable manners endeared her to a numerous circle of acquaintances; and no higher proof can be given of the affection with which she was regarded by her numerous and highly respectable family, than the sorrow with which her loss is borne by every member of it—At the Glebe House, Letterkenny, the Rev. Mr. Meredith, formerly of Trinity College, Dublin. This profound scholar and most amiable man, was cut off suddenly by an apoplectic fit, a calamity from which his temper and studious habits would seem to have exempted him. In him the Church has lost an able supporter, literature a brilliant ornament, and his disconsolate wife and family, a beloved husband and father—In Cork, Mr. John Field—At his residence near Bray, Henry Figginson, Esq. formerly of Eastace street, Dublin—At Edinburgh, the wife of John H. Ferguson, Esq.—At Lisbon, whither he had gone for the recovery of his health, his Grace the Duke of Buccleugh and Queensberry. His Grace was born on the 24th of May, 1772, and married, in 1795, the youngest daughter of Viscount Sidney; and by her, who died in 1814, he has left three sons and four daughters. His Grace is succeeded in his title and estates by his eldest son, only 13 years of age—In London, Major Scott Waring—Eliogar, daughter of the late Dr. Roberts, Provost of Eton.
 —At Ryber, Edward, son of Edward Parrarte, Esq.

MADEIRA WINE.

The Eight Hhds. L. P. MADEIRA WINE, Formerly Advertised to be Sold by Auction,

MENDICITY ASSOCIATION

At a Meeting of the GENERAL Directors, the following Report Month of APRIL—

The DEAN of LIMERICK, V. P.
 The Committee of Investigation are reporting as to the state of the Mendicity City of Limerick, for the Month of satisfaction in declaring their full pe-utility, and the happy effects they daily persons under their inspection, the in-the disposition for general amendment thankfulness for being rescued from the street begging, evinced generally the afford solid ground of hope, that this nently calculated to effect these grand tion of industry, and raising multitudes tures from the lowest state of degradate life wherein they may prove useful to the Your Committee have again to call on the to co-operate in this great national work given to this house will and must prove suppression of street begging, if the in-tinue to give alms in the streets and in Public, in doing so, are opposing the city; they are promoting an evil great and most injurious to the very persons su-Not a beggar of your City has ever been into this house; and whilst such an as-ceive beggars, your Committee cannot ill-judged conduct of those who through lenor, continue to uphold the disgraceful begging. We say, give no alms to the the depot—there is no reason for you to plenty is here offered him. Your C Public will cease then to complain that the streets; who is to blame?—Not you are willing to receive all beggars; but hold the system by still affording relief any other channel than that which this Committee confidently hope the system adhered to, may continue to receive Whilst they have deeply to deplore the liams, the able, active, and zealous fr tion, they have much pleasure in statin regularity laid down and established be followed with the best success. month of April averaged per day at 3 incurred was £70 15s. 0½d, which is pence per day for each person. Your their Report with announcing a circu trust will not only meet your approb from a discerning and humane Public, viary assistance to this Institution. Yo under the immediate inspection of o Mr. Keil, caused one hundred and ni cleaned out and white-washed in the la ments are occupied by the inmates of not this circumstance tend to lessen spread of infection; and can such obje out money? Absolutely not. Such an merit, and loudly calls for hearty co-mane and benevolent.

The Rev. E. H. Hoare proposed, a seconded the motion, that the Report inserted in the Limerick Papers, and al circulated throughout the City.

ARTHUR PR...

NOTICE TO BUYERS A
 OF BUTTER

I HEREBY give NOTICE, that I force the law against any person Sell any Butter, before it be duly Branded, agreeably to the following the 54d, George III, chapter 13, sectio J. VBBERK

Limerick, 3d May, 1819.

SECTION 19 Enacts, that if any ter shall be Tried or Bored at any of one of the Public Weigh-houses of a or Market Town, or bought, sold, or