

The 6th Dragoon Guards marched for their headquarters, at York; the Yorkshire Hussars, and in the district, they are to be reviewed by us.

The heavy baggage of the 10th Hussars at Parnall Barracks, near Dublin. Regiment is expected in about a fortnight the 6th or Enniskillen Dragoons island.

material alteration, in an economical view, will take place in the S. in month.

ence, at St Margaret's near Rochester, and up in the most complete and suitable the reception of those unfortunate belonging to the Army, who are afflicted with it. A number of patients of the foregoing description were last week removed from Southam.

appear that something serious is in- wards half-pay officers who may have service of foreign powers, from the regular, addressed to Army Agents:—

“War Office, May 25, 1819.
I have to desire that you will transmit to the War, with the least possible delay, a list of all half-pay officers, whether on half-pay or in their respective ranks, who may be now in the service of any foreign Power.”

I am Sir, &c.
(Signed) “W. HENRY.”

Warren, Esq. is appointed Attorney General for the Prince Regent.

It is reported that a meeting of the parishioners of St. Michael's, is to take place at the Corn Exchange, on Monday next, at two o'clock, for the consideration several matters connected with the interests of the parish, and to enquire into the propriety of suggesting to the proper quarter, the most effectual means of accomplishing a reduction of the present heavy provincial taxes—a reduction which is required by the state of the times.

Mr. W. Youghal have presented an address to the Rev. William Hanoran, regretting his appointment as Curate of that parish.

A public place having been taken for a Theatre, in Grattan street, Cork. The Linen Markets are in future to be held there at the temporary Hall, which had been in Perry Street.

Messrs. Burnes have advertised their establishments on the Limerick, Galway, and Westport roads, for sale.

Mr. M. Matteson, with convicts from the gaols in Ireland, sailed on Saturday for Botany Bay.

Mr. Anne, from this port, with present-ment, put into Crookhaven last week.

Mr. Collins, Lisbon, general agent, arrived at Cove on Sunday.

It is reported that the operations of the Fishing boats on the river, are likely to receive no farther extension—On the return of the Smacks to Branford, after the attack made on them by the privateers, they were, as we stated, armed by the order of Major Warburton's police, from each vessel having six men on board, and ordered to their work, without any appre-

1000 lbs. of wine, Martin O'Connell—Full, M. P. Glasgow, 420 lbs. out, John M. Neill & Co. 400 lbs. out, James Donnan—Commerce, B. Iron, London, 1248 barrels out, Richard Nugent.

COMMISSIONS.—By Rev. R. Dickson, Elizabeth Donnan, for having administered a delinquent drug in a case to James Donnan.—By C. D. Oliver, Esq. John Dugan, for burglary and robbery.—By Gregory Massey, Esq. John Bourke for forgery.—To the City Gaol, By Alderman Marrett, Cornelius Harrington, for pig-stealing, Ann Egan, and Mary O'Connell for forgery.—By Alderman Watson, Bridget Carr, otherwise Murphy, for stealing yarn.

BIRTH.—At Castle-Lake, Co. Clare, the Lady of Captain John Gabbett, of a son and heir.—At Shannon-Lodge, in this Co. the Lady of Edward Lloyd, jun. Esq. of a daughter.—At Paradise, Co. Clare, the Lady of John Scott, Esq. of a son.—At Ferris, the Lady of Lieut. Anderson French, 40th Regiment, of a son.—At Leeds, the Lady of Major Lynch, 65th Regiment, of a daughter.—At Newry, the Lady of Major Hamilton, Inspecting Field Officer of the Northern District, of a son.—Last night, in George's-street, the Lady of the Rev. William Henry Stackpole of a daughter.

MARRIED.—In Dublin, Thomas Martin, Esq. of Aughter, Co. Tyrone, Attorney, to Miss McCarty, of William-street.—William Coyne, Esq. of Louisa, to Anne, eldest daughter of Robert Reilly, Esq. of Miesnowa County Meath.—John Cunniff, Esq. of Rathnure, County Meath, to Maria, daughter of John Edward Fogarty, Esq. of Drogheda.—At Enniscorthy, Captain Sir Thomas Staines, Royal Navy, to Sarah, daughter of Robert Tournay Bargrave, Esq.—Francis Hutchinson Synges, second son of the late Sir Robert Synges, Bart. to Mary Anne, daughter of John Paget, Esq. Newbury House, Somersetshire.—At Castletown, Co. Cork, Mr. John Sullivan, of Ballycosherra, aged 72, to Miss Lander, aged 16 years.

