

... have passed at ...
are billeted on the Inhabitants—Doc-is inspecting the Veterans at Clonmel e noted for service.

Pratt and Lieut. Moore, 18th Royal nded by Surgeon Reed, Carlow Militia.
Carlow, 170 stout Veterans, for service, ay last.

ousand stand of arms are ordered to be in the Ordnance Depot at Athlone, for ran Battalion to be formed at Birr.—
ndred Pensioners were on Thursday and inspected at Athlone.

Following Officers are to have the command
Veteran Battalions, viz. :—Colonels
Leith, Elliott, Mair, Kelso, Mackenzie, Raymond, Douglas, and Needham.— thons in England are already more than ld Edinburgh Volunteers, composed of the most respectable inhabitants, have their services to Government, to do duty, ops are required elsewhere, and withtheir service to be unpaid.

William Gray, and his detachment of have, by the last accounts, penetrated 00 miles of Tombuctoo in the interior of They were in perfect health. The accounts the 30th of August.

Hudson Lowe is not returning from St.

Marquis of Lansdowne arrived in Lon-Wednesday last.

l Caffé, M. P. for Tralee, has arrived on.

d Callaghan, Esq. Member of Parliament alk, left Cork on Thursday to attend his Parliament. W. W. Beecher, Esq. M. P. ow, has also proceeded to London, for the urpose,

ingleton and his bride arrived at his seat, e, yesterday. They were received by erous tenantry with every demonstration

r M'Mahon, after his consecration as r to the Roman Catholic Bishop of Killaloe ancement to the rank of Bishop of Fetz.
ed the Gentry of Ennis, and its neigh-at Stamer's Hotel, on Thursday last.

xcellency the Lord Lieutenant, has been to appoint Major O'Hara, of the Sligo
t, to be Collector of Customs, at the Port

Lord High Chancellor has appointed O'Donnell, C. B. of this City, a Magishe Co. Clare.

respectable County High Sheriff has Meeting of his Bailiwick for Friday
ed Advertisement.

Clare Journal of Monday says—"We ad that a General Police Establishment granted upon the application made from y, and that only upon a Memorial of its a state of disturbance, will any encrease to the present establishment, which is only ed to act in the four baronies proclaimed."

chment of Revenue Police well mounted stationed at Ballina, County Mayo—luskey is selling in that neighbourhood at greetings of welcome and gratitude. On the present occasion, the kindness of our City ought to be peculiarly manifested, and in no better way can it be evinced, than by dis-ting the Box-Sheet speedily.

The Rev. Thomas Westropp, on Monday, sent to the Treasurer of the House of Industry £4, a collection made his preaching a Charity Sermon at Pedamore Church—yesterday Miss Lloyd of George's-Street, sent a Game for the poor in that Asylum.

PORT NEWS.—Mary Anne, Hanniveldt, Miramicho, Gieber; Thomas, Harris, Swanson, coal; Jane, Murphy, Liverpool, rock salt; Albion, Robinson, Liverpool, coal;
Eliza, (of Limerick,) Collins, Liverpool, rock salt; Jane, Brown, Irvine, herrings; Ranger, Wood, Liverpool, rock salt; Eleanor, Wallace, Workington, co. L; William, Williams, Cardiff, coal; Martin, Miller, Milnamoy, timber; Henry, Jameson, Cork, Ballast.

COMMITTED.—To the City Gaol, by Joseph Galloway, Esq.
Mayor, Michael Woods, Wm. Hennessy, and Michael M'Namara, for a violent assault on Mr. Joseph P. M'Carthy, Master Taylor; Honora M'Namara, fraud and swindling.—
By Alderman Watson, Margaret O'Menna, for a violent assault; John Kelly, for fraud and swindling; Patrick Hayes, for robbery; Sarah O'Neil, and ———— Sarah O'Neil, a violent assault.—By Alderman Russell, John Lynch, Esq., Keane, and Catharin Dwyer, for felony.

BIRTH.—In Dublin, the Lady of James S. Ireland, Esq. of the 87th Regiment, of a son.—At Tullymore, Mrs. P. Ireland, Frances Cole, of a son.—At Guilian, Mrs. P. Ireland, of a still-born child.—The Lady of Major-General Sir John Buchan, K. B. of a son and heir.—At Cahill, the Lady of the Rev. Richard Manleyverer, of Ballygarry, County of Tipperary, of a daughter.

