ing appears in the Crown Book of ter of Edmond Morony, late Treas-Assizes was called upon to obey the Assizes 1820, by which he was di-unt upon oath in manner therein mentito attend with all books of account and its as in said order mentioned; and and Morony having applied in person his Counsel insisted that there is no in this Court to enforce the said order Treasurer out of office, and stated that for and because he was not prepared to go pt required, he declined obedience to at the present, and the Secretary to ay being also called upon to produce or securities of the said Edmond want to said order, referred the Court Clerk of the Crown for the same, who the Court a bond, executed to the Edmond Morony, Robert Briscoe, and ris, dated the 21st March 1811, and in the last day of this Assizes, when ary came forward with their Present-Court handed to the said Grand Jury, and directed them to take such mea-might be advised, for the purpose of same against the said Edmond Moronities, and it appearing to the Court ion of the late Treasurer's accounts, ceedings before the present and former s appearing on the Grand Jury books, erable arrears due by the said Edmond d that either by his neglect or failure me, heretofore directed to be raised, by ns, for the repayment, by the Treasurer y of sums heretofore advanced to such y the order of the Lord Lieutenant, or her cause, a delay has arisen in the £1,545 5s. 6d. heretofore advanced the said Lord Lieutenant, and ascer-Summer Assizes 1818 to be then due, L. and the same having appeared to be unpaid, the Court did accordingly said Grand Jury to present the said raised in the manner before presented, orthwith to the Collector of the district, he said Grand Jury refused to present leging that the County of the said City to bear such burthen, and that therefore at present the same.
