

the contrary. Thus one party Donnellan (the Brother-in-law of our new Collector; the opposite Mr. Burke of St. Clerans. all soon have an opportunity of right and who is wrong for the ap-the Collectorship will decide the ay Paper.

ast a Boat laden with Sea-weed squail, off Fort-mill and lost. e men on board at the time, one of g man who resided at the Wood orry to state, was unfortunately her two got safe to shore.

x Packet, Edward Doyle, Mas-tor Limerick, on Thursday.
Dublin on London—13—13}.

K.—WEDNESDAY, MAY 19.

Notice
particularly requested that all Ac-is Establishment from the 1st of to the 1st of April last, may be —A compliance with this Notice necessity and expence of Post-Chronicle Office, May 19, 1819.

evening, the Right Hon. the Lord ay, and Suite, arrived in Cork, Western parts of that County, to Conyngnam, M. P. arrived in Pay, and joined the British Embas-of Glin and Family, have arrived in this County.

Hon. W. W. Quin, M. P. ar-at Adare, in this County, from

Hon. Lord Dunally, of Kilboy, ry, is just elected a Representa-se of Commons, for the Borough
, in room of Christopher Savile,

Gazette of Saturday, announces of the Rev. William Van Mil-to be Lord Bishop of the see of Lefroy, Esq. is appointed Judge oy, and Serjeant Burton, dined Lieutenant on Saturday.

quantity of ammunition arrived in an escort of the 12th Regt. from

t. Stephen Moore and Laurence ed at the last Assizes, for burglary.
to be hanged at Gallows Green.

ew Potatoes were sent this morn-by Mr Hurst, of Ballinacarragy.
k: they are well sized white eyes.
evening entertainments at Swinburn's e the centre of amusement, be uty and ty of the new experiment which be every ard, adds greatly to the number of his sawing house is expected this afternoon, at seats are taken. (See Advertisement.)

a son—In Kildare-street, Dublin, the Lady of Wm. Fair-ell, Esq. of a son—At Oxford House, Grosvenor-square, London, Lady Mordaunt, of a daughter—Yesterday, in Greatworth-street, the Lady of Captain Johnson, of a daughter.

MARRIED—On Thursday, in London, the Earl of Temple, to Lady Campbell, daughter of Earl Breadalbane. The fortune given with the Lady is £150,000, to which will be added £50,000 on the birth of a son and heir—Same day, in London, the Hon. Richard Nevill, son of Lord Braybrooke, to Lady Jane Cornwallis, daughter of the Marquis of Cornwallis—Captain I. H. Bambridge, late 41st Regiment, to Sophia, daughter of B. D'Arcy, Esq. of Guernsey—Thomas W. Perks, Esq. of Suttonhill, Saropshire, to Sally, daughter of the Rev. G. Hazlewood, of Bridgnorth—At Islington, Surgeon Wm. Snow, of Mile-End, to Priscilla, daughter of Charles Derrick, Esq.—At Keshavin, the Rev. Joan Craig, to Catherine, daughter of the Rev. James Pringle—At St.
George's Church, London, Captain O'Halloran, to Miss Bucker—At Hampton Church, John Kerland, Esq. eldest son of John Kerland, Esq. of Glasgow, to Augusta Rizzo, eldest daughter of the late Major-Gen. John Agmondisham Vesey, and sister of Mrs. John Brown, of Mount-Brown, in this County—At Trincopolis, Captain Edward James Foster, 7th Native Infantry, to Anne, daughter of the late Priest Begbie, Esq. of the Stamp-office, London—On Tuesday the 4th instant, by the Rev T. Bewley Mossell, at Buncrana Cathedral, Mr. Robert Clagg, of Buncrana, merchant, to Elizabeth, second daughter of Edward Edgar, of Buncrana, Esq.—M. D. Dalton, Esq. of Hampden, to Anna Maria, daughter of Sir John Shaw, Bart. of Kenard, Kent—In Castletown, Mr. John Brunwell, Printer, to Miss Drought, of that town—William Byrne, Esq. of Georgequare, County Wicklow, to Miss Coxing, of same place—At Düsseldorf, Germany, Lieutenant General Baron Hansson, of the British service, to the Countess Louisa, of Neudorf, Ermshoven—On Saturday last, Patrick O'Shannon, Esq. to Miss Verling, of Cove—On the 15th instant, at Upper Brandon, by the Rev. R. Lee, Mr. John M. O'Quay, of Limerick, to Susanna, youngest daughter of the late William Bowen Webb, Esq. of Malton.

