Clonmel, August 5—On Wednesday morning, about five o'clock, as Michael Quirk, the steward at Kera, was coming to Clonmel, he was stopped about a mile and a half from town by two men, one of whom was armed with pistols; they demanded his money, and as he had but four pence, gave it to them. After he had gone a few paces, they called him back, and observing he had a good coat, took it from him. The coat was recovered on the day following at a pawn office in this town.

431 Oats,	257 2 0 ..	11 0
Total quantity of Corn received from 1st September, 1819, to 5th August, 1820.
85,006 barrels Wheat—59,897 barrels Barley—302,601 barrels Oats.

Waterford Markets on Saturday.

There has been scarcely any alteration in the price of Butter since our last, first quality having remained, for the last two days, tolerably steady, at 5s. generally, though 6d. to 6½ over has been paid in a few instances. The supply at the crane on both days was nearly equal—Thursday, 348—yesterday, 364 firkins. The business done in Corn this week has been but limited, but the dullness was very perceptibly increased in the latter part of yesterday. Some very prime Wheat was bought at 3s. 6d. in the morning; but subsequently 3s. was as much as could be obtained, and inferior samples would not bridge over 30s. Oats may still be quoted at 12s. 6d. to 12s. 6d. the latter not very common.
