

on the 16th inst. both at Windsor. appear curious to observe, that the Archbishops, and all the Bishops— Dukedom—all the Marquisses—ards of the Earls—about one-half of s—of whom the Lord Viscount De Montmorency is the premier, of d three-fourths of the Barons—were uring the reign of his late Majesty the Third.

vening at a meeting of the Masonic 13, at their rooms. Swinburn's, in Address of Condolence on the death ost venerable Sovereign George III. ury voted, to be presented to his ay King George IV.

the Artillery fired a Royal Salute, s in garrison a feu de joye, in honour on of George IV. to the Throne. ed that a new Candidate will start for ulow.

ing appears in the Dublin Evening day:—

endent Electors of the County of Clare. of a certain Interest are requested to keep engaged, as a certain Individual, of some mity interest in said County, intends at the next General Election, which it has nce to cause, by releasing our late worthy ted King from his sufferings in this life, and preme authority his not less worthy son.

"IGNOTUS."

ter Circuit, it is stated, will commence arch, Judges Mayne and Jelb are but the former being indisposed, its ether he will go circuit.

day night, Captain Moulson 35th returning to his barracks in Cork, on the Wellington road by two armed watch; the same night, a man named s stabbed by a fellow named Neville, d in jail.

a man named Moinahan, a Labourer, upper loft in a Store in this City, unfortunately killed.

ence of the small number of Figs brought to Market, last week, the price Monday to 35s per cwt.; and it is kable, that the price should be 2s over over the Dublin rate. We recom. who have their Pigs fat to avail them- advantage.

sed tradesman who is willing to work. employ, and who is ashamed to beg, wife and five helpless young children, kind attention of a benevolent public; ses are most acute, and which can be by the Proprietors of this Paper, who ily receive the smallest donations, and be publicly acknowledged.

v. J. Crampton acknowledges the £1 17s 6d. proportion of a fine levied mber on the lands of New Garden, for the parish of Castle Connell.

erised to say, that the annual Charity Sermon, the Clare Convent Poor School, will be e Sunday of the Assizes week.

a letter was received by Alderman Watson, st Stamp of "Southampton" as follows:— d Five Pounds it is wished should be laid out d. cures for Cloathing the Children in the use of Industry. January 24. 1820. The of a daughter—The Lady of Surtees—The Lady of Surtees, 6th Regiment, of a son—The Lady of William Deat Farrer, Esq. of Merrion-square, Dublin, of a son and heir— At Wiston-House, Warwick, the Countess Clonmel, of twin daughters— At Bere Island, Co. Cork, the Lady of G. A. Rowler, Esq. of a daughter.

MARRIAGE—In St. Thomas's Church, Dublin, the Hon. and Very Rev. the Dean of Killala, to Sophia, daughter of the late Sir George Ribton, Bart.—Lieut. Robert Madden, Royal Artillery, to Eliza, daughter of the late Arundel Madden, Esq. of Dublin—Mr. Peter Walsb, of Linenhall-street, Dublin, to Miss Roberts, daughter of John Roberts, of Rath, Queen's County, Esq.—In Cork, Mr. Samuel Ingram, Officer of Excise, to Helena, relict of the late Mr. Michael Murphy, of that City—Near Derry, Robert Gray, Esq. of Oungiven, to Rebecca, sister of William Miller, Esq. Acting Inspector-General of Excise—At Passage Church, the Rev. Francis McLeland, A. B. Chaplain to the settlers proceeding to the Cape of Good Hope, under the direction of William Parker, Esq. to Elizabeth, second daughter of Frederick Clarke, Esq. of Passage—At Little Graigue, Co. Wexford, James Keough, Esq. of Camolin, to Miss Rossiter—In Cork, Doctor Kelly, to Miss Morris—In London, Charles James Fox Combe, Esq. to Henrietta Anna, eldest daughter of John Church, Esq.—At Putney, Charles Parke, Esq. late of Jamaica, to Letitia, daughter of Joseph Alcock, Esq. of Roxhampton—At Marseilles, on the 12th ult. Robert Lenson, Esq. eldest son of the Hon. Robert Lenson, uncle and presumptive heir to the Earl of Milltown, to Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the late Ralph Marshall, of Callinacurry, in the Co. Kerry, Esq.

