

least £40,000 richer than when he died; and adding to these circumstances, the fact of the Establishment of—its large and successful transactions—the vast lodgments which bespake the high credit it had acquired—the fortune of Mr Newport, about £100,000—the fortune he obtained with interest—and his very contracted expensiveness, the result of his affairs will surprise no one.

ASSETS.
.....	£21,000
.....	2,793
.....	20,000
Notes, .....	5,375
.....	9,000
.....	13,415
.....	14,500
.....	29,504
	£120,250
LIABILITIES.
.....	£34,155
.....	50,000
.....	70,865
	£255,000

WICK—SATURDAY, JUNE 17.

much gratified in seeing that he has been pleased to confer the honour of a Cross of the Order of the Bath on a highly esteemed countryman, Admiral Dalhousie affords a convincing proof of the our gracious Sovereign in reward of his gallant services entitle them to his accounts Lord Dalhousie intended to sail for Quebec, in his Majesty's ship on the 1st of June, without waiting for and this day, the 4th Regiment of Foot Guards, from Ballinasloe, on a route to the 49th Regiment at Bateauant.

regiment commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel Barton, has marched from Marchwood. They are replaced at Marchwood by the 35th.

ments of the 23d Fusiliers stationed at Fula, and Killeady, are shortly to be ordered by Major Warburton's Police.

ments of Mr. Going's Police were dispersed on Wednesday from head-quarters—one to Necker, and the other to Necker, to be kept till further orders. A Chief Peace Officer was attached to the party at Castle-Council.

any night, a number of men armed, entered the house of Pat. O'Brien, a gardener in the employ of Sir John A. De Burgh, and after breaking the doors, forced the house, and beat the man in a manner, tied him up in the bed-clothes, and his blood, and rifled the house of its contents of furniture, &c. to the value of £100 and upwards—they also took away a ring which was marked with Sir John's name, and returned shortly after.

Masters-General have offered £500 for the apprehension of the person who sent the letter from Kilkenny to Dublin, on of the Presbyterian Congregation of Carlow, is to take place at the New Chapel, on the Athy road, on Wednesday next.

St. George's Church will open on Sunday next, at a quarter before eight in the morning, twelve at noon, and at half past six in the evening, for the celebration of Divine Service.

CONVICTIONS.—To the City Gaol, by Alderman Watson, John Collingdon, felony; by Alderman Russell, John and Michael Fitzgerald, felony. To the County Gaol, by Rev. Henry Bateman, George Manning, different felonies.

BIRTHS.—At Rockdale, the Lady of Lieutenant Colonel Mervyn, 8th Regiment, of a son—At Frado, the Hon. Mrs. Kayson, of a daughter—At Killyman, the Lady of the Rev. Thomas Carpenter, of a son—In Darnley, Dublin, the Lady of N. W. Brady, Esq. Sheriff elect, of a daughter—At Graigue, County Carlow, the Lady of Thomas Haughton, Esq. of a daughter—In Upper Grosvenor-street, London, the Duchess of Richmond, of a son.

MARRIAGES.—In Dublin, Nicholas Colthurst, Esq. late Major in the Portuguese service, to Harriet, daughter of the late John O'Donnell, Esq. Barrister at Law, formerly of Erinmont, Co. Cork—John Henry Norton, Esq. to Anne, daughter of John Carson, Esq. of Meafstown, Co. Dublin—In Cork, the Rev. Richard Lee, to Anne, daughter of the late Rev. John Lewis—In Dublin, George Hornidge, Esq. of Burgin, Co. Wicklow, to Cecilia, youngest daughter of the Hon. J. Leveson—William Carroll, Esq. of the County Kilkenny, to the daughter of Francis Flood, of Dublin, Esq.—In London, by a Protestant Clergyman, and afterwards by a Roman Catholic Chaplain, his Excellency Count Reppent Victor Rummshoff, eldest son of the Prince de Saxe-Coburg, to Miss Anne P. Shortt, eldest daughter of the late T. S. Goudham, Esq. of Stamford, in Lincolnshire—Susan Perry, of Hoxhead, to Mrs. Newman, daughter of Robert Young, Esq. of Castle-ree, County Roscommon, and niece to the late Lord Bishop of Clonfert—In London, George Finch, Esq. M. P. to Jane, daughter of Admiral and Lady Elizabeth Halliday—In London, Samuel Fortson Cox, Esq. of the 1st Life Guards, to Mary, third daughter of the late Rev. Sir Robert Spenhill, Bart.

