Melancholy Death of Captain Stafford 23th ...
... Regiment at Gibraltar.—This gallant officer was ...
... descending a very narrow and dangerous passage ...
... from Wind-Mill Hill to Europa Flats, when he ...
... fell down a precipice, and was killed on the spot.— ...
... A rope was used for descending this passage by the ...
... officers, which was chafed by rubbing a sharp ...
... point of the rock. When Captain Stafford laid ...
... hold of the rope it gave way, and he was precipi- ...
... tated more than forty feet; the rope was found in ...
... his hand clenched. He has left a widow and six ...
... children to deplore his loss; a subscription was set ...
... on foot for his family, who are entirely destitute.— ...
... Captain Stafford was for many years on the recruit- ...
... ing service in this City, and was much respected.