DIED—At Demerara, Samuel Belson, Esq. Assistant Commissary-General in that Colony—In Jamaica, Lieut. A. Will, 92d Regiment— In the West Indies, Philip Henry Mortimer, Esq. Surgeon, late of Waterford—At Brunswick, Louisa, wife of Colonel Schrader, Brunswick Hussars, and daughter of Isaac Jones, Esq. of Cork—At Toulon, Samuel Draper, Esq. of New Ross—At Kilpaulk, in the East Indies, Henry John Peter, son of Captain Jourdan, 10th Regiment—At Cotellum, Captain W. B. ss, 24th Native Infantry—The daughter of Captain Wilson, Barrackmaster at Bangalore—Anne, daughter of Lieut. Mackenzie, of the Artillery—The wife of the Rev. Edward Parsons, of Leeds—At Grant's Brags, near Haddington, aged 88, Agnes Browne, the mother of Burns the poet—William Lindsey, Esq. of Parliament-street, Dublin. He was an old Sheriff's Peer and Police Magistrate—In Ounagh, James Greer, Esq.—Patrick Burke, Esq. of the Bank of Ireland, and of Derryboyle, County Galway—At Worley-Lodge, Essex, aged eleven, Edmund Henry, second son of the Hon. George Winn—At Richmond, Miss Maria Dundas—At Camberwell, aged 98, the Hon. Colonel Peter Frye—At Kerby Lonsdale, Major D. Quin, formerly of the 33d Regiment—At Bermuda, on the 20th of August, William McNamara Hogan, Esq. of this City—Major-General Christian Wilson, of the Royal Artillery—At Minto, Jane, daughter of the Hon. Captain Elliott, Royal Navy—Captain Price, 34th Regiment—At Norfolk, Thomas Jenkinson Woodward, Esq.—In London, Lieut.-Colonel Edward Hanford, aged 78, late 22d Regiment—The widow of Captain Huber, Royal Navy—The sister of Henry Isherwood, Esq. formerly M. P. of Windsor—In London, the relict of Richard St. George, Esq. of Kilrush, Co. Kilkenny, and sister to Lord Castlemain—At Kentucky, General Samuel Hopkins—On the 2d inst. James Giles, of Brachill, Co. Kerry, Esq.—At her house in Cork, on Monday night, Mrs. Coote, relict of the late Charles Coote, of Mount-Coote, Esq. in this County; a Lady most universally lamented by her highly respectable family and connexions—In Cork, Mr. John Shee.

Deaths reported in the Army last Month.

Field Marshal his Royal Highness the Duke of Kent, K. G. and G. C. B. 1st Foot, Governor of Gibraltar.
General Earl of Suffolk, 44th Foot, Governor of London-derry and Culmore.
Lieut.-General James Campbell.
Captain Pyper, Adjutant 2d Surrey Militia.
Lieutenants Maw, 17th Foot; Hearn, 34th; Cavanagh, Royal Artillery; Chadwick, late 1st Royal Veteran Batt.; Crouchley, half-pay 53rd; Garrard, Openshaw, and Hudson, Invalids; Vaughan, 1st Foot.
Ensign and Adjutant Perry, 44th foot.
Quarter-Masters Metray, 25th; and Masters, Ash Drags.
Commissariat Department—Deputy-Assistant-Commissary-General McDonall.
Medical Department—Deputy-Inspector Taylor, half-pay.

THE MARKETS.

With respect
Your very faithful hu
STANDISH
Mount-Prospect, Feb. 8.

TO THE
GENTLEMEN, CLERGS
AND FREEHOLDERS
OF THE
COUNTY OF LIMERICK

ALLOW me to request your next General Election for our Co been honoured with your confidence successive Elections, I am induced again obtain the very high Situation often placed me in. If I am so fortunate, by my conduct, to command your gratitude.

I have the honour to be,

With the greatest respect

Your faithful and

humble Servant

WILLIAM

Limerick, Feb. 5, 1820.

TO BE SOLD
The Interest in the Lease DWELLING HOUSE, OF
Of the late Colonel LEFROY
In George's-street

It is held for Lives renewable for ever per Annum, and a Pepper-Corn. It may be seen by permission, in his Majesty's Office. Proposals (in writing) to be made to LEFROY, 18, Leeson-street, Dublin.

C. C. O'Connell

NOTICE,

TO SUCH AS HAVE TWO COWS STOLEN

Particularly in the Neighbourhood of Limerick, TWO COWS of the following description, were stolen on the night of FRIDAY WEEK, the 21st inst. who escaped, at the upper end of WILKINS-street. One is a calf Cow, red and white, the other a breed (defaced) on the right side; a stripper, black, with white stripes on the turned up horns; the OWNER will reward the Expenses by applying to ALDERMAN WILKINS, Limerick.

FOR EVER.

FREEHOLD PROPOSALS
TO BE MADE

From the 25th March

The Extensive Concerns in JOHNSON-street, now in Possession of Mr. JOHNSON. THEY are particularly well adapted for FEATHER and SALT BUSINESS. ALSO, TOGETHER with a large quantity of BUILDING MATERIALS, and several Freehold Farms, might be made on Application (if by letter, post-paid) to Mr. PINCHIN, Esq. Listowel; or to Mr. MURPHY, 18, Mount-Coote-street, who will refer.

W. J. Crampton

TO BE SE

From the 25th Day of MARCH, FOR SUCH TERM AS MAY BE

TER