DEAR SIR,
I should feel myself wanting not only gratitude, were I not to take an early opportu-ing my warmest thanks to you and the other ble Tenantry of the Tarbert Estate, who enough to approve of my conduct while dis-duties of Land Agent of that Estate, so regretted Landlord Sir EDWARD LESLIE To merit the approbation of an entire Ten-enable them and the Proprietor to feel satisother, might perhaps be considered a task not from difficulty, but the Manor of Tarbert is a and an anxious endeavour to meet their eng-fidelity, on the other. Such a disposition bet-and Tenant, left the Agent scarcely, if at the praise bestowed on him. I can not, how-of its value; on the contrary, I highly never cease to do my utmost to render myself and still perhaps be serviceable to many of to Colonel and Mrs. HALLYBURTON, who
