

RANSACKS AT GLASGOW.

September 14.—The meeting on Saturday, Messrs' Muir, went peacefully off, and the spectators all left the ground in good order. Several persons from Glasgow, in returning were stopped by the Constables and deprived of their hats; and in a state of things so much soon collected, windows were broken, and the military were ordered from the Magistrates, in going to Church, and the populace; and in the evening the work of the riot was resumed, and other enormities were was read thrice before 9 o'clock; and the ring the streets, were at one time seriously persons who had armed themselves with bars of the railing in front of a Church. On Monday continued crowded; and the authorities having enforcement of troops, read the Riot Act at the afternoon; and about 5, the crowd were the soldiers, with the least possible injury, to Every thing continued quiet this morning. Things could not fail to awake interest in a pretty general rioting commenced last number of lamps and windows were broken, as of the peace practiced. The perpetrators the same persons who figured so much on, seizing every occasion of mischief, whether by a regard for royalty or radical reform. The Riot Act was read by the Magistrates Ball Inn, and the military immediately drove the people from the Streets.

out in a Millwright's-shop, but was soon Several of the military, by the throwing of opposite new building were much annoyed of the inhabitants received slight sabre mob threw a fence of tresses and masons the street, while the fire was burning, so as to and firemen from advancing. of Ordnance, a body of Infantry, (the 80th Regiment of Hussars) were speedily brought out. ses were completely ransacked of their contents demolished.—The destruction of the ed to be an object of the rioters. the customary peace was restored; and this is no appearance of outrage.

stone of a Primitive Wesleyan Prech- was laid in Bandon on Tuesday last. he built in Youghal, will be opened for worship on Sunday next.

lay night last a fat cow the property of m Kenny, was stolen from off the lands y, County Clare, by a woman named O'Loughlin, and driven to this city, as disposed of on the following evening, for value. On Tuesday morning, after e exertions, one of Mr. Kenny's men, Mr. Murphy, High Constable, suc- discovering the hide in the possession of chant, which led to the knowledge of the ro purchased the cow, and also of the is now in Jail.

cutter-rigged vessel, clinker built. of onsburden, laden with smuggled tobacco and having also on board about two dozen gin, was made prize of on Friday even- Bonmahon, County Waterford, after abandoned by her crew, by the Passage

BIRTH—At Castletown, Isle of Man, the Lady of Major Reid, 71st Regiment, of a daughter—In London, the Lady of Admiral Sir Charles Rowley, of a daughter—At Melton Mowbray, Lady Elizabeth Norman, of a son—In London, the Lady of George Watson Taylor, Esq. M. P. of a son—The Hon. Mrs. Kilvington, of a daughter—At Tarbert, the Lady of Lieut. Graham, 77th Regiment, of a son—In Fitzwilliam-square, Dublin, Mrs. Samuel Pittar, of a daughter—At Dunnotar, Scotland, Lady Kennedy, of a son.—On Thursday, at her mother's house, in Harstonge-street, the Lady of Captain Grey, 12th Regiment, of a son.

MARRIED—On Wednesday, at Fimoe Church, County Tipperary, by the Rev. Thomas McCulloch, Major Cassan, of Sheffield, Queen's County, to Miss Head, daughter of the late John Head, Esq. of Ashley-Park, Co. Tipperary—On Thursday morning, in St. Peter's Church, Dublin, by the Rev. Peter Roe, Richard Shirley Going, Esq. of Bird-hill, Co. Tipperary, son of the Rev. John Going, to Wilhelmina, third daughter of the late Doctor Roe, of Dublin—At Skibbereen Church, James Collins, Esq. to Miss Galway, of Doneraile—At Cheltenham, Oliver Dowell John Grace, Esq. of Mantua, Co. Roscommon, to Miss Nagle, daughter of Sir Richard Nagle, Bart. of Jamestown, Co. Westmeath—Luke White Whitestone, Esq. of the Royal College of Surgeons, to Eliza Anne, daughter of the late George Berkeley Madden, of Magherafelt, Esq.—The Rev. Henry Watson Barnard, Vicar of Pitton, Somerset, to Eleanor, daughter of the late Major Thomas Clerk, of Westholme-House—The Rev. John Harrison, of the Diocesan School, Neas, to Anne, daughter of Surgeon Chareton, R. A.—In Dublin, James Duncan, Esq. of Argyleshire, to Miss Priscilla Shaw, cousin to Robert Shaw, Esq. M. P.—At Cambridge, the Rev. Ed. Peacock, to Miss Anne Mansell, daughter of the Bishop of Bristol—At Aldborough, Suffolk, Warren Mercer, Esq. of Trinity College, to Sarah, daughter of Robert Butcher, Esq. of Upland Grove, near Bungay—At Lea Church, Hans Hendrick, Esq. second son of Thomas Hendrick, Esq. of Portarlinton, to Mary Anne, eldest daughter of the late Sir Erasmus Dixon Burrowes, Bart.