DIED.—In Gardiner's-place, Dublin, Mrs. Browne, relict of Nicholas Browne, Esq.—At Kilmacanogue, most sincerely and deservedly regretted, Doctor Gaynor, brother of Mr. Gaynor, of this City.—Mr. Thomas Wall, late of Francis-street, Dublin, an eminent builder.—At Cove, Lieut. J. O'Brien, R. N.—On Friday last, at Ballycabane, in this County, William Molony, Esq.; a man of unblemished character.—In London, the relict of the late Rev. John Smith, Rector of Alexton, Leicestershire—Major John Hutton, late of the 25th Light Dragoons.—In Edinburgh, Doctor L. Watt, of Jamieson.—On his passage from Bengal to the Cape of Good Hope, Captain Donald Macleod, Bengal Artillery.—At Lettish, Lieut. Hill Christie.—At Lisbon, Captain Nicholas Pocock, of the Packet service—Lauretta, wife of Captain Thomas Finlay, of Canton-place, London.—At the Royal Military College, Janet, wife of Colonel Butler, the Lieutenant-Governor.—In Edinburgh, the Countess of Buchan.—At Upper Edmonton, aged 84, the relict of the Rev. David Lloyd.—In London, Norris John Wodehouse, Esq. eldest son of the Hon. Colonel Wodehouse.—At Bidport, Anne, daughter of the late John Wodehouse, Esq. of Montreal.—On a short illness, at his large, comfortable, near Kanturk, on Saturday last, Richard Horne, Esq. jun. much respected.—On Sunday, in Rutland-street, Mary, eldest daughter of Henry Watson, a widow of the most endearing and interesting manners.—At Margipore, Bengal, Lieutenant Colonel Hugh Barlett—Hugh Keely, of the Hon. East India Company's service.—In London, Mr. William Miller, of the Theatre Royal.—At Paris, aged 58, the relict of the late General the Right Hon. Sir W. Augustus Pitt, K. B. and sister to Earl Howe.—At Lisbon, Eliza, wife of Samuel Shirley, Esq.—At Glasgow, the widow of the late Sir Humphrey Campbell.—At 5th, returning from India, Charles Lowry, Esq. Ensign 47th regt.—In John Street, on Saturday, after a tedious illness, Mrs. Sarah Worrell, wife of Mr. John Worrell.—In India, Captain Gethin, 72d Regiment.—At the house of James Payne, Esq. at Maidenhead, of a fit of apoplexy, James Brant, Esq. of Ditton-House, Pinkney's-Green.

Limerick Market Prices same as last.

London Corn Exchange, May 27.

Our market was very bare of English Wheat this morning, not having had any fresh supply since Wednesday; and the little that was on show met ready sale, at an advance of 1s. per quarter for prime samples, but there was no amendment in the inferior qualities. Fine fresh Oats fully support the prices of Wednesday. In Barley, Beans, and Peas, there is no alteration.

Tuesday Wheat fell full 4s. per quarter in Leeds Market, and other kinds of Grain in proportion.
Price of Butter in Cork on Monday.

THE BALLYRICKARD
BALLYRICKARD
Containing about 50 Acres of Well sheltered and fertile Turf Garden and Orchard, and Fruit excellent plants of various and cultivated Bogs near the BALLYRICKARD is situated in a kine, and six from Newry, in a fine
and good neighbourhood.
Proposals, in writing, to be FALKNER, Esq.

COUNTY OF LIME TO BE LET
For Six Months from (Subject to redemption)
All that and those, that part of BOSKILL
Together with the Dwelling-belonging.
Containing 1000 Or.
As late in the possession of Mr. W. H.
Situate near to Cahoon Proposals will be received by Esq. Boskill, who will declare the Terms to be made.

NOTICE.
TO BE SOLD BY AUCTION, on
the 5th of June, at Ballymore, rick, for his keeping and other purposes
but HORSE, which has been in the Boswell, of Tower Hill, County of November, 1819, found straying at rick of Cappamore, and not since claimed.
The King, at the Prosecution of Esq. against George M.
A Conditional Order for a Criminal has been obtained in this case, the Boswell, and Mr. Massey having against some time, the Court Order absolute, and of course the
Mr. Massey.

DIRECT FOR MIRAM
NEW BRUNSWICK
The New Bag MAIL
OF LIVERPOOL
Stand A. I. at Lloyd's.—For Freight of good accommodation, apply
Messrs. MULLOCK and
The Master on board, or at W. M. RYAN and Deal Yard, next the new RYAN, and CO. have just landed per ston, Christian Berg, Master, from Am-Timber and Deals, which, with a good Pine Timber, Plank, Board Deals, Spars, disposed of on moderate terms.
The complement of Passengers being number, allowed by law, as early as needed.
N. B.—The Brig Maria will positively of June.

COUNTY LIMERICK
Timothy McCoy
Custodie,
Plaintiff,
Anselm Taylor,
Defendant.
WHEREAS
this was 25th May 1819, Remembrance is public Court, to the Bailor, the Dwelling mesne Lands of LISREADY, also the paid by Thomas Nowlan, containing ab-in Custodie, in this Cause, situated LIMERICK, for Three Years from instant, if the Plaintiff's Interest shall