TO THE PUBLIC.

An aged and once respectable person is now compelled, with an infirm wife and helpless daughter, (through want of employment for upwards of two years, combined with bodily ailments) to appeal to the sympathy of the charitable and benevolent among his fellow-creatures, and strongly to implore their assistance to prevent them from perishing by actual want, which must inevitably be their lot, if a christian hand be not extended, or this appeal be unsuccessful. The smallest donation will be thankfully received at the Office of the Paper; or by Joseph Massey Harvey, and James and Samuel Phelps, Esqrs. to whom this case is known.
