 highly respectable family and friends.—This morning, at her Brother-in-law's, (Thomas Gielston, Esq.) in Newchurchstreet, Mary, third daughter of the late Ringrose Atkins, Esq. of Prosper, in the County of Cork. This innocent young Lady, bore a lingering illness with a resignation which marked the character of a Christian—not with cold apathy, but rejoicing in hope of the Glory of God, assuredly trusting in a promise which can never fail, "all things shall work together for good to them who are the called according to his purpose"—she, indeed, experienced the fulfilment of this gracious promise, for amidst bodily anguish, her spirit rejoiced, and her constant prayer was "not my will but thine be done, O Lord."