DEATHS.—At Perth, Captain Archibald Campbell, half-pay 56th Regiment—In the East Indies, Lieut. G. C. Johnstone, Royal Scots—Near Edinburgh, Alex. Lindsay, Esq. M. D. late of Dublin—In Cork, Miss Frankland, sister of the late Richard Frankland, of Ash Grove, in said County, Esq.—At Bourdeaux, in the 23d year of his age, Mr. John Francis Lane, only child of Mr. John Lane, of South Main-street, Cork—At Rosea, Dominica, of fever, David Leahy, Esq. Surgeon, second son of Mr. David Leahy, Druggist of Cork—Mr. Patrick Hughes, of Coffe-street, Dublin—At Rockdale, Co. Meath, Rowland Cooke, Esq.—At Nelson-place, Cork, aged 24 years, John C. Dennis, Esq.—On Tuesday last, at his seat, Binn, County Cork John Nash, Esq. son-in-law of the late Rev. D. Hoce, of this City; a Gentleman possessed of the most amiable disposition, and whose loss to a respectable and numerous family and attached tenantry will be long felt and deplored—At Castledermot, Mrs. Billing, widow of the late Thomas Billing, Esq.—At Leek, Sarah, daughter of the late Rev. Roger Steele, of Doncaster—At Montrose, Mrs. Jean Straton. Besides leaving handsome legacies to her relatives, she bequeathed the following sums: To the poor within the town of Montrose, £1,000; for the education of poor children, £1,000; for the benefit of decayed Gentlewomen in Montrose, £1,000; to the Episcopal Chapel in Montrose, £1,000; to purchase a house for the officiating Clergyman, £600; and to the sexton's box, £200—In Dublin, Frances, eldest daughter of Edward Bellew, Esq.—Mrs. Mary Lester, wife of Thomas Lester, Esq. of the 7th Royal Fusiliers—On Aston-quay, Dublin, Mr. Hugh Mahon—Rather suddenly, at Rataksale, Mr. Jeremiah McCarley, of Tralee—At Sidary-place, Cork, Henry Bridgewater, Esq. late Chief Justice of the Island of Grenada—At Grenville, near Lismore, Henry Sanders, Esq. son of Geo. Sanders, Esq.

THE MARKETS.

Market Prices this day.—Wheat, 1s 9d per stone—Oats, 10½d—Barley, 10d.—Flour, 4s to 4s 6d per bag—Oatmeal, 14s 6d per cwt.—Potatoes, 2d per stone—Beef, 5d to 6d per lb—Mutton, 6d to 7d—Butter, 80s. 70s. 60s. 55s. per cwt.
Price of Butter in Cork on Thursday.
 Merchants, ..... 60s.—70s.—72s.—80s.—80s.

BUILDINGS AND PRO.
 To the extent of £10,000
 Particular Risks by special a
 The advantages of Insurance to Individuals that it is necessary to dwell on them; and that Persons concerned in Policies with the have experienced every satisfaction.
 Books of Rates, and every information
AGENTS'S OFFICE, 100, GEORGE'S-ST
 Government Debentures and other Public Securities, bought by D. F. G. Mahony, who will be the amount of all Orders entrusted

SEEDS FOR SUMM.
WILLIAM WILSON
 NO. 3, GEORGE'S-STRE
 Is now supplied with a variety of best T among which are the Yellow Aberdeen Globe, Early Green Barrel and Yellow M tugal Onion for sowing this month, and White Cabbage for next.
 N. B.—Should any Gentleman be still down ground under permanent grass, White White Yorkshire Hay seed lately arrived.
 Lime

GEORGE R. CROWE
 RESPECTFULLY informs the Public received an extensive Supply of TEA, SUGARS, COFFEE, SPICES, and choice of each are worth public attention. He is, as usual, well supplied with extra Oils, Pitch, Tar, and Rosin; Kilkenny Str Brick, Castleswick, Bristol Malasses, and Pearl Ashes, &c. &c. &c.
 GEORGE R. CROWE will take Bank Notes at present in circulation.
 N. B.—Those who buy to sell again, are invited to apply for a discount.
 Lime

FASHIONABLE MERCHANT TAILOR ESTABLISHMENT
WM. DWYER
 35, PATRICK-STREET, LIA
 BEGS leave to inform his Friends he has just returned from Dublin Association of SUPERFINE CLOTH and WAISTCOATING, of the newest with every other Article in his line fit for which being made up in the most fashionable best workmanship, will, he hopes, insure of that favor and confidence which he has enjoyed since he commenced the business.
 N. B.—DWYER is, as usual, well supplied with every Article in the LEATHER BREEC Trade.

HORSE WANTED
 WANTED a thorough, or three quarters bred, or MARE, equal to 13½ Stone half high, of good action, and perfect from the top to the bottom—for which a LIBERAL price will be given.—Apply at the Office of this

THEATRE ROYAL, GEORGE'S-STREET
 BY PERMISSION OF THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF THE GREAT SEAL
 FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE
MISS WHITAKER