

men going to join their party way-laid by between 300 and 400, and after a severe contest, their way through them, leaving everly wounded; the fourth
one night an outstated party of burroes and after an oath
the Ribbonmen decamped, dead, with a great number away. Last night the Rev.
wife were barbarously murgivin some information to we are in a very troublesome year, not a shilling of Welsh money.

Twenty convicts, as stated in acts from Galway, left the 23d Fusileers, com-
Greg. on a route to Cork,
d to Botany Bay—in this ere the noted Walls and
l most comfortably clothed.
ment.

Last, the house of Thomas ll, in the Liberties of this ned by fire, together with ral articles of household ed in the horrid Murder of ming, P. P. have not, we pprehended. The Hu
the names of those charged ce, viz.

r, from twenty-eight to thirty ches high, lightly marked with pale face, stout made, wore a assimere waistcoat, corduroy
er, seven inches high,
with a stoop, black hair, dark d, slender made, about twenty-of age, wore a grey fize coat, breeches.

r, from twenty to twenty-thr
et eight inches high, pale face, ce coat, black waistcoat, broad

end, to whom Alderman
a letter, stating the want
t of the House of Industry
ties, sent him Forty Shillings
the Lunatics therein.

THEATRE.

"THE WAGS OF WIXON" last.—Admirable as was Mrs. due, and Juliet, yet her Mr. L— to her scenes with Stukely—valled excellence—of Captain Stukely, we have only time to test and his style interesting—two s secure for him the partiality of his audience. The crowded pleasure of noticing all ; but it is right to say of Mr. S. played Stukely's most masterly, to study it. In Mr. S.'s society, and thus to mingle Chat, be careful not to hazard that is an Actor, by allowing him that require subtlety more. He will take his as it is his fault.—The Augt Com- at Miss W. should be properly weak. Every Cat should be capacity and capability of the yield to public gratification are respectable to obtain profit can be exposed to ridicule in a first rate elevation. Every business better perfect. The

Sgt., the Encantress, Lady of the Bore, Marke, word Grey, of a daughter—In Aberdeen, the Lady of Captain Burns, 80th Regiment, of a daughter—At Carlisle, Lady of Captain Pipont, 6th Dragoon Guards, of a son—e Lady of Captain McCullagh, R. N. of a son—The Lady Captain N. Scott, R. N. of a son and heir.

Maurice—At Cheltenham, Captain Laugharne, R. N. to Mary Amelia, eldest daughter of the late Sir S. Buckingham, Bart. of Warwickshire—In Bath, R. Morris, Esq. on half-pay of the 19th Light Dragoons, to the daughter of the late Elton, Esq. of Greenway, Devonshire—At Kenwen, in Cornwall, John Wood, Esq. eldest son of Alderman Wood, London, to Emma, youngest daughter of the late Admiral Wood—Captain and Adjutant Hanchrow, of the 3d Royal Lancashire Militia, to Jane, second daughter of Mr. Robert Wilkinson, of the Fleece Inn, Preston—At Edinburgh, Captain Charles Hawtayne, to Anne, daughter of the late James Hope, Esq. Commissioner of the Navy—In London, Captain J. N. Burton, 33d Foot, to Martha, daughter of David Baker, Esq. Burles House, Herts—At Gloucester, Rev. Nicholas Carey, to Martha, daughter of John Carter, Esq.—At Bath, Major Spedding, of the 4th, or Queen's Own Regiment of Dragoons, to Sarah, daughter of Hugh Parkin, Esq. of Skirsgill-House, Cumberland.