DIED—At Beaumont, near Drogheda, Mrs. St. Leger Palmer—At Fort-Point, Co. Wexford, Robert Wallace, Esq. Surveyor—At Kilworth, the wife of Edward Whiteford, Esq.—Miss Jane Fowler, of Baggot-street, Dublin—Lady Ramsay, of Balmain—At Bristol, Harriet, wife of the Rev. John Eagles, and daughter of the late Major King, of the 6th Dragoon Guards—The Rev. Mr. Marriot, Rector of Broadway—John Atkinson, Esq. Mayor of Salisbury, aged 26. He presided at the Sessions, and returned from shooting but two days preceding his death. A cold that he caught was aided in its effects by his drinking a quantity of cold milk when he was warm; an inflammation followed, and in forty-eight hours he was a corpse!—On Saturday last, at her son's house, Merchant's-quay, Dublin, at an advanced age, Mrs. Elizabeth Minnett, much and deservedly regretted by all who knew her. She was connected with many highly respectable families in the Co. Tipperary—At Bullingate, Co. Wicklow, Major Trendy, E. I. Co's. Service—In Dublin, Mr. John Lyons, of Golden-lane—In Paris, of an apoplectic fit, Chevalier Moncey, brother to the Marshal of that name—In Edinburgh, the wife of Sir Thomas Cockrane, R. N.—In London, suddenly, Mr. Simms, Comedian—At Rosscarbery, Mr. Michael Duly; his death was occasioned by drinking a quantity of Rum on board a West India Vessel, lately stranded there; he had fallen into the water, and was induced to take a small quantity of the liquor to keep him from cold, but having got thirsty he went to a kettle which contained rum, and supposing it to be water, drank so plentifully that he in a very short time expired—Last night, at Thomond-gate, Thomas, son of Mr. Mat. Kenny.

THE MARKETS.

Market prices this day.—Wheat from 1s. 5d. to 1s. 8d. per stone.—Oats 9d. to 10d. per stone—Barley 11d. to 12d. per stone—Flour 22s to 24s per cwt—Potatoes 3d. to 3½d. per stone—Marrowed 20s. per barrel—Beef 5½d. per lb.—

FRESH ARRIVAL OF TEAS, SUGARS, WINES, SPICES, PICKLES,

AT NO. 11, PATRICK-STREET

T. M' MAHON

HAS NOW ON SALE A great variety of every Article of GROCERY, TEA, WINE, AND TRADE,

OF USUAL GOOD QUALITY And at very reduced Prices in order to respectfully submit the Articles to the Public, and pledges himself that any be favoured with, shall meet every possible

TEAS, Of the first character, selected with the greatest care in Lead Packages, or otherwise, from 3 lb. at the rate of the Chart.

SUGARS. Very Bright, Fine, Middling, and Brown Single, Refined, and Common Lump ditto, Loaves.

WINES. Red and White Wines, in general, among 150 Dozen very superior CAPE MAL demand and much approved of at 30s. per according to quantity; a single Bottle 2s. OLD PORT, four years old, at 2 Guineas same Wines are in Standard and Bottles.

SPIRITS. Fine Old Cork Whiskey, full strength, 12 Fire Gallons at 12s. 3d. This Establishment for the Sale of Housekeeper's Gin, Rum, Brandy, and other Rectified

SUNDRIES A fresh Parcel of New Pickles and every kind; Real PICKLING VINE Gallon, engaged, and in Bottles at 1s. Gloucester Cheese; NEW KENT HOPS, a superfine New Mustard; Cotton and New Rice; French and Pearl Barleys; Oil; Treacle; Bath Brick; Whiting; New Boiling Peas; Pot. and Pearl Housekeeper's Surch and Blue; with Dye-Staffs, &c. &c. &c.

BOTTLED CIDER, PORT, ALE VAULTS

Over 400 Dozen best Irish and English quality, at 5s. per Dozen, or in Half Dozen each, at 4s. 6d. per Dozen;