

SATURDAY, MAY 29. chiefly Irish Members, voted in and against Mr. Tierney's

E. S. Leslie, C. P.
John Chard Mogenot, R.
dy, James Mahon, Hon. S. son, G. R. Martin, Richard nally, Lord McCharles, Bart.
 Fitzgerald, Visoy Neillam, Hon. P. eghton, Col. O'Brien, Sir E.
O'Neal, Hon. J.
Percival, Spencer
Rochford, G. H.
Pole, W. W.
Shaw, Robert
Sneyd, N.
Steward, Alexander
Steward, Hon. J.
Stewart, Sir G.
Vorster, Hon. John
Ward, R.
Weston, Hon. H.
ingsborough, Lord

that a letter has been received in London to which much credit has been given, stating that the Chancellor of the Exchequer proposes, among the Ways and Means in the ensuing year, a tax of 3 per cent. on Cork Advertiser.

Cards are expected to arrive in London about the middle of next month.
Dragoons, who are to embark at Gland.

Ellington, as Master-General of the Ordnance, has made some important alterations in the establishment at the Tower.
Broomhead, and the Officers of the Regiment have presented a valuable Box to Marshall, an old and deserving Officer, about to be discharged, after a service of thirty years.

A Bill has come out which permits Officers of each Regiment to be discharged from the 4th of June; an indulgence which makes the service extremely pleasant.
Officers have moved to Manchester, others from Brighton to Ipswich.
The Regiment arrived safe at Kingston upon Hull, on the 25th March.

On Saturday, the 24 West India Regiment left for Sierra Leone, to be replaced by the 25th.

Mrs. Fitzgerald, Lady of the Regiment, and suite, arrived at Swindon this morning, left town for Colchester, Mrs. General Brown, and Col. Sinburn's Hotel.

Col. Day, Esq., late Judge of the Court of Common Pleas, passed thro' here, to attend the Trial of Mr. Cuff, for the representation of the Slave.

A sword six feet long was exhibited for sale at the Carpet-street Market.

A Moral Society has been established in Limerick, and Barretts.

It is to be learned that M'Namara, alias McNamee, is charged with the murder of Brown.—In Dublin, the body of Dr. John Brown, Bart., of a sound heart.—In Waterford, the body of Henry Butler, Esq., Castle-Crone, County Cork, of a daughter.—In North Great George's Street, Dublin, the Hon. Miss A. A. H. Hutchinson, of a daughter.—In Rotunda-place, Dublin, the body of Edward Gore Morrissey, Esq., of a still-born child.—At Montreal, Lower Canada, the body of Major G. Henderson, Royal Engineers, of a son.—At Oxford, the body of the Rev. H. Cotton, of a son.—In Cork, the body of Richard Smyth, Esq., of Newmarket, of a son.—In Devonport Creek, the body of Captain Dilly, of a son and two daughters.—At Monmouth, the body of Major G. Smyth, of a daughter.

MARRIAGE.—On Tuesday last, at Marylebone Church,
London, by the Lord Bishop of London, Charles Portell Leslie, Esq., of Glaslough, Co. Monaghan, to Caroline, youngest daughter of the late George Polley, Esq., of Adare Farm, in this County.—In Dublin, Lieutenant Colonel Pakenham, eldest son of the Honourable Admiral Pakenham, to Catherine Jane Parsonby, only daughter of C. B. Parker, Esq., of Kilkeel, Co. Tipperary.—In Peter's Church, Dublin, the Rev. T. J. Fletcher, of Glanmore, to Miss Conway, of Merrion-square.—In Plymouth, Major W. Read, permanent Assistant Quarter-Master-General, to Lydia, daughter of the late Francis Douglas, Esq., R. N.—
At Somerford Keynes, Wilts, to Rev. Frederick R. Barker, Vicar of Tiverton, Oxfordshire, to Julie, daughter of the late George Cawler, Esq., of the Elms, Derbyshire.—At Rome, John Cunningham, Esq., of Naples, to the eldest daughter of William Magee, of the Lodge, near Belfast, Esq.—Lieut.
William Meadows, R. N., to Mrs. Ansell, of Weymouth.—In London, George Tarleton, Esq., of the 6th Post, to Louise, daughter of the late George Best, Esq., of Carlton-Park, Kent.—In Cork, James R. Barry, Esq., of Derrynane, to Anne, widow of the late John Stark, Esq., of that City.—At Anstruther Church, Henry Carmichael, son, Esq., of Montreal, Queen's County, to Eliza, daughter of A. M. Fitzgerald, of Castletown, in same Co., Esq.—In Cork, Patrick McGrath, of Portlaoise, near Charleville, Esq., to Mary Anne, daughter of the late John Haye, Esq.—A few days since, Mr. Paul Sheridan, of Cavan, to Miss Margaret Scott, of Dergin, near Ballyfusbridge; the most tragic of recent fatal victories at Henric's Alber, are little short of one hundred and forty years old.—In Peter's Church, Dublin, John Short, of P. W. Co., Tipperary, to Margaret Lewis, only sister of Robert Fitzgerald, Esq., of Millmount, Queen's Co.

