

of the Cork Coach, for their excellent in protecting the mails in the recent attack near Clonmel—they also have granted a to the guard whose arm has been amputated. Post Masters General have offered £100 for the persons concerned in the attack on it.

Yesterday night, the Dublin Coach for Cork, between Kilkenny and Cailan, and both the were severely injured.

Right Hon. Lord Dunally has arrived at Brighton.

Lord Chancellor has appointed Thomas Ly. Esq. of Mount Cathering, a Magistrate of Counties of Clare and Tipperary.

Lord Chancellor has appointed Charles Esq. of Charleville, County Westmeath, a Magistrate for the King's County.

Lord Chancellor has appointed Richard Rock, Esq. jun. of Athlone, a Magistrate for the King's County.

The 7th, 21st, and 23d Fusileer Regiments, are immediately to be formed into a Fusileer Regiment—to be taken out of the line, and placed in the Guards, with whom they are uniformly employed at Brighton and Windsor.

Yesterday, a detachment from the depot of the 63d Regiment marched from the Castle, Edinburgh, and embarked at Leith, to join the regiment at Barratar.

Two companies of the 6th foot, who remained in Edinburgh after the body of the regiment went to Ireland, have marched to join them at Leeds.

Yesterday, the 1st division of the 33d Regiment marched into York, on their route to Newcastle.

Saturday last, the 63d Regiment under the command of O'Hara landed in Dublin, after a quick passage from Liverpool.—We hear that the head of the regiment is to be Mullingar.

The mortality amongst the Military in Jamaica, was very great in October. The other Islands were not so much affected with the fever: the 1th, 5th and 1st Regiments have suffered, but not very severely.

A Corporal Quin, of the City Cork Staff, is reported to be reduced to the ranks, as a private, for having cows in his possession, knowing their value.

This morning, two suspicious looking persons, (a man and woman) were observed in Denmark-street, by Mr. Anthony Bodkin, who brought them before the High Constable, and upon examining their pockets, a quantity of base coin was found, consisting of Six Shilling Tokens, Half Crowns and Ten-shilling pieces, together with a quantity of aqua fortis, and other matters used in the Coining trade. The man's name is Patrick Sullivan, and states himself to be a Weaver from Spring-lane, Cork;—the woman calls herself Mary Condon, from Danmore, County Waterford. It appears, that on their way to this City, they stopped for the night in the house of Mary Hennessy of Danmore, from whom they took the Bed clothes, &c. &c. The Pawn-Broker's Tickets, have also been found upon them, and a piece of Corduroy, which the man acknowledges to have purchased in the City, and paid for in base Coin.

It will be recollected, that early in September last, a Dublin merchant to Robert Munnell, Eden, third son of Lord Henley, to Ann Maria Lady Grey de Ruthyn, widow of the late Lord Grey de Ruthyn—Captain Minchin, 9th Lancers, second son of William Minchin, Esq. of Greenhills, Co. Tipperary, to Harriet, youngest daughter of the late G. Hogg, Esq.—On Monday, Lieutenant George Prittie, of the 60th Regiment of Foot, to Honora, daughter of Mr. R. Kennedy, of this City.—In Dublin, William Quin, Esq. to Marianne, eldest daughter of Mr. Charles Toole, of Westmoreland-street—Mr. James Wade, of Britain-street, Dublin, to Miss Elizabeth Duffy, of Nantstown.—At Edinburgh, Walter Campbell, Esq. to Lady Eleanor Charters, daughter of the Earl of Wemyss and March.—At Fulham, William, eldest son of William Wilberforce, Esq. M. P. to Mary, daughter of the Rev. John Owen, Rector of Fazoleham.

