

... M. P. has left Carlow, for

... Ormond, has departed for the recovery of his health.

... ment of James Patterson, Esq. of the Inspectorship of Fisheries, (as a first step,) must be of great benefit to the experience and general information.

... for a Coroner for the County of Limerick on Friday next.

... of the County Dublin, have addressed to James Tandy, Esq. highly respected, whilst engaged as Chief Magistrate of the district, under the Peace Act.

... at the Magistrates have applied to the Justices of the Peace for the Peace Preservation Act, under the Peace Preservation Act.

... night, at 12 o'clock, a mounted stable of Mr. Going's, proceeding to Hospital, was attacked on the way, by six men, who threw several stones which wounded him in the head—the assailants fired on the assailants, who were not from a pistol, which fortunately he fellows accompanied their attack with the most atrocious names, and called on each other to "rub the peeler." Information relative to this transaction are sworn to, and it is believed that the perpetrators will not elude justice.

... night last, the Stables of Edmund of Ballyvoreca, were broken into and saddles and Bridles taken away—the thieves yet evaded the vigilance of those who were on duty.

... party of Mr. Going's Police passed to do duty at Murroe.

... a number of armed men attacked the named Toomy, near Ballyvoreda, in the County of Limerick, and after breaking open the door, dragged out three of the inmates, and flogged them most desperately.

... Sheriff Jackson lodged in jail two named Patrick Kelly and James Connors, in the County of Limerick, in the session was found a crimson cloak, a pair of sheets, brown and white flannel, and a pair of trousers, which are supposed to be stolen from the County of Clare. The fellows are identified as notorious bad characters; the first, who was only discharged from prison on Monday, where he was confined two months. The goods can be viewed at Mr. Lyle's, Thomond-gate.

... by the direction of P. O. Lovett, Esq. Chief Magistrate of Limerick, Messrs. Roe, Abbott, Excise Officers, proceeded to search in the rear of John's-street, in this street they detected nine sacks of illicit malt,

DEATH—On Sunday, at his house in Hume-street, Dublin, Mrs. Rice, wife of Stephen Edward Rice, of Mount Trenchard, in this County, Esq. a Lady who bore a tedious illness with Christian fortitude, and her death has imparted the greatest affliction to an attached family and her highly respectable connections. Her remains will be conveyed, with those of her son, Stephen, whose death we lately announced, to the family vault at Shanagolden Church, for interment—Yesterday, at Castle-CConnell, most sincerely and very deservedly lamented by her family and friends, Mrs. Kane, wife of Richard Kane, Esq. Captain and Paymaster of the Royal County Limerick Militia—On Sunday, in Cecil-street, in the prime of life, Martin Croagh, Esq. son of the late Doctor Croagh, of this City; a Gentleman of the most engaging disposition, and whose premature death is universally regretted—In Waterford, Thomas Hancock Davis, Esq. son of Richard Davis, Esq.—On Saturday night, in Roche's-street, aged 17, Mr. John Winters, son of Mr. Thomas Winters, Licentiate of this District; a youth of the most promising abilities, and whose death to his parents, whom Providence has pleased to remove from hence a number of their offspring, is a source of the greatest affliction. The death of this young man was awfully sudden, as he had been walking in the street two hours before his dissolution—In Douglas-street, Cork, Mrs. Anne Meade—At Belmoor-House, Hampstead-Heath, Sir John Jackson, Bart. into M. P. for Dover, and one of the Directors of the East India Company—Drowned, in the river Canton, near Whampoa, Henry Bazely, East India Co.'s service, son of Captain Henry Bazely, R. N.—In Ceylon, Lieut. G. E. Drummond, 16th Regiment of Foot—At Pisco, Colonel James Nisbett Charles, late of the 11th Regiment, Aid-de-Camp to Sir Robert Wilson—At Wallahabad, Lieut. William Haldane, 24th Native Infantry—At Clova, John Harry, only son of Sir Harry Niven Lumsden—At Brussels, Maria, eldest daughter of the Hon. Colonel Parker—On Monday, the Hon. Lewis Dymoke, Champion of England, which devolves to the Rev. John Dymoke, Rector of Lincoln, whose business it will be to ride on horseback at Westminster Hall at the Coronation, and challenge to fight any man who denies the title of the King to the Throne—At Bellary, at Captain Willoe's, Caroline, daughter of the late P. Travers, Esq. of his Majesty's Forces—In Mary-street, aged 74, Mrs. Robinson—On Arras-quay, Dublin, Joshua Green, merchant—Aged 80, Gordon Whitmore, Esq. of Hullybrook—At the Isle of Wight, Lieut.-Colonel H. Wesley, senior Major of the 34th Regiment—At Nova Scotia, Assistant-Surgeon Simpson, 40th Foot—At Chelsea, the Baroness Von Grovestens—At Brighton, aged 95, Mr. Anston, the celebrated Drawing Master—At Sunning Hill, the wife of George Simpson, Esq.—At Maynooth College, the Rev. Paul O'Brien, for many years Professor of the Irish Language in that establishment, aged 69—At Tunbridge Wells, Captain George Allan Maclean, 97th regt. fourth son of the late Lieut.-Colonel Maclean—Sunday, at Blackrock, Cork, Captain Prentice, lately on the staff of the Recruiting Service of that district—On the 15th of last month, at Tobago, of the epidemic fever, Ensign Frederick Clark, of the 4th or King's Own Regiment of Infantry—At Trinidad, on the 16th of March last, Mrs. Wm. E. Fitzgerald, eldest daughter of Mr. John Prendergast, of Cork.

