On SUNDAY, the 25th of
A SERMON
WILL BE PREACHED
AT ST. MICHAEL'S CHURCH AT TWO O'CLOCK,
By the Rev. THOMAS COOKE
In support of the FEMALE CHARITY in Henry-street.

It will be seldom, if ever, been in behalf of an Institution of higher intellectuality than this. Within its walls, more than Female Poor of this City, have for fifteen years past, under the care of highly respectable Education which combines Religion with Industry and enforces all the obligations which society has imposed upon them, and gives a protection against the formidable evils that betrahed the classes of the community. More than 300 children of this Institution have saved from mortality the door of a School till this had been what would be the state of Limerick—to wit height must the tide of immorality have that multitude of Female Poor had grown idleness and ignorance. To prevent this great School in Henry-street has been established.
Limerick are enjoying its benefits—they have solicited for Subscriptions towards its supported on them in any way hitherto, and now effort is to be made for its advancement, a liberal Community will not refuse their liberal protection. Limerick
