

...the mast, first ascertaining
 ...into the river, she then filled
 ...mained in the hold—all the ...boat—there was a small
 ...out, but does not know
 ...boat or not—the Wall's
 ...me, when they first returned
 ...of Calicut, in about ...the robbery in the boat, and
 ...did not at that time
 ...ade no information of
 ...one, 1818. He also told
 ...of his own accord.
 ...the Court, he stated that
 ...his life, about four years
 ...Patterson's boat of Kilmore,
 ...ed—the reason he did not
 ...was that he had some
 ...y, but wished to see what
 ...house—the reason O'Donnell
 ...witness was, as he supposes,
 ...The Court "The fact is, they ...did not return, which was
 ...gave information before
 ...the murder—it was when he ...heard of the charge first—
 ...away from the Pealers, as ...brought to Limerick to
 ...at Askaton, knows the
 ...Shannon, found an
 ...there.
 ...but this is for the purpose
 ...to those articles, of M'Namara,
 ...the murder—therefore the
 ...the two men at the bar were
 ...—In a Magistrate of the County
 ...ners, they lived upon his land,
 ...golden—went to their
 ...but got out at the
 ...ere there also, whom
 ...in pursuit of the others,
 ...cess—returned to
 ...a brace of pistols,
 ...their father was dead—
 ...which were identified
 ...neighbourhood of
 ...proved his having
 ...knew them from
 ...them had the mark
 ...is a Magistrate of the County
 ...was upon the look
 ...ation relative to
 ...came to him
 ...of the boat, and
 ...of it, to
 ...at any
 ...had no charge
 ...ed on the part of the
 ...of Dun
 ...a bad character of
 ...that that was
 ...of himself,—this
 ...late robberies, he
 ...character of the
 ...rged the Jury, describing
 ...and aggravated
 ...description of
 ...satisfy themselves
 ...fore they pronounced
 ...place upon a
 ...ator was the witness—
 ...the evidence, they
 ...M'Namara took no
 ...witness, and his
 ...nd remained for half
 ...ance of M'Namara,
 ...ck upon the boat
 ...knew Parker's
 ...The Jury then
 ...having been
 ...his assertion of the female—in Baggin-street, Dublin, the Lady of Francis Dimontin, Esq. of a daughter—At Lismore, Co. Clare, the Lady of Thomas Whetstone, Esq. of a son and heir—The Lady of Charles Fraser, Esq. of Monasteres, of a son—

 At Killybegs-Castle, Lady Campbell, of a son—In London, the Lady of J. H. Tremaine, Esq. M. P. of a son—The Lady of Colonel Hay, of Winsterton, of a son—In London, the Lady of Lieut. Colonel McLeod, 1st Foot, of a son—In London, the Lady of John Douglas, Esq. of Lockerby, of a daughter—In London, the Lady of the Hon. M. Clifford, of a son and heir—the Lady of Doctor McLean, of a daughter—At Carrigmore, Co. Cork, the Lady of Sir Anthony Perrier, of a son.—The Lady of Robert S. Carew, Esq. M. P. Co. Wexford, of a son—At his seat, Holly-cross, the Lady of Rev. Wm. Lloyd, of a daughter.

MARRIED—John Bagwell, of Kilmore, Co. Tipperary, Esq. to Anne, second daughter of the late Edward Taylor, of Nones, Esq.—John Henry, of Richardstown, Co. Louth, Esq.
 to Anne, only daughter of Alderman Leland, of Drogheda—William John McGuire, Esq. of Rutland-square, Dublin, to Eliza, daughter of the late Henry McKenzie, Esq.—Harry William Haynes, Esq. Landing Surveyor of the Customs at Portsmouth, to Miss Clifford—At Kilmurcock, the Rev.
 Robert Stirling, to Jane, daughter of Mr. William Mankin, Postmaster there—At Edinburgh, Major Orr, of the Royal Fusiliers, to Sarah, daughter of the late Speaker Boyd, Esq.
 of Pinkill, Ayrshire—James Haldane Tait, Esq. Captain R. N. to Stewart, youngest daughter of the late Rev. Robert Cunningham, of Balgownie—At Coventry, Mr. Wylett, Comedian, to Miss Harriet Cooke, of the Bath Theatre—At Paisley, Deputy Assistant Commissary-General J. Paterson, to Miss Eliza Miller—In London, Captain Light, of the Royal Artillery, to Charlotte, daughter of Richard Parry, Esq. of Warfield, Berks—At Ashton Clinton, Thomas T.
 Bernard, third son of Sir Ercop Bernard Mosland, Bart. to Sophia, daughter of Sir David Williams, Bart.—At Bath, Henry Morgan, to Eliza, daughter of the late Lieutenant Colonel Sharp—Lieutenant W. B. O. Mowckton, 60th regt. of Ballingarry, in this County, to Mariame, daughter of the Rev. John Vause, of Liverpool, with a considerable property—On Saturday, at Fanelohs, Co. Cork, Mr. W.
 McQuinn, of Dunmanway, to Frances, daughter of Mr.
 William Norwood, of Ballyhalwick, in that County.

