

TOPPED, ED TO BE STOLEN.

3, four Years old next May, one of a colour, the hind part chiefly white; with a white back. Both have a left ear, and the right ear split. One is on one horn. The Owner may property, and paying the expences, by JAMES MARTIN, Clonrush Glebe, February 29.

determined to render every resident gentry of Connaught, to as disturbances that exist there. Following Regiments are on their routes of Galway, Mayo, and the 8th Royal Veteran Battalion, Dundalk: and the 93d Highlands. Four troops of the 3d Light arrive from Newbridge at a, Esq. Commissary in this on Monday afternoon from to provide forage, &c. for the be stationed there.

hundred and twenty of the 12th under the command of Lieut. arrived here on a route from Cork, to Ennis.

n of the 25th regiment, took a from Cork for Templemore, County, and the first division of Battalion arrived in Cork same last, the Ribbonmen visited the Brien, Esq. of Burren, County two other houses in that neighbourh of arms; they were, however, night they visited Turlough three houses of arms. Bunahow visited on Saturday night. After from Mr. Butler, of Bunahow, and having called for himself, orts in town, of several other s in the same neighbourhood but so unceas-tantly meander to be published.

urnal asserts, and not without ribbon system is almost in the County, but has not as yet shewn are loudly called on to unite and ; one effort united will blast it ight, the Ribbonmen made another the County of Clare, in a most but a number of Gentlemen, Mr. Blood, High Sheriff, the Brew. &c. having armed Fawcett Book School, Hill-street, — During the ensuing Election, a Sermon in aid of the depressed funds of this valuable Institution, will be preached at St. Michael's Chapel, which we trust will be proportionably productive.

BIRTH.—At Spring Gardens, near Cremorne, the Lady of Samuel Gordon, Esq. of a son—On Montpelier-Hill, the Lady of Captain Greene, of the 1st Royal Dragoons, of a daughter—At Newington, Surrey, the Lady of Andrew Miller, Esq. of Nevis, of a daughter—At Penang, the Lady of Lieut. Archibald Dow, 19th Native Infantry, of a son—On Tuesday morning, at his house, in George's-street, the Lady of Edward Syers, Esq. of a son—At Pendreath, the Lady of Captain Mackenzie, of a daughter—The Lady of Edward Archibald, Esq. of Riversdale, County Fermanagh, of a son—At Gibraltar, the Lady of Major Fyers, Royal Engineers, of a son—At Killarney, the Lady of Lieutenant-Colonel McCarthy, late 96th Regiment, of a son.

MARRIAGE.—At Headwick, Frederick W. Campbell, Esq. of Barbry, to Sophia, daughter of the late Sir Edward Winnington, Bart. of Stanford Court, Worcestershire—At Bruff, Mr. P. Molony, of Tullabrackey, to Miss Cleary, of Ballynahinch, in this County—Mr. Edward Keane, of Ballycaha, to Miss Reardon, of Tellabrackey—In Killarney, Mr. Howard, of Dubhallow, Co. Cork, to Miss O'Connor, of that town.

