

verdict of Guilty. Not a murmur amense crowd assembled when the announced. While the Jury was their verdict, the defendant had ourt. but, shortly after it was rerant was granted against him, and nto custody at his own residence.— orning he was again placed on his ctment instituted by the Society for n of Vice. The indictment was blasphemous work, entitled, " Prine; or a Development of the Moral ainers and Misery among the Human the course of his defence, he ead some passages from the publica-on, but being informed by the Court dmissible, he brought his defence to the Chief Justice summed up the Jury. without retiring, found the ilty. Carlile signified his intention e Court of King's Bench to set aside and to grant him new trials.

tion of Carlile has caused great conngst Hunt and the Radicals, whose of revolutionary principles are y blasphemous publications being ng Society of Ireland adjudged the niums on Friday last:— lecoote, a Medal and Iron Plough, for Seed Wheat.

s, £25, for the best ten barrels of Seed e Farming Society House before the 15th thorne, Esq. the second premium; and the Dr. Phips, for the best of the prize samples. at 12 o'clock, two fellows attempted e office door of the Royal Exchange lice in George's-street; an alarm given, they made off.

in George's-street, which had been the late Pryce Peacocke, Esq. was on Thursday last, in Dublin, to the Viscount Gort.
ce of the powers vested by the 30th Chap. 30th, the Mayor requests the ers of corn will forthwith qualify, as ts, to prevent the necessity of any edings.

Alderman Watson received a letter port, Tip. Post mark, signed J. G. n Five Guineas, which the unknown onor has requested may be applied for House of Industry.

ins of the Right Hon. the Lady ose death we stated in our last, were erday in the family vault. She died ion-House at Kilboy, on Friday, in youth, after a short, but severe illness, and lamented. Of the most unaffected t unbounded yet unostentatious charity, ment of every duty in the high station was placed, entitled her to this regard her memory will be long revered by s friends, and all those who had the er acquaintance.

ELEGIAC LINES,
e memory of the lamented LADY DUNALLY! s deceitful, and beauty is vain: man that feareth the Lord, shall be praised!" e! in bitter sorrow's song, ls, its clouded darkness hold; e valley Peasants tongue,

Thompson, Wick, Hastings; Hope and Anchor, Bull, Frederickshul, deals.

Exports.—Prince William, Glasgow, 606 brls. oats, Mackay and Langlands—Concord, Greenock, 1535 barrels oats, Timothy Ryan—Oliva, Liverpool, 1112 brls. oats, J. & J. McNamara—True Briton, Greenock, 604 brls. oats, J. & S. Phelps; 911 brls. oats, James Ferguson & Co.; 1125 brls. oats, Spaight & Ewart—Susan, London, 960 firkins butter, T. Ryan; 500 firkins ditto, M. Egan; 300 firkins ditto, William White; 300 firkins ditto, J. & J. McNamara; 62 bales bacon, Reldan & Co.; 2 tons old lead, Joseph Jones.

BIRTH—In Kildare-street, Dublin, the Lady of Holwell Walshe, Esq. of a still-born son—At Killygordcn, County Donegal, the Lady of Major Stewart, of a son—In Cork, the Lady of James Heunessy, Esq. of Ballymacoy, County Cork, of a son and heir—At Clontarf, the Lady of Lieut.
Quillinan, 3d Dragoon Guards, of a daughter—In Lower Mount-street, Dublin, the Lady of Thomas Finlay, Esq. of a son—At Southampton, the Lady of Colonel Ivatt, of a son—At Carharvon, the Lady of Joseph Goldard, Esq. Collector, of a son—At Lochmuleeny, the Lady of Major Horsburgh, of a son—The Lady of Captain James, 2d Dragoons, of a daughter—In London, the Countess of Jersey, of a son—In Whitehall-place, London, Mrs. Arthur Marsh, of a daughter.
In Portman-square, London, the Lady of Justinian Alton, Esq. of Odell Castle, Bedfordshire, of a daughter.

MARRIED—At Prittlewell Church, Lieut.-Colonel Tonson, 84th Regiment, to Anne, daughter of James Vanderzee, of Rochester, Esq.—In London, Captain Kortright, Coldstream Guards, to Sarah, daughter of W. Coesvelt, of Grosvenor-square, Esq.—Lieut. Henry Courtenay, R. N. to Georgiann, daughter of Edward Houlditch, Esq. of the Nunnery, Sursex —In Warwickshire, Sir F. B. Hill, to Emily, daughter of the late T. J. Powys, Esq. of Berwick House, Shrewsbury—At Bath, Henry A. Drummond, Esq. Commander of the East India ship Castle Huntly, to Maria, daughter of the late Captain William James Turquand, R. N.—At Norwich, John Smith, Esq. to Mrs. Hamond, widow of the late Horace Hamond, Esq.—At Milford Church, Lieut.-Colonel Sir John May, K. C. B. of Woolwich, to Amelia Emma, daughter of Robert Broff, Esq. of Pennington House, near Lymington—In Dublin, Benjamin Smith, Esq. of Ormondquay, to Eliza, daughter of William Barnes, of Edenlerry, Esq.—At Ballina, John Atkinson, Esq. senior Lieutenant 95th Regiment, to the Widow Burgess, late of this City—At Ballynasaulan, Percy Simpson, Esq. to Hester Eliza, eldest daughter of the late Torquid Parks Macneil, Esq. of Mountpleasant.