DEATH.—At his Lodge, Bay View, near Tralee, on Tuesday evening, James Connor, Esq., for many years an eminent Attorney, and County Clerk of the Peace for the Co. Kerry; a Gentleman, whose death is a source of incalculable loss, and bitter grief to an estimable and numerous young family, consisting of ten children, of whom he was the affectionate, and for years back the only surviving parent.—
On the 1st at Bath, Dr. Son Sennott, of Great House, Liverpool; he was married a few months since to his third wife.—At Abbeyview, near Tiverton, James Graves, Esq., M. D., son of the late A. Graves, Esq., of said place.— At Rockford, near Cadsden, Mrs. Davis, aged 84.—In Cork, Miss Margaret Hayes.—At Sycoville, Co. Cavan, William Sear, Esq., aged 81, one of the oldest Lieutenants in His Majesty's service.—At Roneyde, near Arklow, of the gout in his stomach, Colonel Christmas.—At Cira, King's County, John Farren, Esq., late Assistant-Surgeon of the Armagh Militia.—Saleney, at Harristown, Queen's Co., G. Scott, Esq., a Magistrate of that County.—Of fever, aged seventeen, Alice Anne, daughter of William Baldwin, Esq., of Nelson-Poor, near Bandon.—In Clonmel, the wife of Mr.
Hill Harvey.—At Douglas, Isle of Man, Captain John Hyde
Brown, late of the 54th Regiment.—Captain George Jackson, R. N.—At Whitehall, London, Martha, wife of Frederick Walker, Esq.—At Kilkenny, Dr. Walker.— At Draxton, Oxfordshire, Miss Betty Chamberlayne, daughter of the late Sir James Chamberlayne, Bart.—The Rev. Edward Purvis, Rector of Stapleton, Salop.—At Duncorp, in the East Indies, Captain Peter Young, 12th Native
Infantry.—At Penny-Hill, near Loalon, the wife of John Conner, jun., Esq.—George Bulleigh, Esq., second son of W. D. Bulleigh, Esq., of Barking-in-Street, Dublin.—In Roscrea, Elizabeth, widow of the late Mr. John Weston, of the Society of Friends.—In Cavan, Mr. Owen Colvin.

THE MARKETS.

No alteration in our Markets. Wheat in little

ACRES.

MILTON'S MAIL

MATTIE

TAKES leave, respectfully, to avert the ensuing season, as alet the house

It is BRODERICK'S intent, as MILLTOWN, with all its natural beauty to attract, if its Hotel not affording of this, BRODERICK has made such attention, cannot fail to render the all Kingdom.

A considerable reduction in the
The Hotel will be ready for the race
The business of BRODERICK'S under the superintendance of his Son.
The character this House has obtained need comment.

FRIENDLY BROTHERS.

THE LIMERICK PRINCIPAL.

WILL MEET AT SPINNERS,

On FRIDAY next, the 4th JUNE, at half-past

8. P. P. R. & L. C.

May 29.

A D A R E.

A FULL MEETING of the Gentlemen in A preserving the FISH in the RIVER ARA represented at the River-Race, A.R.A., on FRIDAY, the 4th JUNE, at 14 o'clock.

NEW MILLINERY DRESSES,

J. O'FLANAGAN.

R EPECTFULLY informs the Ladies, of from Dublin, with a New and Complete of Fashionable Goods, Leghorn and Fox Stays, Bonnets, French hats, Bonnet-strings, &c., Flowers, &c. &c.

TO BE LET,

At immediate possession given

THE HOUSE AND DEMESNE OF

ELM PARK.

Any number of ACRES will be let with the the accommodation of a Tenant.

Application to LADY CLARINA, Limerick.
The Steward will show the premises.

May 29.

KILRUSH.

TO BE LET FOR EVER SEVERAL LOTS OF VACANT BUILDING GROUNDS,

On the Banks of the Shannon

Within five minutes walk of the Hot Baths.

At 2s. 6d. British per Foot, frontage

With a Rise of about 200 Feet to the rear.

Application to JOHN LEWIS, Esq.,

Kilrush.—If by Letter, Post-paid.

ARRIVALS FROM FRANCE.

D. BATTED DAY.