MARRIED.—At Lucan-House, Co. Dublin, by the Rev.
Edward St. Laurence, Sir Nicholas Conroy Colclur, Esq.
M. P. for the City of Cork, to Elizabeth, only child of George Vesey, of Lucan-House, Esq. and grand-daughter of the late Right Hon. David Latouche.—In London, Henry Braddell, Esq. of Mallow, to Jennette, daughter of the late Colonel Roberts, East India Company's service.—At Ballymahon, Lieut. J. R. S. Longworth, to Mary Anne, daughter of James Davys, Esq. of Sligo.—Mr. William Harrison, to Eliza, daughter of J. Southey, Esq. of London.—At Ferns, Mr. George Fitt, to Margaret, eldest daughter of Mr.
Archibald Grubb, both of that town.—At Kilsannick Church, County Cork, the Rev. John Browning Drew, to Mary, youngest daughter of Colonel Foot, of Millfort, Mallow.—
At Newmarket-on-Fergus, by the Rev. Dr. O'Shaughnessy, Mr. William Keating, to Miss Honora Hehir, both of that place.

DEAD.—At Trenton, New Jersey, Andrew Gray, Esq. of Chigra, Dumfries-shire.—At Paris, the wife of Lieut.-General
Bailey Wallis, and sister of Sir Robert Wilson, Bart. M. P.— In Suffolk, the Rev. Thomas Hallward, A. M.—At Clonmel, of water on the brain, William Henry Wellington Bridges Nugent, Lord Deivin, aged one year and one day.—Mr.
James Frith, of Cross, near Enniskillen.—At the house of his brother, John Lucas, Esq. Kilsrush, on Sunday, Mr. Thomas Lucas—Francis Hopkins, Esq. M. D. of Baggot-street, Dublin.—At his seat, Orangefield, County Down, Hugh Crawford, Esq. many years a respectable Banker in Belfast;
a Gentleman universally regretted. He was father-in-law of William White, Esq. of this City.—On Saturday night, at his lodgings, George's street, rather suddenly, aged 16 years, the Rev. Thomas Franklin, Rector of Killeely, in the Diocese, and a Magistrate of the Co. Clare: a Gentleman of superior talent and acquirement, and whose affability and amiable disposition endeared him to an highly respectable circle of friends. His remains were this morning deposited in the family vault at the Cathedral.—At Exeter, William H.
Russell, Esq.—In Upper Baggot street, Dublin, Francis Du Moulin, Esq. youngest son of John Du Moulin, of Steepingreen, Esq.—In London, the Lady of Stanley Smart, Esq.— At Northampton, on his way to his nephew, Sir Samuel Stronge, Bart. at London, John Tew, Esq. of Dublin, and of Fellows-Hall, County Armagh.—At his seat at Strandhill, near Dunalak, of a paralytic stroke, Henry M'Neale, Esq.—
At Bombay, Captain Johnston St. Leger, 89th Regiment, son of the late Heyward St. Leger, Esq. of Cork, at Donovan-street, Cork, Doctor Harris.—Yesterday, aged 4, Mr. Oliver Jephson.—At Mealiffe, Glebe, on Tuesday, at the bloom of youth, Letitia, third daughter of the Rev.
John Going.

THE MARKETS

16 CO
On MONDAY ne
At Mr. Swinburn's
BRUNSWIC
Surpassing in elegance an be had on Sale, at Mr. GABE inspection is the best criteri Goods can be viewed on next being the two days previous t
N. B.—Seats will be prov stantly burning, and every oth an eligible place can comm
Sale commences each

IN THIS VERY FAVO
PLA
WM. W
3, GEORG

OFFERS for Sale, at hi
Road, near the Artille
Stock of SHRUBS and forw
modern Pleasure Grounds,
ments, among which are sev

PALLAS AND A

Are extensively supplied also or Screen Planting, &c. &c. cultivation.

He is also in possession of Trees for Garden or Orchar and great bearing.

Of a fine Collection of Dutch Hyacinths, &c. &c.

WILSON has the pleasur
from London and Holland,
of most Garden Seeds, th reduction on some articles.
ings is arrived, Peas, Bean

N. B.—Trees delivered c any of the Nurseries. 110

ROCK

ARR

JOHN C

Per the Jec

150 TONS

Which he will dispose

From on board

O'NEE

2

TO BE SOLD

On the Lands of

COUNTY

On TUESDAY, the

A QU

HAY AND

And in the Vill

On

NINETEEN SHE

All distrained for Ben

MICHAEL KEARNEY.

The Sale to comm

QUART

COUNTY OF T

An Adjournment of t

Peace of said City