On Sunday, an inquest was held by the Mayor on the body of Thomas Daneher, who died the previous day in the County Hospital, of a violent beating he received a week since. The deceased was coachman to Robert Maunsell, Esq. and having gone to a public-house to drink with some workmen (masons,) were met by others of the same profession, who considered those in the deceased's company as colts, with whom a dispute occurred, and subsequently some strokes were given, when he interfered, and received a blow of a large hammer in the head, which caused several fractures in his skull. Verdict—"Willful Murder."

On Sunday last, a youth of the name of John Locke, with a few others, went on the lands of Ballynanty, in the North Liberties of this City, to pick haws—having come to a ditch which bounded an orchard, the owner, conceiving them to be stealing apples, flung a stone, which struck Locke in the head, and fractured his skull, from which four pieces have been taken by the Surgeons in the County Hospital, where he now lies with very little hope of recovery.