COMMITTED—To the City Jail, by Alderman Watson, Charles Roe and Bridget Gais, or Roe, for having in possession a stolen cow—This day, by Richard Going, Esq. Chief Magistrate of Police, Michael Sullivan, for robbery—By William Bouchier, Esq. John Donna, charged with felony.

THE MARKETS.

Market Prices this day.—Wheat, 1s 6d to 1s 6½ per stone—Oats, 11d—Barley, 10d.—Flour, 4s. per bag—Oatmeal, 1s 5s per cwt.—Pork, 30s.—Potatoes, 2d per stone—Beef, 5d to 6d per lb.—Mutton, 6d to 7d.—Butter, 80s. 85s. 75s. 65s.

Exports—Scipio, Liverpool, 250 barrels oats, George Black, Robert Greenock, 550 barrels oats, 100 bundles

By Permission of the Right Worshipful Esq. Mayor.

THEATRE-ROYAL, GEORGE'S LIMERICK.
ELEVENTH NIGHT OF MISS A. B. ENGAGEMENT.
MR. DOWNING
 Requests to announce that HIS BENEFIT FRIDAY, the 28th Instant, on which this his first Appeal will meet with the support of his Friends and a liberal public THE EVENING'S ENTERTAINMENT WILL BE THE MOST ENTERTAINING AND SPEED THE PLOW THE PART OF Miss Stanford..... Miss
 AND
 Mr. Abel Hardy..... Mr.
 In the course of the Evening
A Rustic Dance incidental to BETWEEN THE PLAY AND BRAHAM'S POLACCA AND, "O SAY NOT WOMAN'S LOVE" By Mr. HAYES, who has kindly offered THE BALLAD OF "ALONZO AND IMOGENE" BY MR. SEYMOUR AND A "COMIC SONG." IN CHARGE BY MR. DOWNING
 The whole to conclude with POCOON MUSICAL AFTERPIECE PRIME BANG U
 As performed at the Theatres-Royal with unbounded applause.
 Jerry Bloom..... Mr.
 Tickets to be had of Mr. DOWNING Patrick-Street, and at the Theatre Boxes may be taken each day from 11 Boxes, 4s. 2s.—MIDDLE LITICK, 2s.

MR. ELRINGTON
 RESPECTFULLY announces to the bitants of RATHKEALE, that the death of a particular friend, he is of Entertainment until MONDAY Evening

ON SALE,
 Per Mary Ann, from Liverpool
 Lying at Fisher's-quay, Bottom of
A SMALL CARGO OF LIVERPOOL COALS
 Selling ex Ship, at 19s. per
THOSE who wish to engage a quantity of price, will please apply immediately on board, or to JOHN MACNEILL and near the Corn Market, who are landing Tea Hds. of RAW SUGARS, which is unusually.

FOR BORDEAUX
 The New Packet, DO
 Captain WILLIAM EVANS
 Will sail with PASSENGERS only, from the Dock, the first fair wind after the
THE DORSET is a remarkably comfortable and convenient of P particularly attended to in her speed