

and on Friday night two sheep were en from Mr. Daniel O'Brien's ground, at leommon.

On Sunday afternoon, several Kerry labourers re beaten in the Irishtown of Clonmel, as well ome other labourers, under the pretext that they re strangers, or worked below the accustomed ees. Such conduct we must reprehend as illegal illiberal; it is but fair to render justice even the error of the offenders, in saying, that in aulking these poor industrious creatures, no el weapon was used, nor serious injury inflicted. wever, a sufficient force was attentively placed the Magistrates at the scene of this disorder, igh remained there to preserve the peace till e in the evening. It is remarkable that a similar ck was made upon the same description of pers in this City on Sunday evening last.

Wednesday, John Kenny, the principal of a ng of Forged Note Manufacturers in Cork, was ested on the Parade, by Mr. Sheriff Atkins, Mr. Rogers, High Constable; and in a short e after, Messrs. Rogers and Hewson arrested an Hunter, in whose possession a dye and the essary implements for coining halfpence were nd; both have been lodged in gaol.

Three men are lodged in Cavan Jail for rescua loaded car which was seized by the constable, appearing in the street on the Sabbath.

The Wexford Herald of Monday says, that the r persons who survived the disastrous shipwreck the Tiger, Thomas Smith, mentioned in our Paper, are, John Matthews, a man of our, Charles Hennan, John Taylor, and Charles ey. It makes the total number lost thirty, uding the Captain and a female. It says that only of the bodies had been found; that one them had been recognised to be G. H. Pile, a ng gentleman who was proceeding to London complete his education, and that the other was a of the name of Douglas.
