The sheriffs yesterday received a free pardon from the Lords Justices, for Wm Ruddle, under Rule of Transportation—and to be discharged upon giving security for good behaviour.

On Monday morning, at one o'clock, the house of John Bateman, Esq. at Newmarket, County, was broken open by a party of robbers, and robbed of a gun. They threatened the gardener for not giving them the key, which, on searching for, they found, and then went off.

On Friday night, at an early hour, the house belonging to Michael Coffey near the city, was set on fire and totally consumed, a great number of Cows in the house, were fortunately saved; the dwelling caught and was extinguished.

On Saturday last, as Thomas Smith, Esq. of Nenagh, was returning home from Nenagh, he was stopped at two o'clock at noon, near Mr. Smith's station, on the Birr road, by a single man, who was armed with a short gun, of about 12 lbs weight, which he presented at Mr. Smith, and demanded of him to give what money he had in his pocket, and a silver watch. On the same man, who was returning from Nenagh, was stopped in the neighbourhood of Morrisokane, supposed by the same man, who, after a short time, he was permitted to go on. A short time after, the same ruffian was seen with another person, with a saddle-horse, near which he took from him, and rode off. A horse was found next morning near the spot, it is supposed the fellow made his escape to Limerick. In his attack upon Mr. Smith, he was without a coat, but had seemingly a sword in the other two, he wore a loose coat under which he concealed the short gun described. He is about 5 feet 8 or