Died—On Sunday, at Bank-place, aged 18, Terence, third son of the late James O'Brien, Esq. of this City. He ure a tedious illness with calmness and resignation, and death is a source of deep affliction to an affectionate parent and brothers, by whom he was sincerely beloved—Sidmouth, Harriet, daughter of Sir Edward Stracey, Bart.—In Jamaica, of fever, Lieut. Hector Innes, 92d Regiment—At Madras, Surgeon George Anderson, of the East India Company's service—At Breckin, William, second son of Captain Fraser—At Weymouth, Isabella Harriett, fourth daughter of Colonel Strangways—At Kebo, Miss Douglas, eldest daughter of Doctor Christopher Douglas—
At Leitchestown, Georgiana, youngest daughter of Colonel George Gordon—At North Leith, Charles Gordon, Esq. late Collector of Excise at Lebo—At Douglas, in the Isle of Man, aged 28 years, Eleanor, wife of John Joseph Heywood, Esq. and only daughter of Major Rowan, formerly of the 60. Antrim—At Heavitree, Exeter, Mrs. Hamilton, wife of Rev. George Hamilton, Rector of Killermogh, in the Diocese of Ossory—On Thursday last, at the house of Mrs. Villiers, Lower Seymour-street, London, Miss Percy, aged 21, after a long and painful illness, sustained with the weakness and resignation which innocence and virtue inspire. The sweetess of her disposition, the amiableness of her manners, and the benevolence of her heart, endeared her to friends and acquaintance. Her death is a trying affliction to her near relative, Mrs. Villiers, with whom she had resided many years, to their mutual happiness and consolation. The writer of this sincere tribute never knew a firmer believer than Miss Percy in the great truths of the Christian Religion, or one who more closely lived up to its moral precepts—At Scribblestown, George, youngest son of Allen Holmes, Esq.—At Cavetown, near Boyle, the Rev. Arthur Mahon—Robert, youngest son of Harman Fitzmaurice, of Springhill, Queen's County, Esq.—At Kinsale, Mrs. Bird, wife of Captain Bird, late of the 37th Regiment, and daughter of the late William Crooke, of Kileundy, Co. Cork, Esq.—
At Ballinastoe, Mrs. Ashe, relict of the Rev. John Ashe, many years Rector of that town—Mrs. Jane McGrath, of Paul-street, Cork—At Dublin Castle, in the bloom of youth, the truly amiable and accomplished Mrs. Lambert, wife of Gustavus Lambert, Esq. and daughter of Sir John Stevenson. Her complaint was fever after child-birth. Mr. Lambert was brother to the lamented Countess Talbot, and hence another source of grief to that illustrious House—
At Mourzuk, in Africa, about 400 miles south of Tripoli, Joseph Ritter, Esq. He was employed under the auspices of Government, to make discoveries in the interior of Africa—Edinburgh, Jane, youngest daughter of Colin Mackenzie, Esq.—At Kilfaunis-Castle, Mrs. Johnston, widow May Johnston, 61st Regiment—At Cockermouth, John Bowes, Lieut.-Colonel East India Co.'s service—On Monday last his house, Doonass, in the 82d year of his age, John Fennell, Esq.—At Thornbury, aged 90, Old Grey, Esq.—At Tilehurst Cottage, Berks, Colonel Sheldon, Royal Artillery—On Sunday, at Prospect-row, George Vokes, Esq.—In Brunswick-street, Liverpool, after a few days illness, Mr. James Grey, of Birr, formerly of Kilrush—At Drury, Colonel Newenham, of the 63d—On Sunday, at his father's, Matthew, Esq. Adolphus Vesey, youngest son of Joseph Matthews, Esq.—At Coventry, Mr. Goodhall.

ENGLISH STOCKS—3 per cent Red. 69½—
3 per cent. 92½.

NOTICE.—The CHARTERERS of the Docks
are requested at the Hour of One o'Clock SATURDAY, the 11th Inst. at the ASSEMBLY to inspect the Treasurer's Accounts, and pay their rents for the current Year.

GEORGE BOOMANAN, Treas.

March 9.

NOTICE.

THE several Tenants to the Lands of Ahenish, C
Nobility, Killies, Thureagh, Cloonel
Graig, in the County of Limerick; Knock Liberties of the City of Limerick; and Pess, in the County of Clare; the Property of Sir NATHANIEL PH Bart, are required to Pay their respective Rents and (forthwith) to POOLE GARBETT, Esq. No. 69, G street, Limerick, who is authorized to receive the Limerick, Ma

13p.m. NOTICE.
THE several Tenants on the Estate of JOHN J
HENRY, Esq. in the COUNTY of TIPPE
and of SINGLAND, in the Liberties of the C LIMERICK, are required to pay up the
and Arrears of Rent to A. J. WATSON, at the Chronicle Office, No. 2, Rutland-street, who is a to receive same. Limerick, Ma

TO BE LET,
THE STORE AND KILN,
In rere and adjoining the Roman Catholic in Newgate-lane.

THIS place would also answer to form into T Tenements, there being a front sufficient for Houses, and good Timber and Stone in the present L
said to be enough to complete them.—A permane can be given.

Apply to G. P. DREW, Esq. of Catherine-street.

GEORGE DAWSON, Esq. of George-street.

N. B.—A safe Tenant, who would engage to la certain Sum, to be agreed on, would be indulged first Year, Rent-free.

3h Limerick, Ma

TO BE LET,
From the 25th March, Inst.
For One Life and Twenty-one Years con PART OF THE LANDS OF MONEANURE.

NEAR CHARLEVILLE,
Containing 61 a. 3r. 1p. Statute me
Lately held by JOHN AUSTIN, Esq.

Proposals will be received by the EARL of Marlborough, Fontham, Great Britain; and Mr. RO Charleville.

3h Ma

COUNTY OF TIPPERARY.
BARONY OF UPPER-ORMOND.

TO BE SOLD,
THE LANDS OF
TULLAMOYLAN AND KILLRIF

Part of the Estate of Count DALTON,
Containing 437 Acres, Plantation Measure

And Let to most Solvent Tenants at the Yearly Rent

These Lands are situated within two miles and a Neagh, and sixteen of Limerick.—There is a Commonage attached to these Lands.

For Rental, Title, and Maps, apply to T
KEMMIS, Esqrs. Kildare-street, Dublin.

In the Matter of PURSUANT to an Order
Eleanor Dickson, this matter, bearing dat a Lunatic.

Saturday, the 18th Day of Instant, at my Chambers on the Inn-quay, Dublin Hour of One o'Clock in the Afternoon, set up to during the Life of said Lunatic, now aged Four Years, or thereabouts, all that and those the Lands of CORRABREES, containing Seventy A thereabouts, late in the possession of Kelly Brown
The said Lands are situated near Crossan, in the Co
Limerick.—Dated this 4th Day of March, 1820.

THOMAS E

NOTE.—The Tenant, when declared, must give