DIED—At Londonderry, Joseph Curry, Esq. an extensive merchant, and Chamberlain to the Corporation of that City—At Enniskillen, George Nixon, Esq.—Of a fever, aged 63, John Newman, Esq. of Dromore-House, County Cork—At Sandymount, near Dublin, Julia, fourth daughter of the late Admiral Drury—At Rathmines, Mrs. Hawkesworth, relict of the late William Hawkesworth, Esq.—In James's-street, London, Nathaniel Collyer, Esq.—William, brother of the late Admiral Pickmore—At Haute, Gironne, France, Mrs.
P. Turton, widow of the late Lieut.-Colonel Robert Turton, and sister of Warren N. Jackson, Esq. of Castleview, Co.
Cork—At Liverpool, the relict of William Wallace, Esq. merchant—At Middlesex, John Mason Neale, Esq. late of the East India House—At Ayr, the wife of John Aitken, Esq.—At the East India Docks, Blackwall, Captain Edward Foord—At Birmingham, the wife of Thomas G. Logan, Esq.
Surgeon 5th Dragoon Guards—At Vevay, Switzerland, Lord Somerville: his Lordship will be buried in Gloucestershire—At the manse of Trinity Gask, Grace, daughter of the late Rev. Ralph Taylor—At Ashtend, Surrey, George Mostyn, Esq.—At the manse of St. Fergus, the wife of the Rev. Wm.
Anderson—At the Dock-yard, Portsmouth, Captain John Wainwright, C. B. Lieutenant-Governor of the Royal Naval College at that Port, having only entered upon the appointment the 1st of the present month—At Trinton, the eldest son of the late J. Bailey, Esq.—At Cerfu, Robert Edward Stephenson, Esq. late of Bombay—At Kensington, Doctor Spence—Suddenly, while in the act of driving his gig, and within a few yards of his house, Stephen-street, Dublin, James Christian, Esq. many years Clerk of the Peace and Secretary to the Grand Jury of the Co. Sligo—At Grange-ford, Co. Carlow, Mrs. John Thorpe—At Parsonstown, aged 50, of a few hours illness, Colonel Jeremiah French—On Sunday, at his house, Clare-street, in an advanced age, Mr.
Thomas Fowles; a Gentleman whose memory will long be held in esteem by those who have a respect for strict honesty and integrity: a parent the most affectionate, and a friend the most disinterested—In Cork, the wife of Alderman Dunus—In said City, aged 75, Mr. Charles Dickinson—At the Brickfields, Cork, Anne, wife of James Mason, Esq.
Officer of Excise.

AUCTION OF WINE
WILLIAM S. HAMILTON
WILL SELL BY AUCTION
On TUESDAY, the 26th of OCTOBER
At One o'Clock,
At WILLIAM HONE'S Office, Commerce 185 Pipes / SPANISH RED 30 Hhds. $ Of superior q Just landed ex. Clyde. from Ber

WILLIAM S. HAMILTON & Co. Ltd.
Sale, by private Contract, a large Sto CLARET, SHERRY, PENBRIDGE, &c., and Bottle.
And they have this day arrived, per the Liverpool, 43 Hhds. of PATENT REFIN now so much esteemed, and with which they larly and largely supplied. Also, 60 Hhds REFINED SUGAR, of different qualities.
The entire forming an Assortment suited to of those who may favour them with their ord Dublin,

QUARTER SESSION
Co. of the City of Limerick, } AN ADJ to wit } A of the QUARTER
the Peace, for the County of the City of Lin held at the Tholsel of said City, between the and eleven o'clock in the forenoon of MOND day of October instant; of which all Ju Prosecutors, and Traversers; are hereby re notice. Dated this 20th day of October, 181 EDWARD PARKER

N. B. The High Constables are to attend house on the above day, to take the oath, an the 26th inst. the Magistrates will attend for approving of in open Court, proper persons t with the sale of Spirituous and other Liquor and Liberties thereof for the year commencing next.

NOTICE
RESPECTING IN-GATE CU
THE Public are hereby informed, that a of the Chamber of Commerce, the C consented that certain claims made upon Wo bringing in Fowl, Eggs, Butter, and other n quantities, shall not be levied or collected du Year, commencing the 19th of October, for the Corporation have abated £100 out of the the Customs had been Let. And the Public informed that CORRECTED SCHEDULE Gate Customs are posted at each of the Gat ferent Collectors have received strict orders ne persons of any Men, Women, or Children, text of their hiding articles subject to In-Gat And in case any of the Collectors shall a Custom for any article, not specified in th shall search the persons of any Man, Wom is desired that the person aggrieved shall m to the Magistrate, or any of the other Magist not only redress the person aggrieved, but re ber out of the fine which will be levied in tion, for the loss of time in remaining in to complaint. Limer

PREPARING FOR PUBLICA
THE
BEAUTIES OF IRELAND
BEING Original Delineations, topograp and biographical, of each County, numerous Copper-plate Engravings, repr Edifices, Castles, Cathedrals, Parochial Ch for beauty or antiquity of Architecture; Mo Picturesque Scenery, Seats of the Nobili &c. &c. &c. by J. N. BREWER, Esq.
Introductory Volume to "The Beauties Wales," &c.
This Publication is intended to class with of England and Wales," and has been unde the suggestion of numerous persons who ju description of the Sister Island an indispen that Work.
The BEAUTIES OF IRELAND will Two Volumes, octavo; each Volume to Twelve Monthly Number or Parts.