MR. SKYMOUR'S BENEFIT

Next Monday evening Mr. Seymour will make his fare-well appearance before a Limerick audience. Of this Gentleman's excellent character and commanding merits, we have often spoken with sincerity:—They are well known and properly appreciated by the public. Everlong his professional powers will be displayed in the great Emporium of histrionic genius. No doubt can be entertained of his flattering reception and triumphant success in the Sister Country—but while he is with us, and it will be but a short time, let us cherish him—let us (to use a homely but emphatic phrase) "make much of him." He is deserving of our support and generosity. Hereafter, when he shall shine among the brightest stars of the dramatic horizon, it will be pleasing to reflect, that he shed his first splendour upon our stage, and that we were not insensible of his influence.

As we are always eager to manifest our regards on the departure of our favourites, so we ought to crowd the House on Monday Evening, to give a cheering good-by to an individual who has earned our esteem.