DIED—At Jabburpore, East Indies, Captain Alexander Black, Bengal Army—At Bombay, Lieut. Thomas Arrow, 6th Regiment—At Fort William, aged 82, Captain Angus Macdonald, of Tulloch—At Edinburgh, Bridget, daughter of the late Rev. David Black, of that City—At Carlworth, near Southampton, the wife of General Stovin—At Southsea, Captain Miscal, half-pay Royal Marine—At Aberdeen, the relict of Alexander Burnett, Esq. late a Deputy Commissary of Ordnance in the East India Company's service—At Bath, on the 8th instant, aged 21, of an inflammation in the heart, Matilda, wife of Lieut.-Colonel Robison, 24th Regiment, whom she married only ten months ago. She was second daughter of the Rev. R. Frankland, one of the Canons of Wool's Cathedral, and only surviving brother of Sir Thomas Frankland, Bart. of Turkleby, Yorkshire; a Lady whose engaging manners and eminently amiable qualities had endured her no less to her numerous friends, than to a disconsolate husband and family who now bitterly bewail her loss—At Mourmoe, Margaret, third daughter of Andrew Bissett, Esq. Comptroller of the Customs—At Edinburgh, the wife of Lieut.-Colonel Lauriston, East India Company's service—At Grauge, King's County, Mrs. Kent—In Bandon, aged 103, the Rev. Patrick Geran, O. S. F.—In Waterford, Mrs. Skutown, wife of Edward Skutowne, Esq.—Of fever, in Waterford, on Friday last, Mrs. Quin, wife of Thomas Quin, Esq.—At Usher's Island, John Doyle, Esq. Member of the Royal College of Surgeons—In Dublin, Edward Byrne, Esq. late of Liverpool, father of Miss Byrne, of the Theatre Royal—Last January, while on duty with a detachment of the Royal African Corps, on the borders of the Caffre country, in the interior of the settlements of the Cape of Good Hope, Ensign Edward Hunt, grandson of the late Pierce Maunoy, Esq. of this City. It is supposed he was one of those massacred by the natives, as stated on the authority of Letters from the Cape, in our last; but no account of the particulars have yet arrived—In Liverpool, Mr. Paul M'ORMICK, nephew of Mr. Moss, of Cork-hill, Dublin—The wife of B. Sharpe, Esq. of Fleet-street, London—In Bolton-street, Dublin, Mr. John Barrow, Printer—Suddenly, on Thursday last, (at Cortel, the seat of his brother-in-law, Robert Twiss, Esq.) universally lamented, James Gifford, Esq. of Ballyhanna, Co. Kerry—Henry S. George Cole, Esq. one of the Land-walkers at the DO. COL. W. W. W. W.
Maurence O'Donnell, Esq. of Ballyhanna, Co. Tipperary, son of Pieren O'Donnell, Esq. of —Mr. James Fitzgerald, Jun. at Waterford.

FANCY SILK WARE HOUSE
No. 2, Bedford Row,
MRS. HUNT, BFGS have to inform the Public, that she received a very extensive supply of the able Satins, Farcnets, Gauzes, Hollands, Tab-Craves, Bombazines, Silk Scarfs, Handkerchiefs and Trimmings, Thread Laces of every descrip-Lawn, and Cambricks, Flan and Fancy M and Cotton Hosiery, &c. &c. &c.
A case of Leghorn Straw and Willow Broom Flowers and Ornaments; and a general supply Goods.
To those who shall favor her with Commend-ment to afford as much advantage, as they other House in the City.
May

ST. GEORGE'S DAY SCHOOL
THE ANNUAL SERMON in all of this will be preached in St. George's Church DAY, the 23d instant, by the Rev. HENRY IRWIN,
Chaplain to R. A. at Ballinacorney In this School One Hundred and Twenty receive Penance, and are instructed in several useful industry, and when opportunity offers, as as Apprentices. The advantages of such an Inso very obvious as almost to preclude the need observation. The Trustees, however, feel that that the inculcation of every moral duty in founded on the revealed will of God, which is the hands of the Children, persuaded as they are ous instruction is the surest basis on which to conduct, and that every plan short of this will fectual to check the evil propensities of man-state. The funds of this Institution are what a considerable debt is contracted with the Tru-Trustees feel a confidence they shall not plead discerning Public, in behalf of such an In-therefore earnestly solicit their attendance on occasion.

Donations from such as cannot attend the Ser-thankfully received by the Trustees, the Archmerick, Rev. E. H. HOARE, Rev. H. L. L. L.
W. BAYLE, Esq. and Rev. W. D. HOAG
Limerick

COUNTY CORK.
Saint Antonio
a. } PURSUANT to the Adlerley & others. } Case, the Sale of DRUMKELLY, THE ARDACLEGG, LAGHE-
NON, CROSSES, FARNAGON, BALLY-BARNA, KILCOUNPAIN, BAWNMORE, CARRACANNON, FARNAGHE, BELM-BRITAIN; and also the Town and Lands of NON, in the County of Cork, heretofore adverti-notured to MONDAY, the 3d of May next.
bers on the Inn-square, Dublin, at the hour of in the afternoon. Dated 1st of April, 1819.
THOM

The Sale in this Cause is further Adjourned the 17th day of MAY instant, at the hour of in the afternoon, at my Chambers on the Inns-Dated the 3d of May, 1819.
For THOMAS BALL, Esq.

STEU
The above sale is further adjourned to M May inst. at the hour and place above-
May, 1819.
Particulars of the Estate can be had The Limerick Chronicle, Limerick; at the Cork Intelligencer; at the Commercial Hou at the Office of Messrs. Williams, Brooke Lincoln's-Inn, London; and at the Office of on, Irwin, and Fargate, Solicitors for the Inn-square, Dublin, from whom all necescan likewise be obtained. and in whose estate can be viewed.