

...the real independence of Town of Galway, in which he as any other man could be—for 25 years; every year he the County of the Town, or ay, so that Galway was the ice of his property. So cir-rational man say that any age and interests of Galway the step he did this day.— admitted on all sides,) was a rge property, well acquainted d the interests of commerce; y a native of the town, was n the neighbourhood by blood, nd by property. Is it possible s of Galway can be indifferent the other side,) to a man so Gentlemen, (says Mr Conyn) ll as his duty to promote our cticable manner; he promises e capable of breaking his promise; le integrity, and of a character iq. was proposed by Major d by Mr. Darcy of Kiltalla. le a very long and elaborate much time in endeavouring to Daly first made the proposition Mr. Eyre to Mr. Daly; assured as wishes for the prosperity of ed Mr. Biske for the many servi-e town; informed us that his re would visit Galway in a few his Uncle's intentions to set up vacancy in our Representation; e the meeting that his religious e most liberal kind; and after non-resident freemen, which it ought to create a portion of in a good deal of abuse of this anxious to become a member e midst of Applause.
at he appeared there on behalf ami that before he entered into subject touched on by the Hon. and Mr. Blake, he begged to he had the honor of addressing, less that prevented Mr. Prenderd that it was not an excuse for e a colour to what would other-spect, he meant the non-attend-r. Prendergast this day of the ords alluded to his negotiations re, acknowledged that he had a view to his own interest, that could attend less to the interests y, than Messrs. Eyre or Maunsell, e less for the inhabitants of the investors had. That he would disinterested feelings claimed by e Mr. Daly, remarked upon the Freedom to be made, viz:—300. that although he wished for the probably never offers it to the full, at such a great distance from the ed in further proof, he called the ing to one of the articles, where Mr. Daly to nominate the Ren accurately, amongst other facts could rather come to the place he and resign the Corporation there the Town at large, than to give nily, and that he thought Mr. ould have that effect.
to the negotiation with the Indeand stated Mr. Maunsell had Mr. Ireland, that Mr. Daly had negotiation with that Committee. is actively that the contrary was went into some further detail of James Daly, Esq. and Colonel Martin were on Saturday re-elected Representatives in Parliament for the County Galway.

The Grand Jury of the County Cork have appointed Mr. Richard H. Cotton, to fill the Office of Secretary to their body.

The Right Hon. Robert Peel, the late Secretary for Ireland, is about to lead to the Hymenial altar, the beautiful and accomplished Miss Julia Floyd, daughter of the late General Floyd.

The Harwicke Revenue Cutter, Lieutenant Mottley, captured on the evening of the 16th ult. after a chase of two days, off the Calf of Man, on the coast of Ireland, a large smuggler, under Danish colours, called the Ven, out fourteen days from Flushing, with a complement of ten men and her cargo, which consists of tobacco, tea, and pepper, is estimated at the value of £8000.

The Staff of the North and of the South Mayo Militia, which have been for a long time past so usefully employed on the borders of the County Mayo, have returned to their quarters at Belina and Westport—their services being, from the present tranquil state of the country, no longer necessary, in the posts they have lately occupied.

Thursday, Richd. Ford, Michael Ford, (brothers) and John Fitzgerald, were hanged at Clallowa Green, for burglary and robbery in the house of John Hogan, near Patrick's Well.

A most disgraceful scene took place in this City on Sunday evening last. The remains of Cloney, who was hanged on Saturday for the abominable outrage on a Female committed on the Salmon-Weir Bank, was carried for interment, and attended by a vast concourse of persons, preceded by eight young Women, dressed in white, bearing a garland of flowers. Can any thing more particularly mark the demoralization of the lower orders than this circumstance?

Eight men, convicted of Ribbonism at the Assizes of Galway, arrived here yesterday on their way to Cork for Botany Bay.

The mills of Mallardstown, near Callan, which were burned on Monday, were insured by the Royal Exchange and Atlas for £5,000.

On Monday, the Albion, Thomson, from Charleston to Liverpool, thirty-five days out, was lost on the Wexford coast, in consequence of having mistaken the Tower Light for Taskar. She now lies on the Burrow of Ballyreague. Her cargo, 1073 large bales of cotton, and about 50 tons of rice, is all saved. The vessel and cargo are rated at £20,000. The materials of the vessel, with the crew, are also saved.

Salmon has been selling in Galway throughout the Lent, at 3s 4d. a lb.

The Committee of the House of Industry, acknowledges the receipt of Ninety-six pounds of Beef from Alderman Watson, which was distributed last Sunday as an Easter dinner to the aged poor in that Asylum.

THE DRAMA.

On Monday evening last, was performed the Stranger— comment or remark is unnecessary, as its merits or demerits are already well known. The Performers now claim our attention—Miss Wentworth (a new candidate for Historic fame) made his appearance in the Stranger: his voice, face;