maid servant, going from ... a house, in Thomas-street, was attacked ... who robbed her of some silver. She, however, watched him in his retreat, and finding he had ... into a public-house, applied to the next watchman, and had the fellow taken into custody.

There will be an eclipse of the Moon, partially, on Tuesday next, the 29th inst. beginning at 58 minutes after four, and ending at 39 minutes after seven in the afternoon.

Last week, a sheep of Mr. White's of Ballinvirk, in this County, yeared four lambs,—two of which she dropped on Tuesday, and the others on Thursday, all ewes; they are quite healthy, and likely to thrive—should the offspring be as promising as the dam, they may be calculated upon as a very productive stock.

On Thursday, a Gentleman passing through Newtown Ferry, handed Alderman Watson One Guinea, for the use of the House of Industry, board the Duke of York, aged 29, Captain John Buchanan Whannell, 5th Regiment, second son of Peter Whannell, Esq. of Dublin. He had just embarked to proceed a second time to India, from whence he had but lately returned, with the 12th Foot, after a service of twelve years; but through a neglected cold he fell a victim to that fever which has bereft his distinguished parents of an affectionate son, whom the flattering promises of hope, joined to many real virtues, had made an object of tender affection—At Dalwhinnie, near Blair Athol, on his way to his seat in
