NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.
 NOTHING could surprise me more than to see a Notice in the Limerick Chronicle, on the 2nd inst. signed, TIMOTHY COUGHLAN and SON, who they detected me in error on the Lands of ROESBOROUGH and MOUNT-BRUCHE. I hope the Certificate of the Gentleman for whom the Lands were Surveyed will satisfy the Public. I proved my Survey correct, and were in error—and at the same time, nothing but the wretched who would attempt to Survey for less than Three Half-pence per Acre, shields them from the rigour of the Law.
 MICHAEL LEA
 Tipperary, Nov. 26, 1819.
 I certify, that on a disputed Survey between Timothy Coughlan, and Son, on my behalf, and the said Coughlan and Son were obliged to acknowledge errors.—Roesborough, Nov. 4, 1819.

NENAGH SUNDAY SCHOOL
 This school is becoming extensive; it amounts to five Scholars already—they are greatly improved in attending—'tis unavoidably requisite, that subscription money should be collected immediately, otherwise the school cannot be carried on prosperously during the winter. Many Scholars are so poor and naked, that clothes and shoes—a comfortable school-house—place, must be procured, otherwise, the number will be numerous. The school-house is too small, and the school is in want of books—'tis intended that the school will grow out of the Institution.
 A Sermon will be preached on Sunday, the 12th of December, and immediately after Subscriptions will be collected.—The school is first Patroness, the lamented Lady DUNALTY, that by her death, it has sustained an incalculable loss. The School's public thanks are offered to it Hon. Lord Dunally, for his very liberal donation, £d. 13s 9d—To the Hon. and Rev. Mr. near Berrisoleagh, for his donation, £5 13s 6d—To its Patroness, (Mrs. Holmes) for her donation, £5 13s 6d—To Mr. Holmes' £5 13s 6d.