DIED—At Breatwood, Essex, Henry Bond, Esq. brother of the late Mr. Serjeant Bond—At Seaton-House, Hannah Charlotte Georgina, daughter of Lord James Hay—The Rev. Doctor James Nairne, of Claremont—At Milnaborth, the Rev. Andrew Imrie—Lieut. Isaac, 12th Lancers—In Cork, Lieut. Daniel Egan, of the City Cork Militia—At the Sea House, Clogher, on Tuesday last, after a short illness, the Rev. John Porter, D. D. M. R. I. A. Lord Bishop of that Diocese, to which he was translated in 1798, from the Bishoprick of Killala: he was consecrated in 1795—At Woodstock, Co. Mayo, the relict of Michael Brown, Esq.— Doctor Henry, of Castlepollard—At Clibest, Co. Wexford, Dr. Waddy—In Sackville-street, Dublin, James Hunt, Esq.
 State Apothecary—Suddenly, in Patrick-street, Mr. Patrick O'Halloran, of Pass, Co. Clare—Richard Fleming, Esq.
 aged 23, third son of William Fleming, Esq. of Abbeyville, Co. Sligo—In Bath, William Savage, Esq. of Midsummer, Somersetshire—At Mahan's Hotel, Loughrea, sincerely and most deservedly lamented, after a short illness, on the evening of Thursday last, in the 42d year of his age, the Rev. Christopher Jones, A. B. Rector and Vicar of Longren, and Vicar of the Parishes of Killeskill, Kilrickill, and Killadeema, in the Diocese of Clonsfert, and County of Galway. His eminent piety to God, justice and benevolence to man, and charity to the poor, render his loss inestimable. By his death, his brother succeeds to his large estates in the County of Fernanagh, and the Earl of Clarickards to the disposal of his valuable Benefices; but the poor of his vicinity will long lament a benefactor, and the Gentry of that neighbourhood a Divine who blended the dignity of a pastor with the candour of a friend—At Birr, in the King's County, aged 62, John O'Dogherty, Esq. M. D. very sincere and deservedly lamented—In Dublin, the daughter of James Trail Hall, Esq.—On Tuesday, in George's-street, Bessy, daughter of Mr. John Bizley—At Holyrood House, Miss Murray, daughter of the late Hon. and Rev. Dean
 Murray, of Killaloe—Suddenly, at the Marshalsea, London, General Von Escher, a Frenchman, who had served under Bonaparte—William Bertram, Esq. of Nisbet—Miss Helen Wright, only daughter of the late Dr. Wright, of Glasgow—
 At Dover, Mrs. McDonald, wife of Major McDonald, Paymaster of Detachments—At Doubig, Mrs. Taylor, aged 77.—In consequence of a kick from his horse, Robert Seward, Esq. of Ballinacurrig, County Cork.

WM. WILSON,
 NO. 3, GEORGE'S-STREET,
HAS now a complete Assortment of these SEEDS for the present Season, viz. TURNIP, CABBAGE, CAULIFLOWER, LETTUCE, SPINACH, ONION,
 &c. &c. Among the latter are the Red and White Turnip and Yellow Aberdeen.
 The best season for transplanting EVERGREENS is nearly arrived. A NEW NOVELTY on the ROXBOROUGH Road, he has to say, exhibits a large assortment of delightful SHRUBS, all in a state of high cultivation.
 Limerick, August

INSOLVENT'S SALE
OF PLAIN and FANCY ROBES, Silk Shawls,
 India Silk Pocket Handkerchiefs, French Gu
 Book Muslin, Jackenett ditto, a variety of Shawls Handkerchiefs, a Description of the Battle of Water with all the Plates, Proof Impressions; two Atlases Portfolio for Music or Plates, with an Assortment of useful Articles.
 The Ladies and Gentlemen of Limerick are respect informed that there will be an AUCTION of the Articles on FRIDAY and SATURDAY next, the 6th 7th, at No. 19 Patrick-street, corner of Denmark-st which Sale will be well worth attention, as every art of the best description, and no reserve.
 JOHN COOKE, Auctioneer
 Dublin, August 2. 26, Parliament-street

J. M. HARVEY
AND SONS,
OFFER FOR SALE,
 3 Pipes } London Particular MADEIRA WINE
 4 Hds. }
 32 Hds. good and middling TOBACCOES.
 130,000 American BARKEL STAVES.
 400,000 WOOD HOOPS.
 104 Casks COD OIL.
 53 Ditto BLUBBER.
 56 Tons CHEPSTON COPPER BARK.
 14 Bags } Kent and Essex HOPS.
 30 Pockets }
 300 Barrels SCOTCH HERRINGS.
 200 Ditto English Ditto.
 18 Barrels 1st quality NEW-YORK POT ASH
 60 Pipes JERSEY CHEER.
 12 Bags ROUGH SALT STRE.
 2 Boxes low priced BLEACHED LINENS.
 60 Tons NEWCASTLE COALS.
 400 Ditto ORRELL Ditto.
 100 Ditto LYDNEY Ditto.
 50 Chests MESSINA LEMONS,
 Also, a Half Share in the Water-House, of North daily expected from Memel.
 Limerick, 4th of 8th Month,

ASSIZES BALL,
 On Friday next, the 6th of August.
 THERE WILL BE A
GRAND BALL
 AT SWINBURN'S ROOMS,
 GEORGE'S STREET,
 ON THE ABOVE NIGHT.
 Admission 5s.
 Tea and Coffee included, and the Rooms light
 Wax. Limerick, Aug

THEATRE ROYAL.
ON THURSDAY EVENING NE
 By permission of the Right Worshipful GABBETT, Esq. Mayor.
 WILL BE PRESENTED FOR CHARITY BY
 Gentlemen of the Messianic Socie
 The much Admired Piece of
THE POOR GENTLEMAN, WITH THE FARCE OF
SPRIGS OF LAUREL.
 Limerick