DEATH.—In the East Indies, Lieut.-Colonel John Stokoe, 9th Madras Native Infantry—At Blackfriars-road, London, Mrs. Bennett Guest, Chemist, Inventor of the Guestonian Medicines—At Hermitage, near Edinburgh, the youngest daughter of the late Sir Archibald Primrose, Bart.—At Clonlara, Co. Clare, on Saturday, Mrs. Whitestone, wife of John Whitestone, Esq.—In Lower Mount-street, Dublin, aged 16, Abigail, eldest daughter of the Rev. Francis Sollis, F. T. C. D.—At Hampstead, aged 75, the Hon. John Dunsdale, a Baron of the Russian Empire—Captain George Hanbury, East India Co.'s service—At Corrigall, Isle of Lewis, the relit of Alexander Pringle, Esq.—In Mallow, in the 61st year of his age, Samuel Tarrant, Esq. sincerely and universally lamented by a circle of most respectable friends and relations, whose many amiable qualifications endeared him sincerely regretted by all who had the pleasure of knowing him; he was an affectionate husband, a sincere friend, and an upright honest man, the noble work of God; indeed the poor has a great loss—In Dublin, on Wednesday, Leslie Wren, Esq.—In Paris, Robert Macrae, Esq. of Ballyneone, Co. Armagh—Yesterday, at his seat, Slemass-town, Co. Clare, aged 70, Richard Wilson, Esq. The kind amiability of this Gentleman's disposition, renders the grief of his afflicted relatives and friends as inconsolable as it is sincere, whilst his social manners and generous mind make his death a subject of deep regret to a highly respectable and numerous circle of connexions and acquaintance—At Drumess, Co. Fermanagh, Anne, daughter of William Armstrong, Esq.—At Treloivanea, Cornwall, Sir Vyvyan Vyvyan—William Ivis, Esq. of the Bank of Ireland—At Brighton, Major-General John Lindsay—Major Blair, of the Royal Artillery—in the Parish of Aighish, in the vicinity of Killarney, at the very advanced age of 115 years, Theobald O'Sullivan, the celebrated Irish Bard. This extraordinary man, who was a great composer in his native language, expired suddenly, on Wednesday last, whilst singing out in the field of one of his great grand children, thus retaining his faculties to the last moment! He is said to have sung to the plough one of his favourite Lyrics, and actually breathed his last at the final Stanza of his National Melody. The deceased, also, followed the occupation of a cooper, and is said to have made a churn, from which butter was taken for the christening of his twenty-sixth great grand child—At Shanakiel, Co. Cork, David Leahy, Esq. many years Lead Agent to the Earl of Cork.

HOUSE OF INDUSTRY.
A GENERAL MEETING of the GOVERNMENT'S DAY SCHOOL, on THURSDAY instant, at One o'Clock, to examine the Accounts for the past year, ending 1st February. Limerick, March

PIANO-FORTE TUITION.*MR. JONES

Teaches in Limerick every Second
TERMS—A Guinea for Twelve Lessons of Minutes each.

INSTRUMENTS TUNED GRATUITOUSLY.

Ladies residing within Three or Four Miles will be accommodated with an Hour or Two, and charged moderately.

Weekly Tuition as before, at any place to a public conveyance.

Application at the Chronicle Office, or at 5 street.

MR. A. W. HAYES,*CATHERINE-STREET.*PROFESSOR OF SINGING.

IS arrived from Dublin, and will give Instruction, on moderate terms. He has also a Set of the newest SONGS, together with Steffelt's Concerto for the Pianoforte, Violin's ditto, One Set of Quadrilles, Bernie's ditto, a Set of Variations, &c. which he will dispose of at Dublin.

Limerick,

TUITION.

A YOUNG GENTLEMAN, of respectable who has a perfect knowledge of the means of instruction in Classics, French, &c. would Situation in a Gentleman's Family, or a Clerical Establishment.—Satisfactory references will be given to his moral and literary character.

Letters addressed to A. B. Post-Office, Portarlington, will be respectfully attended to.

WANTED*AT KILRUSH SCHOOL*A CLASSICAL ASSISTANT.

He must be perfectly qualified, and a Person Apply to Rev. Mr. ALLEN, Kilrush.

COUNTY OF KERRY TO BE LET.

From the 25th of March instant, for a Term of Eighteen Years,

THE HOUSE AND OFFICES OF NEW KILELTEN.

WITH a Demesne of twenty or thirty Acres of Tillage, and Meadow Land. It is situated on the River Shannon for fishing, swimming, immediately opposite the Battery of C.

Proposals to be made to Mr. MICHAEL S. Rusheen, who will close with a Tenant offered, and who will also sell the Furniture, and on time, if necessary.

COUNTY TIPPERARY

727