DIED—Suddenly, at his seat, Rocklands, near Stillorgan, Co. Dublin, Edward Ellis, Esq. formerly of the 12th Light Dragoons.—At Ballycollinow, after a short illness, aged 68, Francis Palmer, Esq.—At Maryborough, Mrs. Martin, relict of the Rev. James Martin, late Curate of Ennistymon.—On the 29th of October last, at Jamaica, of fever, Richard Meade, Esq. formerly Distributor of Stamps in this City, and son of John Meade, Thomas, Esq.—At Waterford, the wife of Mr. B. Petrin.—In Galway, Lieutenant Thomas Taylor, half-pay 85th Regiment.—In Dorset-street, Dublin, Mrs. Birchill, wife of Robert Birchill, Esq. and sister of Colonel Pegton, Leitrim Regiment.—On Charlotte's quay, Mrs. Halliday, wife of Mr. James Halliday, Pawnbroker.—At Stamford Lodge, County Wicklow, Miss Martha Augusta Stratford, eldest daughter of the Hon. Benjamin O'Neal Stratford.—At Swift-row, Dublin, Miss Mary Ann Husky.—Mr. John Madden, of Meath-street, Dublin.—At Ringwood, Co. Kilkenny, Mrs. Deane, relict of the late Joseph Deane, Esq. of Terenure, near Dublin, and formerly M. P. for the borough of Innistoge.—At Edgeworthstown, Mrs. Catherine Billamore.—At Clonakilty, the relict of Charles McCarthy, Esq.—At Ballyhannan, Co. Clare, Mr. John Markham.—In Dame-street, Dublin, Mr. John Sweetman.—Mrs. O'Donnell, wife of Mr. Christopher O'Donnell, of Cahircloign, County Clare.—Margaret, second daughter of Thomas Redington, of Eyehill, Co. Galway, Esq. aged 16.—At the Presentation Convent, Mary Angelo Francis Martin, daughter of Mr. John Martin, of Kilkenny.—At Castleclayson, Henry Shiel, Esq. a Magistrate of the Counties of Antrim and Londonderry.—Mrs. Baker, wife of Henry Baker, Esq. of the Farm, County Kilkenny.—In London, the widow of Joseph Lyon, Esq.—At Maidenhill, aged 77, Henrietta, widow of the late Admiral Jablest Brenton, and mother of Sir Jablest Brenton, Bart.—At Bombay, Lieut. Charles Mitchell, 65th Regiment.—At Calcutta, Captain Robert Rayner Young, 27th Bengal Native Infantry.—At Quebec, the Hon. J. Williams, a Member of his Majesty's Executive and Legislative Councils.—Richard Clarke, Esq. of Kingston, Oxfordshire.—At the advanced age of 105 years, John Edwards, a pauper in the workhouse of St. Ives, Huntingdonshire.—At Catsclough, Cheshire, the wife of the Rev. Edmund Lally, Vicar of Whitegate.—At Ford, the Rev. John Blair.—At Brecklin, the relict of the late Rev. Alexander Davidson.—In London, Lieut.-General James Campbell, aged 76.—At Hieres, Department du Var, France, Louisa, daughter of the late Rev. Daniel Kelly, Rector of Killishall, Co. Tyrone.—At Bourdeaux, Luke Stritch, Esq. of the Irish Bag.—In Stafford-street, Dublin, Doctor Michael Deane O'Reilly.—William Bernard, Esq. of William-Park, Co. Dublin.—In South Frederick-street, Dublin, Lieutenant-Colonel William Weldon Stewart, East India Company's service.—At Demerara, Mathew, eldest son of Mr. Mathew Hunter, of Belfast, shipwright.—The Hon. Mrs. Harley, relict of the late Bishop of Hereford, and mother to the Earl of Oxford.—At Montrose, Surgeon Henderson, R. N.—At Kilmarnock, Janet, daughter of the late Rev. M. Todd.—At Brecklin, the Rev. Mr. Straton.—At Muirton, the widow of Sir William Neira, Bart.—At West End, in the 110th year of his age, Mr. John Demaine.—In London, aged 92, Mrs. Linley, widow of Mr. Linley, formerly of Drury-lane Theatre, who was the father of the first Mrs. Sheridan.—In London, the Hon. C. Neville, sister to the late Earl of Argyll.—On Friday, William, eldest son of William Pickett, Esq. Lower Ormond-quay.—At Kinsale Mrs. Eliza Sandys, wife of Captain J. Sandys, of Compass-hill.—At Inchelagh, near Bannry, Mary, the wife of William Moore, Esq.—In Cork, Mrs. Sarah Nicolls.

THE MARKETS.

Market Prices this day.—Wheat, 1s. 5d. to 1s. 8d. per bush.—Oats, 9d. to 10d.—Barley, 9d. to 11d.—Flour, 20s. to 24s. per cwt.—Oatmeal, 14s. 6d. to 15s.—Potatoes, fever—the Property of DENIS Fitz-Gerald will pay a REWARD of TWO or Three Guineas on prosecuting

THE EST
OF
M. P. HEAL
In the Counties of Tipperary and Waterford
Heretofore Ad
(If not previously)
WILL BE PUT UP
AT THE COMMERCIAL
On SATURDAY, the 5th
AT ONE O'CLOCK
Proposals (post-paid) will be received of
Esq. Derry-Castle, Killakee; of the Stamp Office, Dublin; and JOHN street.

Printed particulars to be had of
Auctioneer, at the Rooms.

TO BE
From the 25th of
For 61 or 91 Years, or
THE FOLLOWING
PART OF THE
BALLINCOURTY
Within ten minutes walk of the Castle
Add a New Lane of R
With an extensive view of the Hill, and Carr

- No. 1.—Next to Mr. Wilson's Mill Hanly.
 - No. 2.—28A. OR. 37P. Boland (to run.)
 - No. 3.—House Division. 20A.
 - No. 4.—Rev. Wm. D. Hoare, adjoining, 1A. 1A. 3P.
 - No. 5.—Mr. Fisher's, 4A. England's, now Mr. Langford's.
 - No. 6.—House and Garden, as by Henry Grady, next the Windmill Old Turnpike Road.
 - No. 7.—2A. 3R. 19P. next to a House.
- The entire will be divided as follows

ALSO
For any Term that may be agreed
About 50 Acres of BALLINCOURTY

PATRICK SHEA will shew the Proposals to be received by
or DENIS FITZ-GERALD, MA
street, Limerick

SALE OF HOUSES
TO BE SOLD
AT LAKESHILL
On TUESDAY, the
SEVERAL HUNTERS, ROAD
AND YOUNG
Of different Ages—all TERMS—Approved Bills at the Pound allowed for prompt Lutesp

TO BE
From the 25th of
THE DEMESNE
BALLYE
CONTAINING about 40
Dairy, Pasture, or Tillage
Situate about 2 miles from Ball and 4 from Newcastle. In given.
Proposals to FRANCIS THE
rone, or Mr. DENIS EDWARD Post paid.)