

...and on the minds of your usurped power of the Corporation be wholly free. Let your efforts, be directed to overthrow corporate that monopoly continues, think not the duty you owe your country.
 Invections are applied individually those the Corporation—for many of capacity, I entertain sincere respect; of them as a public body otherwise

...manipulate perhaps
 ...functions, once combined
 ...ome body, only at
 ...ous of the best as well as one of the
 ; and this opinion never received a is the case of our Corporation. It only fit for dissolution—that dis-are all the symptoms of sickness ou its form—it bears upon its front e and death—it carries conflagrahe brink of the grave—plunge it a heart mourn its fate, or a sigh be ...the more gratifying subject of the assurances I feel of our success tutional committee. I trust even an whom I oppose, will do me the motive could make me overcharge any impression to be left on your eliere to be strictly the truth.— at's gross poll. 255 non-resid nts, icked surreptitiously on the 14th ending one to the friends who return is received. But add the the 36 freeholders, whose affidbeen considered informal, the 81 uly established at law, together ured under the 37th Geo 3. and eful point, a majority, already etc. I mention all these matters conceal them. The Honourable himself, acknowledges that in of the election, my opposition and that I have never sought to any underhand artifice, or vulgare But it is not merely on my side myself, but on the character ers. In a great mercantile city interest is entitled to the highest The protection afforded me by is best illustrated by a single of the Chamber of Commerce.

 I feel pride in saying, there is orted me warmly. If then, the competent to decide who should if judgment has been decisively, ly given, from the Eastern also, from the Estate of my to the Western boundary, the landholders, with the exception been given very generally to character and responsibility of —but this supposes in ~~frank~~ ions and private regard, rather though I value the sacred secunction them, still, I cannot rison by which political motives I cannot but complain of, the which have been employed to honorable opponents, and to impute those transactions to but to persons acting on ~~in~~ after and himself responsible, the seductions and blasphe-men for actual corruption, have been employed. There is non-payment of money

TOWN OF GALWAY ELECTION.

GROSS POLL—SATURDAY, APRIL 8.

Mr. Prendergast,	340
Mr. Blake,	447
<hr/>
Majority for Mr. Prendergast,	309

There are four Booths—two for Freemen and two for Freeholders, one of the latter in the interest of Mr. Blake, closed on Saturday. The different turn which the Election has taken, was quite unlooked for—the Independents were confident of the success of their favourite. The Galway Advertiser states, that the Military were called out to put down the Mob who have committed several excesses; two of Mr. Daly's tenants, and young Mr. Pierce, had their skulls fractured; several have been lodged in Jail by the Mayor and Sheriff Smyth.

LIMERICK—WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12.

On Monday last, the Right Hon. Lord Viscount Gort, in the presence of a numerous assemblage of respectable persons, laid the first stone of a House of Worship intended to be erected in Bedford-row, by the Wesleyan Methodist Society, in connexion with the Established Church. The ceremony concluded with singing and prayer, by Mr. West.

Yesterday, the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the City were opened with the usual formalities before the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen Watson, Russell, and Marrett, when the following Grand and Market Juries were sworn, viz:—

- GRAND JURY—John Harrison, Foreman, Arthur Glover, William Carr, James Alton, Wm. Ferguson, Jeffrey Egan, Francis Mahony, James O'orman, William Fitz-Gerald, David Hunt, James Ewart, Charles O'Hara, Timothy Ryan, Henry O'Sullivan, William Ward, Stephen B Goggis, L. J Jones, William Glover, James Caulfield.
- MARKET JURY—James Dooly, John McDonnell, Patrick Coghlan, Joseph Molony, Mathew Minahan, John Nunes, Thomas Merrick, John Ryan, Joseph Dwyer, Thomas M Cernick, Thomas Purcell, John Lacy.

The Recorder sat for the registry of freeholds, under the New Election Act. The mariner who was wounded by the Captain of his ship, in a state of inebriety, as mentioned in our last, died yesterday in the Co. Infirmary. A servant-man was kicked by a coach-horse, in Thomas-street, on Sunday, and died in much agony that night.

This day, Daniel Duggan, for burglary in the house of John Kelly, and Darby Cooney for robbing John Leo, were hanged at Gallows Green—they make eight executions since our last Assizes—Patrick Kelly who was also to suffer death this day, received a respite on Monday, and is to be transported.

Last night, John Cory, of Kilrush, fell from a curl boat off Tarbert and was drowned. The ships Emily and Expedition have cleared our harbour this day; the former with 60 passengers for Quebec, and the latter with 30 for Miramiches.

Portsmouth, of a son—In Dub Murray, Esq. of a son—On Se Cronin, of Bellview, Co. Kerry

MARRIED—On Monday the Bath, by the Rev. Doctor M Esq. Captain of the late 96th Elizabeth, relict of the Rever daughter of the late Robert Alderman—Yesterday morning (today, at St. John's Church, C to Sarah Maria, eldest daughter Corbally, Esq.—In Dublin, Joh County Tyrone, to Mary Jane, of College-green, Esq.—In Co Crossmahon, to Eliza, eldest Esq.—At Ballymoney Church, of Tivoli, Esq. to Jane, eldest da Esq. of Laurel-Hill—In Dublin York-street, to Miss Marston, of L. Carter, of Magurebridge, to near that town—In Dublin, Lieut Mills, only daughter of Samuel Co. Wicklow—Mr. Humphrey
 Dublin, to Miss Leonella Jenk
 The Rev. Alan Bell, L.L. D. of only daughter of James Adams Incorporated Society—Lieut. J Regiment, to Miss Clayton, of H. F. Rowless, of the Madras daughter of Doctor Hill—At St. the Rev. Edward Banks, son of the Hon. Frances Scott, daughter England—At Colbridge, Co. Ki Esq. of Frayne, Co. Meath, to L the late Samuel Mills, of Turin Dublin, Richard W. Boyd, Esq.
 of the Rev. James Bond of Licen Yarmouth, the Rev. Thomas Dad Brienscombe, Dorsetshire, to Jane, Colonel Lloyd, of Bowdewell.

DIED—At Cullenwood, near his age, Rear Admiral Sir Chic Ulster King of Arms. He was Fortescue, of Dromicken, in th by the Honourable Elizabeth V Earl of Mornington, and aunt to Duke of Wellington—At Gibral
 Artillery—At Cheltenham, Ma Chateauroux, in France, aged 7 Bertrand, so well known for his
 At Brompton, Doctor Thomas B Philosophy in the University of Norris, Berks, Mr. Hayward. He sum of £200,000—In Granada, Hon. John Hoyle, Speaker of th the Island—On the Circular-r Elm—At Ballymore, near Sligo, William Garrett—In Moachin's regretted, Mr. Richard Deane—Irish, relict of the late Mr. John Silversmith—At Charlevill, Co.
 Dundas—In Arragh, aged 82, ch of Darty-Lodge—In London, th of Giltown, Co. Kildare—At N William Henry Carter, Esq. of Ca
 The Very Rev. Isaac Milner, D. D student of Queen's College, Camb fessor of Mathematics in that U Mary-street, Mr. David Spaight Thomas, Master of the Nobles to th of the Bengal Army—On Thursday hours' illness, at his house in Tra Esq.—The Rev. Charles Jenck, R and Fellow of Trinity College, O Co. Lonsdale, Richard Ledwith, Longford—On the 17th ult.
 97, Mrs. Mary Hubbard, of Bin
 They had lived together upward Fitzmaurice, Stockport, aged 76, the nearly forty years Rector of that p

Exchange—Dublin on