

on behalf of the Meeting,
JOSEPH GABBETT,
 "Mayor of the City of Limerick."

THE LORD BISHOP'S REPLY:
 "I thank you for the expression of regret for my approaching departure from Limerick, which have been to such a degree commiserated to me, have deeply affected my mind, and I am unable to express the full (I fear) unexpressed measure of your kind during my long residence in Limerick, and a debt of gratitude to its inhabitants, as both for the assistance with which I was enabled to struggle, and for the comfort and care ever shown to me, and for the same reasons I must principally attribute of my conduct, which I rendered amongst you, to the hope, that I have in my residence of the Inhabitants of Limerick in private life; or, if through my humble efforts have resulted to that community peace and prosperity, I may say, with truth, I feel it to be an honor and consolation. A separation from a dear society I have derived so much pleasure from, and which I highly value, would, if it were possible to contemplate, could I not have hope of frequently meeting them in the obligations which I feel to the Inhabitants of Limerick can be obliterated from the mind of their most gratefully
 "And a warmly attached, &c.
